ARIZONA CARDINALS

WILLIAM V. BIDWILL

OWNER

William V. Bidwill's association with the Cardinals began as a child ball boy on Chicago's South Side and continues today as owner.

A native of Chicago, Bill Bidwill presides over the oldest continuously-operated professional football franchise. Founded in 1898, the Cardinals join the Chicago Bears as the only two remaining charter members of the National Football League (1920). As his involvement with the team continues through its eighth different decade, the current one has seen the franchise reach unprecedented heights.

Over the past five seasons, the Cardinals won more games (50) than in any other five-year stretch in team history. In 2015, Arizona captured its third NFC West crown after posting a franchise-record 13 wins during the regular season. The Cardinals also earned the first postseason bye in team history in 2015. The Cardinals have gone .500 or better in eight of the last 11 seasons - including four 10-win campaigns during that span - and has sold out all 124 games played at University of Phoenix Stadium since it opened in 2006.

The Cardinals have remained in the Bidwill family since Bill's father, Charles, a prominent Chicago sports figure and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, purchased the team in 1932. Charles ran the club until his death in the Cardinals' NFL championship year of 1947. Charles' wife, Violet, then guided the franchise's fortunes for the next 15 years, followed jointly by sons Bill and Charles, Jr. (Stormy). Bill became sole owner in 1972.

Named a Cardinals vice president during his undergraduate days at Georgetown University, Bill Bidwill returned to Chicago from the Navy in 1956 to begin assisting family interests that included football. When the Cardinals moved to St. Louis in 1960, Bidwill returned to the organization on a full-time basis.

Bidwill continues to have a presence at the Cardinals training facility and is a popular fixture at team events, charity functions and football activities. An active supporter of various civic and charitable organizations and endeavors, Bidwill directed the formation of Cardinals Charities, the team's organization dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes, shortly after the Cardinals arrived in the state.

While he is well-known for his understated nature and a preference for staying out of the spotlight, Bidwill has been unable to avoid accolades in recent years for his contributions and accomplishments as Cardinals owner.

Most recently, in November of 2017 Bidwill was inducted into the Arizona Sports Hall of Fame as part of its 2017 class. The Arizona Sports Hall of Fame honors athletes, coaches, administrators and others who have made significant contributions to Arizona sports.

At the 2010 annual NFL Combine in Indianapolis, Bidwill was honored with the Paul "Tank" Younger Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance, whose purpose is to promote diversity and equality of job opportunity in the NFL. The Paul "Tank" Younger Award has been presented annually since 2003 for extraordinary contributions towards NFL diversity and previous winners include Tony Dungy, Dan Rooney and Bill Walsh. "When you look back over the years, Mr. Bidwill has a long history of hiring minorities to administrative and authoritative positions," said FPA chairman John Wooten. "He has really helped level the playing field and that is what this award is all about."

Also in February of 2010, Bidwill was inducted into the Sports Faith Hall of Fame in Lake Forest, IL. "He was honored as a long-time contributor to the NFL and for his contributions to charity, which he has conducted in a very quiet, very generous manner," said Patrick McCaskey, chairman of the group's advisory board and grandson of Chicago Bears legendary head coach George Halas. Bidwill joined Brian Piccolo, the former Bears running back, Tom Monaghan, founder of Domino's Pizza and former owner of the Detroit Tigers, and John Gagliardi, head coach at St. John's (MN) University and college football's all-time wins leader.

At its December 2010 commencement exercises at Northern Arizona University, Bidwill was awarded an honorary doctor of humane letters degree for "his contributions to the university, his community and his profession."

In May of 2017, Bidwill was selected for induction to the Georgetown Prep Athletic Hall of Fame. A 1949 graduate of the school, Bidwill was a two-sport athlete for the Little Hoyas football and baseball teams.

Bidwill was credited with bringing Super Bowl XXX to Arizona in January of 1996. The region hosted the game again in February of 2008 when Super Bowl XLVII was played at University of Phoenix Stadium. It hosted its third title game in February of 2015 when Super Bowl XLIX was played and resulted in a record economic impact of $720 million.

Bidwill's wife of nearly 56 years, Nancy, passed away in August of 2016. The couple were married in September of 1960 and celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in 2010. Bidwill has five children and 10 grandchildren.

MICHAEL J. BIDWILL

PRESIDENT

NOTE CARDS

- Since Michael Bidwill took over as team president in 2007, the Cardinals have gone .500 or better in eight of 11 seasons (just twice in previous 20 years) and posted four double-digit win seasons (none in previous 20).
- The Cardinals' 50 wins over the last five seasons (2013-17) are the most in any five-year span in franchise history.
- The two most-recent head coaches he hired for the Cardinals went on to finish #1 and #2 in franchise history in wins: Bruce Arians (50) and Ken Whisenhunt (49).
- Of the Cardinals seven all-time postseason wins, five have come during Bidwill's 11 years as team president. Arizona has played in nine postseason contests since Bidwill took over in 2007. The Cardinals played just seven total playoff games in their entire history prior to his tenure.
- Arizona has appeared in the NFC Championship Game twice during Bidwill's time as president (2008, 2015), including a victory in the 2008 conference title game that led to the franchise's first-ever Super Bowl appearance (Super Bowl XLIII).
- Leading the list of his Cardinals accomplishments is the creation of University of Phoenix Stadium. Since its opening in 2006, the team has sold out all 124 games (preseason and postseason included) played at the venue.
- In addition to his role in helping Arizona land Super Bowls XLII and XLIX, he led the effort to land Super Bowl LVII (2023) this past spring. Michael was also instrumental in getting the 2015 Pro Bowl for Arizona; played a week before Super Bowl XLIX those two events combined to deliver a record economic impact of $720 million to the region.
- By the time it hosts Super Bowl LVII, University of Phoenix Stadium will have undergone $100 million in improvements including parking infrastructure, state-of-the-art wifi, video boards, sound system upgrades and club-area enhancements since it staged Super Bowl XLIX.
- Bidwill also oversaw the team's appearance in the groundbreaking Amazon Original series All or Nothing: A Season with the Arizona Cardinals. Produced by NFL Films, the eight-episode series was awarded the Sports Emmy for Outstanding Serialized Sports Documentary in May of 2017.
- In January of 2016, the National Football Foundation (NFF) and College Hall of Fame inducted Bidwill and Arizona Governor Doug Ducey into the NFF Leadership Hall of Fame.
- This past January (2018), Michael was one of five owners named to the NFL's Player-Owner Committee focused on social and racial justice initiatives. In December of 2014, Commissioner Roger Goodell tapped Bidwill to chair the league's Conduct Committee which reviews the league's Personal Conduct Policy.

The Cardinals have been in the Bidwill family since Pro Football Hall of Famer Charles Bidwill purchased the team in 1933. Charles' son Bill handled day-to-day operations for decades before passing the torch to his son, Michael, who joined the organization in 1996 after practicing law for six years as a federal prosecutor.

CARDINALS LEADERSHIP: After initially serving as Vice President/General Counsel, Michael took over as team President in 2007, and his leadership has transformed the franchise. Since '07, the Cardinals have gone .500 or better in eight of 11 seasons (just twice in previous 20 years) and posted four double-digit win seasons (none in previous 20 years), including a franchise-record 13 victories in 2015.

The Cardinals won more games in the past five seasons (50) than in any previous five-year span in franchise history. That success was, in part, due to a pair of hires Bidwill made during a nine-day stretch in January of 2013. On January 8, he hired Steve Keim as General Manager and nine days later tabbed Bruce Arians as Head Coach. A long-time Cardinals scout, Keim went on to earn NFL Executive of the Year from Pro Football Talk in both 2013 and 2014 and also earned the same honor from the Sporting News in 2014. Arians, meanwhile, went on to become the winningest coach in franchise history and earned Associated Press Coach of the Year honors in 2014.

The Cardinals success under Bidwill has greatly elevated the team's popularity both locally and nationally. That fact is best measured in the record-setting ratings for Cardinals game broadcasts. Michael also oversaw the team's appearance in the groundbreaking Amazon Original series All or Nothing: A Season with the Arizona Cardinals, which chronicled the 2015 Cardinals season from the draft through the NFC Championship game. Produced by NFL Films, the eight-episode series was awarded the Sports Emmy for Outstanding Serialized Sports Documentary in May of 2017.

IF YOU BUILD IT: Among Michael's most significant accomplishments with the Cardinals has been leading the effort that led to the creation of University of Phoenix Stadium. The venue has been a major factor in the transformation of the Cardinals and a catalyst for the franchise's success. The team has sold out all 124 games played since the opening of the iconic stadium that has welcomed millions of Cardinals fans.

The venue also allows Arizona to host three Super Bowls in a 15-year span, something that would have been impossible previously. After hosting Super Bowl XLII in 2008, the stadium staged Super Bowl XLIX in 2015 and has been awarded Super Bowl LVII to be played in 2023. Super Bowl XLIX and surrounding events delivered an economic impact of $720 million, the highest for any Super Bowl on record and the largest for any special event in the state of Arizona.

In addition to those Super Bowls, University of Phoenix Stadium also hosted the second-ever College Football Playoff (CFP) National Championship Game in January of 2015 as well as the NCAA's Men's Basketball Final Four in April of 2017. The Final Four was the first since 1995 held west of Texas and capped an unprecedented run of major sporting events at the stadium. That grand slam (Super Bowl XLIX, 2015 Pro Bowl, CFP Championship, and Final Four) poured $1.3 billion into the Valley's economy according to a study completed by the Seidman Research Institute, W.P. Carey School of Business at Arizona State University.

Another project undertaken by Bidwill was the $15 million expansion and renovation of the team's Tempe practice facility. A three-phase project over two-plus years, it added more than 92,000 square feet to the team's headquarters (including practice bubble and additions to main building).

Among the upgrades and expansions were a stand-alone 78,000 square foot indoor practice bubble, a new full-service kitchen and dining area, an expanded weight room and new player rehab and cardio area that more than doubled the size of the previous weight room, expanded and newly re-designed locker room for players and coaches, an updated athletic training room and doctor's examination room and additional meeting rooms.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO GREATER PHOENIX:

In addition to his prominent role with the Cardinals, Bidwill has established himself as one of the most influential leaders in the greater Phoenix business community where he has been a strong advocate for economic growth and development. From 2008-10, Bidwill served back-to-back terms as Chairman of the Greater Phoenix Economic Council (GPEC). He is a board member of the Greater Phoenix Leadership (GPL),

Michael Bidwill, AZ Governor Doug Ducey and Super Bowl Host Committee Chairman David Rousseau at a May 23, 2018 event following Arizona's selection to host Super Bowl LVII in 2023.

an organization composed of the region's top business and civic leaders. He is also one of 16 members of the Arizona Commerce Authority Board of Directors which the ACA says "unites some of the state's most powerful, proactive officials with its globally recognized leaders of business."

HONORS: In November of 2017, Bidwill returned to St. Louis where he was honored at the prestigious Musial Awards after stepping up to fund the city's high school football awards when the previous sponsor pulled out. In January of 2016, Bidwill and Arizona Governor Doug Ducey were inducted into the National Football Foundation (NFF) Hall of Fame for their roles in helping shape the economic future of the state. In March of 2016, Bidwill was chosen to serve as the Grand Marshal of the 33rd annual St. Patrick's Day parade, one of the most popular and longest running such events in Phoenix.

In May of 2015, Michael was presented with the esteemed Vision Award from the Greater Phoenix Convention & Visitors Bureau, an honor bestowed just three times previously: Phoenix mayors Skip Rimsza and Phil Gordon plus former Suns and Diamondbacks owner Jerry Colangelo.

Bidwill received the 2014 Transformational Leader Award from the Arizona Chamber of Commerce & Industry. In November of 2013, he received the "West Valley Regional Advancement Award" from Western Maricopa Coalition, which cited continued positive impact in that community. Bidwill was selected by the Phoenix Business Journal as one of its 25 "Most Admired CEO's" in 2010.

NFL LEADERSHIP: Within the National Football League, Michael's influence has also increased exponentially in recent years. In January of 2018, he was one of five owners named to the NFL's Player-Owner Committee focused on social and racial justice initiatives. In December of 2014, Bidwill was selected to chair the league's Conduct Committee. Formed to ensure that the league's Personal Conduct Policy remains current and consistent with best practices and evolving legal and social standards, the committee reviews that policy at least annually and recommends appropriate changes with advice from outside experts. Bidwill brings unique perspective and experience to the Committee, as he was an Assistant U.S. Attorney with the Department of Justice in Phoenix from 1990-96, specializing in homicide and other violent crime cases.

Michael also chairs the league's Security and Fan Conduct Committee, a group of eight club executives that oversees and develops best security practices for NFL facilities, and has also been a member of the league's Business Ventures Committee since 2007. In December of 2012, he was appointed to the board of the National Football League Foundation which is dedicated to improving the lives of those touched by the game of football – from players at all levels to communities across the country.

BACKGROUND: Bidwill earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from St. Louis University in 1987 and in 1990 earned a law degree from Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. In May of 2015 – 25 years after his own graduation from the school – Michael delivered the commencement address at Catholic University's School of Law and was also awarded an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters.

A licensed pilot and flying enthusiast, Bidwill has participated as a volunteer for "Flying Samaritans," a group of volunteers including doctors and other medical personnel who offer free medical clinics in Mexico. Michael additionally is a member of the board for the Pat Tillman Foundation, which carries on the legacy of the former Cardinals safety killed in Afghanistan in 2004. He has also previously served as a member of the Air Force Chief of Staff Civic Leader Program whose membership "comprises respected community leaders (who) provide ideas and feedback to advise the secretary of the Air Force, the Air Force chief of staff and Air Force senior leaders."

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT MICHAEL BIDWILL

"I like where it all starts and that is with Michael Bidwill, by far the best owner I have played with, or played for. He is passionate, he wants to win, he is willing to do what it takes to win. It doesn't matter. He is all in, all in on winning and nothing else matters." – Former Cardinals QB Carson Palmer

"What Michael (Bidwill), Steve (Keim) and company have done over the last decade or so has put the Cardinals up there, in my opinion, with the better-run organizations in the league, the organizations that are willing to do what needs to be done to win championships. And that to me, as any player, that's the first thing you want to know – this team is committed to winning and putting that product on the field every year. That's exactly what this organization has become. ... Michael Bidwill, I could go on and on about the moves I've seen him make and the changes I've seen him make in this organization to give players the best opportunity to put their best foot forward every time they step out there." – Former Cardinals QB and Pro Football HOFer Kurt Warner

"The Cardinals were so bad for so long that I figured at some particular point, the worm would turn. I give Michael Bidwill a lot of credit for this. He really turned around a franchise that was just out there (in Arizona), with nobody paying attention. The Cardinals have become one of the model franchises in the NFL. ... I think there's a great deal of respect for what Michael Bidwill has done to turn a franchise that 10 years ago people kind of were laughing at into very much a franchise that a lot of people think is a model franchise right now, and a lot of teams want to emulate." – NBC Broadcaster Al Michaels

"You've got to be impressed with what they've done. When they made it to the Super Bowl (at the end of the 2008 season), I got emotional. It's an NFL city now. That's what you can say about Phoenix. Through better management and smart marketing, a new stadium that was done smart and well, and a connection to their audience, they've become a true NFL city." – Former Cardinals C Ed Cunningham

Michael Bidwill was honored on Nov. 18, 2017 at The Musial Awards in St. Louis, MO alongside event MC Mike Bush (left) and former Cardinals QB Jim Hart.

"What he has done is create an environment where guys want to be there. The perception is the ownership is much more outgoing and accessible. Mike understands you can build a brand in a positive way. He's done a good job of marketing himself as well as the organization as this being one of the up-and-coming places to be." – Former Cardinals DE Bertrand Berry

"He has made our facility first rate. For free agents and for our guys, it's a destination. ... He has instilled a winning culture. He hired an unbelievable general manager and scouts. ... Michael and I have always had a great relationship. He's always been honest with me, and I've always been honest with him. He said, 'Fitz, what are your concerns? Just be open with me.' I was completely transparent with him. ... I told him, 'you guys drafted me here, I've spent my whole career here, I want to end my career here.' There was a handshake and a hug, and it went from there." – Cardinals WR Larry Fitzgerald

"I do believe, when you talk about this organization and what has transpired, Michael Bidwill does not get the credit he deserves. University of Phoenix Stadium has changed the entire paradigm for this organization. Michael Bidwill spearheaded that drive. He doesn't get a lot of credit for that." – Former Cardinals RB and Current Radio Analyst Ron Wolfey

"He was the agent of change. I know a lot will be written and said about when the culture changed here, but in my opinion that's when it started. ... He started to overhaul almost every aspect of this organization. He focused all of our efforts toward one common goal and that was to be a championship organization. That's easier said than done, but everything we started doing we were all on the same page with." – Former Cardinals General Manager Rod Graves

"Michael has embraced Greater Phoenix's visitor industry and amplified its power. His proven civic guidance and emergence as a leader in the 'new Arizona' have helped our state make monumental strides as a preferred destination for visitors, job growth and future economic success." – President and CEO of Visit Phoenix, Steve Moore

STEVE KEIM*COLLEGE: North Carolina StateYEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 21/20HOMETOWN: Harrisburg, PAGENERAL MANAGER*NOTE CARDS

- After 14 seasons working within the Cardinals personnel department, Keim was elevated to GM on January 8, 2013.
- During his first five seasons as GM the Cardinals had more wins (50) than they had in any other five-year span in team history.
- Arizona has featured a top-10 defense four times and a top-10 offense twice during Keim's tenure as GM. In 2015, the Cardinals finished the season with the NFL's No. 1 ranked offense for the first time ever.
- Arizona's No. 2 ranked defense in 2016 was the team's highest dating back to the 1970 merger.
- Named Sporting News 2014 NFL Executive of the Year and earned back-to-back NFL Executive of the Year honors from the editors of Pro Football Talk (2013-14).
- In his first five seasons GM, Keim executed a total of 1,062 roster moves. That includes a high of 243 moves in 2017 when 31 players missed a combined 179 games due to injury.

Steve Keim was promoted to General Manager on January 8, 2013 after 14 seasons in the Cardinals organization. In guiding the team to an unprecedented run of success in his five years as GM, Keim earned contract extensions in February of 2015 and February of 2018 that will keep him with the franchise through 2022.

In five seasons since his promotion, the Cardinals have posted more wins (50) than in any other five-year stretch in team history and Keim has developed into one of the league's most highly respected GMs. Named the 2014 Sporting News NFL Executive of the Year in a vote of NFL coaches and team executives, Keim also earned back-to-back NFL Executive of the Year honors from the editors of Pro Football Talk (2013-14).

The teams put together by Keim during his time as GM have been some of the most successful in franchise history. In 2014 the team tied the franchise record for wins in a season (11) before setting a new mark in 2015 when the Cardinals won 13 games and earned its first-ever postseason bye. The Cardinals also established team records for total offense, points scored and total TDs during the '15 season.

Arizona and New England were the only teams in the NFL that ranked in the top-10 on both offense and defense in 2015 and 2016. In 2015, the Cardinals finished the season with the NFL's No. 1 ranked offense for the first time ever. Arizona's No. 2 ranked defense in 2016 was the team's highest dating back to the 1970 merger.

The Cardinals defense ranked No. 6 overall in 2017, marking the first time since the 1970 merger that Arizona has posted a top-10 defense in three consecutive seasons.

Keim has worked tirelessly to build the Cardinals roster. During his first four seasons as GM (2013-16), he made 819 total roster moves and the team posted a 41-22-1 record during that span. The 2017 season was Keim's busiest yet, as he made 243 total roster moves due to a host of injuries on both sides of the ball.

Arizona had 31 players combine to miss 179 total games last season, including 15 players who ended the year on injured reserve. The Cardinals were able to compile an 8-8 record in '17 despite losing starting QB Carson Palmer, All-Pro RB David Johnson, future Hall of Fame RB Adrian Peterson, Pro Bowl LG Mike Lupati, both starting OTs Jared Veldheer and D.J. Humphries, leading tackler/starting S Tyvon Branch, 2016 sack leader LB Markus Golden, 2017 INT leader S Antoine Bethea and the top kickoff/punt returner in RB T.J. Logan to IR last season.

During his first five seasons as GM, Keim has made 1,062 roster moves and the team has experienced one of the most successful five-year runs in its long history.

The 45-year old Keim originally joined Arizona in May, 1999 as a college scout in the east. He was promoted to Director of College Scouting in 2006, Director of Player Personnel in 2008, and then was promoted to Vice President, Player Personnel in May, 2012.

In his tenure with the team, Keim and the Cardinals have been commended for their successful draft classes, especially in recent years. Pro Bowlers Patrick Peterson, Larry Fitzgerald, David Johnson and Budda Baker were acquired through those drafts, as were standouts such as Markus Golden, D.J. Humphries and Deone Bucannon. In the 2018 draft, Keim made a big move in hopes of landing the team's next franchise QB when he engineered a draft-day trade to move up and select QB Josh Rosen with the 10th overall selection.

Another area in which Keim has had particular success in building the roster is through free agency and trades. During each of his first three off-seasons as GM, Keim signed a free agent who went on to make the Pro Bowl that season (Mike Iupati, Antonio Cromartie, John Abraham). The Cardinals were the only team in the NFL to accomplish such a feat. Arizona's free agent signings under Keim include: O-Linemen Mike Iupati and Justin Pugh, QBs Sam Bradford and Drew Stanton, DT Frostee Rucker, CB Antonio Cromartie and LBs John Abraham and Dwight Freeney. In 2016, Keim's biggest move came when he executed a high-profile trade for Pro Bowl LB Chandler Jones, who went on to register 57 tackles, 15 tackles for loss and 11 sacks during his first season with Arizona and who led the NFL in sacks last season. Recently retired QB Carson Palmer, who had a 38-21-1 record as a starter in Arizona, was acquired by Keim in a trade with the Oakland Raiders in 2013.

Of the 53 players on the Cardinals roster at the end of last season, 50 were acquired by Keim during his time as GM.

Keim attended Red Land High School near Harrisburg, PA and earned a bachelor's degree in Communications from North Carolina State in 1995. A two-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection as a guard at N.C. State, Keim started 36 consecutive games at left guard for the Wolfpack. He was named the offensive freshman of the year in 1991 and was the ACC Player of the Week following the team's victory over Maryland in November 1994. During a standout senior season where he was also a captain, Keim was named the N.C. State offensive line MVP and won the Jim Ritcher Award for the highest graded offensive lineman in addition to being named third team All-American from Gameplan magazine.

Keim had a brief stint in pro football as a free agent with the Miami Dolphins (1996) and Edmonton Eskimos (1997) of the Canadian Football League before returning to coach at N.C. State.

He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater for two years, assisted the recruiting coordinator with evaluations, and served as a liaison to NFL personnel wishing to scout Wolfpack football players.

Keim resides in Chandler, AZ with his wife, Kimberly, daughter Sloane, and sons Carson, Brady and Warner.

Smith (1995-96), Savannah State (1997-98), Illinois State (2000), Appalachian State (2001), East Tennessee State (2002), Bowling Green (2003), Notre Dame (2004), and Washington (2005).

Steve Wilks was named Arizona's head coach on January 22, 2018 when he signed a four-year contract with a team option for a fifth. The 49-year old Wilks came to Arizona after spending the past six seasons (2012-17) with Carolina, including last year as the Panthers defensive coordinator.

CAROLINA: Wilks began his career in Carolina in 2012 as the Panthers defensive backs coach for three seasons before adding the title of assistant head coach for two years (2015-16). He was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2017 after Sean McDermott departed to become head coach of the Buffalo Bills. The Panthers finished in the top-10 in total defense in five of Wilks' six seasons with the team and ranked second in the NFL with 51 interceptions between 2015-17. They advanced to the play-offs in four of Wilks' six seasons in Carolina. During Wilks' five seasons as the Panthers secondary coach (2012-16), Carolina ranked fourth in the NFL with 86 interceptions.

Last year in Wilks' first season as defensive coordinator, the Panthers went from 21st overall in 2016 (359.8) to seventh in 2017 (317.1 ypg). The Panthers finished third in sacks (50), third in run defense (88.1 ypg) and were the only team in the NFL to not allow an individual 100-yard rusher in any game. By the end of the '17 season, the Panthers had gone 20 consecutive games without allowing a 100-yard rusher, the longest streak in the NFL. LBs Luke Kuechly and Thomas Davis were both selected to the Pro Bowl while Kuechly was named first-team All-Pro in 2017.

The Panthers 50 sacks in 2017 were the third-most in the NFL and the fourth-most in franchise history.

They were one of three teams (Jaguars, Rams) in the NFL to have multiple players with double-digit sacks (Julius Peppers-11.0, Mario Addison-11.0).

In 2016, Wilks' secondary helped the Panthers tie for the NFC lead with 17 interceptions. Rookie CB James Bradberry (second round) led the team with 11 passes defended, becoming the first rookie in Panthers history to lead the team in that category. Fellow rookie CB Daryl Worley (third round) finished second with 10 passes defended.

Wilks was given the additional title of assistant head coach in 2015. That same season the Panthers won the NFC Championship, played in Super Bowl 50 and led the NFL in interceptions (24), total takeaways (39) and turnover differential (+20). Carolina limited opposing quarterbacks to an NFL-low 73.5 passer rating and ranked sixth in the league in total defense (322.9 ypg).

In 2015, S Kurt Coleman tied for third in the NFL with seven interceptions, the second most in team history, and returned one for a touchdown. CB Josh Norman earned first-team All-Pro honors and was selected to the Pro Bowl after recording 15 passes defended and four interceptions, including two returned for touchdowns.

In 2014, Wilks' secondary helped the Panthers rank 10th in the NFL in total defense. During the 2013 season, Wilks directed a unit that helped the Panthers finish second in the NFL in total defense and sixth in pass defense. Defensive backs were responsible for 16 interceptions, including a team-record four returned for touchdowns. Carolina limited opponents to an 81.4 passer rating, which was 10th in the NFL and S Mike Mitchell was one of two players in the NFL with at least four interceptions, three sacks and two forced fumbles.

Wilks returned home to Charlotte in 2012 to work for the Panthers. In his first season with the team, Carolina's pass defense improved from 24th in 2011 to 13th for an overall ranking of 10th in total defense. The Panthers led the NFL in average yards after the catch, allowed the third fewest pass plays of 20 or more yards and returned three interceptions for touchdowns.

OTHER NFL COACHING CAREER: Prior to working in Carolina, Wilks spent three seasons (2009-11) coaching the San Diego Chargers secondary. He added the title of assistant head coach in his third season with the Chargers in 2011. Prior to Wilks' arrival, San Diego ranked 31st in the NFL against the pass, but finished 11th in 2009, first in 2010 and 13th in 2011.

In 2010, Wilks helped the Chargers lead the NFL in total defense and pass defense. San Diego limited opponents to a 76.2 passer rating, fourth lowest in the league, and surrendered just 18 touchdown passes, the fifth fewest in the NFL that season. Under Wilks guidance, S Eric Weddle was twice named All-Pro (2010-11) and was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2010.

Wilks' first job in the NFL was as defensive backs coach with the Chicago Bears for three seasons (2006-08). In that time, the Bears secondary accounted for 42 of the team's 62 interceptions, including 16 in 2006 when Chicago led the NFL with 44 takeaways and advanced to Super Bowl XLI. Chicago's defensive backs forced 20 fumbles during Wilks' tenure, the most in the NFL during that three-year span.

COLLEGE COACHING CAREER: Wilks coached for 11 seasons at the collegiate level, working as a defensive backs coach, defensive coordinator and head coach. He began his coaching career as the defensive coordinator at Johnson C. Smith in Charlotte for two seasons (1995-96) and then as defensive coordinator at Savannah State for two seasons (1997-98) before being elevated to head coach in 1999. He guided the Tigers to a 5-6 record as head coach after being named Division II defensive coordinator of the year in 1998 when Savannah State led the nation in total defense. Nine stops and 19 years later, Wilks became a head coach again when he was hired by the Cardinals in 2018.

Wilks had one-year stints as the defensive backs coach at Illinois State (2000) and his alma mater, Appalachian State (2001), before working as the co-defensive coordinator at East Tennessee State in 2002. He then went to Bowling Green as defensive backs coach in 2003 before working at Notre Dame (2004) and the University of Washington (2005) in the same capacity.

PERSONAL: Wilks attended West Charlotte (NC) High School and went on to play defensive back at Appalachian State (1987-91), finishing his career with 103 tackles, four interceptions and four blocked kicks. He attended training camp with the Seattle Seahawks in 1992 and played defensive back and wide receiver for the Charlotte Rage of the Arena Football League in 1993. He earned a bachelor's degree in Communications from Appalachian State. Wilks and his wife, Marcia, have two daughters, Marissa and Melanni, and a son, Steven James.

A 23-year coaching veteran, Al Holcomb enters his first season with the Cardinals as the defensive coordinator after he was hired on 1/26/18. Holcomb is in his 10th season in the NFL after previously working with Carolina (2013-17) and the New York Giants (2009-12).

Carolina finished in the top-10 in total defense in four of Holcomb's five seasons with the team, including finishing second in the NFL in 2013 (301.3 ypg). Under his guidance, LBs Luke Kuechly and Thomas Davis became one of the best linebacker duos in the NFL, while at the same time excelling off the field. Kuechly was selected as the 2017 Art Rooney Sportsmanship Award winner while Davis was named the 2014 NFL Walter Payton Man of the Year.

Kuechly earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors in Holcomb's first season (2013) and was chosen to five consecutive Pro Bowls (2013-17) and selected four times as first-team All-Pro (2013-15, '17). He led the NFL with 153 tackles in 2014 and twice in 2013 was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week, including following his franchise-record 26-tackle performance vs. New Orleans. Kuechly became one of eight players in NFL history to be named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year (2012) and NFL Defensive Player of the Year (2013) in a career and just the second (Lawrence Taylor, 1981-82) to do so in their first two seasons.

the only team in the NFL last season not to allow an individual 100-yard rusher in any game and went 20 straight games without allowing a 100-yard rusher, the longest streak in the NFL.

In 2015, the Panthers won the NFC Championship and advanced to Super Bowl 50, leading the NFL in interceptions (24), total takeaways (39) and turnover differential (+20) while ranking sixth in the league in total defense (322.9 ypg). Kuechly and Davis were both selected to the Pro Bowl and named first-team All-Pro that season, the first time Davis had been recognized as an All-Pro or selected to the Pro Bowl in his career.

In 2014, Kuechly earned Pro Bowl and All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in tackles for the second time in three seasons, and Davis had his third consecutive 100-tackle season. The pair combined for 18 tackles and one interception in Carolina's Wild Card victory over Arizona. In 2013, Carolina ranked second in the NFL in total defense, second in rush defense and sixth in pass defense. Mike McCoy enters his first season with the Cardinals as offensive coordinator after he joined the team on 1/26/18. He came to Arizona with 18 years of coaching experience in the NFL, including four years as a head coach with the San Diego Chargers (2013-16), five seasons as an offensive coordinator with the Denver Broncos (2009-12, '17) and nine seasons on the offensive staff of the Carolina Panthers (2000-08).

During his time as an offensive coordinator/head coach (nine seasons), McCoy's offenses ranked in the top-10 three times and featured a top-10 passing attack six different seasons. He has coached nine different offensive players to a total of 12 Pro Bowls and tutored four quarterbacks who totaled 10 3,000-yard passing seasons, including five 4,000-yard campaigns.

In McCoy's four years with the Chargers, San Diego's offense ranked ninth in the league in total offense (365.9 ypg) and second in third down percentage (44.6%) and had a top-10 passing attack each season. The Chargers ranked fifth in the league in both net passing yards per game (269.0) and passing TDs (126) in that span. San Diego made the postseason in McCoy's first season (2013) and beat the Bengals in the Wild Card round before losing to Denver in a Divisional Play-off game.

Chargers QB Philip Rivers finished with his three highest single-season completion percentage marks under McCoy while averaging more than 31 TD passes per year. Rivers earned Comeback Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press in 2013 after completing a career-best and NFL-high 69.5% of his passes for 4,478 yards with 32 TDs and just 11 INTs (105.5 rating).

Prior to his tenure as head coach in San Diego, McCoy served as the Broncos offensive coordinator for four seasons (2009-12). During his final year in Denver in 2012, the Broncos tied Seattle for the NFL's best record at 13-3 in QB Peyton Manning's first season with the team. The Broncos featured the NFL's fourth ranked offense and fifth ranked passing attack that season as Manning earned Comeback Player of the Year honors after passing for a then franchise-record 4,659 yards with 37 TDs.

In Denver, he coached Pro Bowl WRs Demaryius Thomas (2012), Brandon Lloyd (2010) and Brandon Marshall (2009). That trio along with Eric Decker each had 1,000-yard receiving seasons under McCoy.

In 2011, the Broncos finished the year ranked #1 in the NFL with a franchise record 2,632 rushing yards and earned a postseason berth and Wild Card victory with Tim Tebow at quarterback, marking the first of back-to-back playoff appearances (2011-12). Tebow finished that season with 660 rushing yards, the most by a quarterback in team history while RB Willis McGahee tied for the NFL lead with seven 100-yard rushing games and earned his second career Pro Bowl selection after rushing for 1,199 yards.

McCoy oversaw the NFL's seventh-ranked passing attack in 2010 as QB Kyle Orton finished fourth in the league averaging 281 passing yards per game. Lloyd led the NFL with 1,448 receiving yards and earned his first Pro Bowl selection while also becoming just the fourth wide receiver in team history to be named All-Pro. In 2009, Marshall tied for third in the NFL with 101 receptions, including an NFL-record 21 catches in one game. RB Knowshon Moreno earned All-Rookie honors after leading all NFL rookies in rushing yards (947), yards from scrimmage (1,160) and total TDs (nine).

The Panthers totaled three playoff appearances, two division titles, two NFC Championship Game appearances and advanced to Super Bowl XXXVIII during McCoy's tenure.

He worked closely with QB Jake Delhomme in his tenure with the Panthers, helping Delhomme to four 3,000-yard passing seasons and his first Pro Bowl selection in 2005. Delhomme averaged the fifth-most yards per pass attempt (7.8) in the NFL during McCoy's two seasons managing Carolina's passing attack while WR Steve Smith, Sr. ranked seventh in the league with 2,423 yards in that span. McCoy oversaw the Panthers wide receivers in 2001 and worked with Smith during his rookie campaign.

A college quarterback, McCoy spent his first two years at Long Beach State (1990-91) before spending his last two years at Utah (1993-94). He signed with Denver as an undrafted rookie free agent in 1995 and spent his rookie season on Green Bay's practice squad. He played in NFL Europe with the Amsterdam Admirals (1997) and spent one game on San Francisco's roster as its third quarterback in 1997. Jeff Rodgers begins his first season as special teams coordinator with the Cardinals after he joined the team in January, 2018. He is in his 15th NFL season after previously coaching special teams with Chicago (2015-17), Denver (2011-14), Carolina (2009-10), and San Francisco (2003-07).

The Bears had three special teams TDs last season (two punt return, one fake punt), tied with the Rams for the most in the NFL. Rookie PR Tarik Cohen averaged 9.4 yards per punt return in 2017 (ninth in the NFL) and had a 61-yard return for a TD while KR Deonte Thompson ranked second in the NFL in 2016 in kickoff return yards (804). During his time in Denver, the Broncos ranked 10th in the NFL in gross punting average (45.6 yards per punt) and 11th in net punting average (39.6 yards per punt). Denver's six total kick return TDs (four punt/two kickoff) were tied for the second most in the NFL during Rodgers tenure.

Broncos K Matt Prater was named to the Pro Bowl following the 2013 season after setting franchise records in field goal percentage (96.2%, 25-of-26) and points scored (150). His 64-yard field goal on December 8, 2013 is the longest FG in NFL history. In 2014, K Connor Barth's 93.8 field goal percentage (15-of-16) was second-highest season total in Broncos history.

In Rodgers' second season in Denver in 2012, the Broncos special teams allowed the second-lowest punt return average (6.2 yards per return) and the seventh-lowest kickoff return average (22.1 ypr) in the NFL. During the Divisional Playoffs that season, Trindon Holliday became the first player in NFL history to record a punt return TD (90 yards) and kickoff return TD (104 yards) in a postseason game. In 2011, Denver was third in the NFL in punt return average (12.7 ypr) and one of just three teams in the league with multiple punt return TDs: Arizona (4), Denver (2), Chicago (2). P Britton Colquitt set single-season franchise records for gross (47.4) and net punting (40.2) averages and broke his own team record the following year with a 42.1-yard net average.

Rodgers began his coaching career at the University of Arizona in 2001, spending two seasons as a graduate assistant working with the secondary and linebackers under head coach John Mackovic. He entered the NFL coaching ranks with San Francisco in 2003 as a special teams quality control coach for two seasons before being elevated to assistant special teams coach (2005-07). During his five seasons with the 49ers, LS Brian Jennings (2004) and current Cardinals P Andy Lee (2007) both earned Pro Bowl selections. Lee set an NFL single-season record with 42 punts inside the 20-yard line (since broken) and ranked second in the NFL with a 41.0 net punting average in 2007. After leaving the 49ers, Rodgers served as the special teams coordinator for one season at Kansas State in 2008.

Following Kansas State, Rodgers spent two seasons in Carolina, first as the Panthers special teams assistant (2009) before serving as special teams coordinator in 2010.

Rodgers played linebacker at North Texas (1996-99) where he earned a degree in Business, specializing in Entrepreneurship and Strategic Management. BILL BIDWILL FELLOWSHIP/RBS

Former Pro Bowl running back Terry Allen enters his second season with the Cardinals as the Bill Bidwill Fellowship/RBs coach after joining Arizona's staff in May, 2017.

Allen is the program's second participant and followed Levon Kirkland in the fellowship that was established by the Cardinals to provide recently-retired minority NFL players with the opportunity to gain coaching experience at the highest level. Allen will assist running backs coach Kirby Wilson this season as part of that program.

Selected by the Minnesota Vikings in the ninth round (241st overall) of the 1990 NFL Draft out of Clemson, Allen played 10 NFL seasons with the Vikings (1991-94), Redskins (1995-98), Patriots (1999), Saints (2000) and Ravens (2001). CARDINALS CONTINUE BILL BIDWILL COACHING FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Prior to the 2015 season, the Cardinals established the Bill Bidwill Coaching Fellowship, a program to provide recently-retired NFL players with the opportunity to gain coaching experience at the highest level.

The inaugural participant was former Pro Bowl linebacker Levon Kirkland, who served two seasons (2015-16) assisting with the OLBs. The program's second participant, former Pro Bowl running back Terry Allen, joined the staff prior to the 2017 campaign after two seasons as a student intern on the Clemson Tiger's offensive coaching staff.

As Cardinals owner, Bill Bidwill has long been at the forefront in providing opportunities to individuals regardless of race or gender. In 2010, he was honored with the Fritz Pollard Alliance's Paul "Tank" Younger Award for promoting diversity in the NFL. In 1978, Adele Harris became the first African American female executive in the NFL when she was hired as the Cardinals director of community relations. In 1981, Bidwill hired attorney Bob Wallace, making him the first African American to handle contract negotiations for an NFL club.

Arizona was also the first NFL team with an African American general manager-head coach tandem (Rod Graves/Dennis Green, 2004), and from 2013-14 the Cardinals were the only NFL team whose offensive and defensive coordinators were both African American (Harold Goodwin and Todd Bowles).

RAY BROWN*COLLEGE: Arkansas State
HOMETOWN: Marion, ARYEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 32/4
DOB: December 12, 1962OFFENSIVE LINE

Veteran NFL offensive lineman Ray Brown enters his first season as Arizona's offensive line coach, making his return to the franchise after playing the same position with the Cardinals for three years (1986-88). He re-joined the Cardinals organization on 2/14/18 after a seven-year stint coaching with the Carolina Panthers (2011-17).

An eighth-round pick (201st overall) by the Cardinals in the 1986 NFL Draft out of Arkansas State, Brown played in 262 regular season games (205 starts) and 11 postseason contests at guard and tackle in his 20-year NFL career with four different franchises: St. Louis/Phoenix Cardinals (1986-88), Washington Redskins (1989-95; 2004-05), San Francisco 49ers (1996-2001), and Detroit Lions (2002-03). He was a member of the Redskins Super Bowl XXVI championship team and earned Pro Bowl and first-team All-Pro honors with the 49ers in 2001. Brown became the oldest player to ever start an NFL postseason game when he opened the contest at right guard for the Redskins against the Seahawks in the 2005 NFC Divisional Playoff at 43 years and 336 days old.

Brown originally joined Carolina's coaching staff in 2011 as the assistant line coach and spent five years in that position until he was elevated to offensive line coach in 2016 where he spent the past two years (2016-17). While in Carolina, Brown's offensive line helped the Panthers go 30 consecutive games with at least 100 rushing yards (Week 6 of 2014-Week 3 of 2016), the longest streak in the NFL since Pittsburgh did it in 43 games from 1974-77.

During his tenure in Carolina, Brown coached Pro Bowl G Trai Turner (2015-17), C Ryan Kalil (2011, '13, '15) and T Jordan Gross (2013), helping Kalil earn first-team All-Pro honors in 2013 and 2015 and second-team recognition in 2011. From 2011-17, Brown's unit helped the Panthers score 121 rushing TDs and average 131.8 rushing yards per game, which ranked second and third in the NFL, respectively, during that span.

In 2016, the Panthers finished with the NFL's 10th-ranked rushing offense. Turner, who was forced to move to right tackle for three games due to injuries, earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection. In 2015, Brown assisted offensive line coach

John Matsko in coaching a unit that played a key role for the NFL's top scoring offense and second-ranked rushing offense. The line helped Carolina win the NFC Championship, advance to Super Bowl 50 and set team records with 500 points, 59 total touchdowns and 357 first downs. The line provided protection for QB Cam Newton, who won NFL MVP honors, while also helping RB Jonathan Stewart get selected to the Pro Bowl.

The Panthers finished with the seventh ranked rushing attack in the NFL in 2014 and made its second consecutive playoff appearance. The offensive line featured two starting rookies in guards Andrew Norwell and Turner, and a pair of undrafted tackles surrounding Kalil. In 2012, Amini Silatolu, a second-round draft choice from Division II Midwestern State, started 15 games at guard and earned all-rookie honors. Despite injuries throughout the year, including the loss of Kalil after five games, the Panthers tallied 5,871 total net yards, the second-highest mark in team history.

In Brown's first year with Carolina in 2011, the offensive line helped set team records with an average of 5.41 yards per carry and 139 rushing first downs and cleared the way for the Panthers to become the first team in NFL history to have three players with 700 or more yards rushing.

Brown entered the coaching ranks with the Redskins as a special assistant working with the offensive line in 2006 before serving as an assistant offensive line coach for Buffalo (2008-09) and San Francisco (2010). In his two seasons in Buffalo, the offensive line paved the way for a 1,000-yard rusher each year (Marshawn Lynch, Fred Jackson) and T Jason Peters was selected to the Pro Bowl in 2008.

Brown began his college football playing career at Memphis State before transferring to Arkansas State where he received first-team All-Southland Conference honors as a senior in 1985. Brown became the first player in conference history to be named all-conference at two different positions in the same season, garnering first-team recognition at tackle and second-team accolades at tight end.

Brown and his wife, Ashley, are the parents of a daughter, Miriam and son, Trey. He also has daughters, Lentisha and Andrea, and a son, Tyler.

LINEBACKERS

Former Cardinals linebacker Larry Foote enters his fourth season with the team as an assistant coach and first as linebackers coach after spending his first three seasons overseeing Arizona's inside linebackers.

He joined the Cardinals coaching staff in 2015 after playing in the NFL for 13 seasons (2002-14), including in 2014 with Arizona when he started 15 games and led the team with 105 tackles to go along with two sacks and a fumble recovery. It was his fourth career 100-tackle season. Foote helped Arizona's defense allow just 18.7 points per game in 2014, the fifth lowest average in the league, while allowing 20 points or fewer in an NFL-high 13 games.

During his coaching tenure with Arizona Foote has helped oversee the conversion of Deone Bucannon from a college safety to a SLB in the NFL. Bucannon has had 100+ tackles in two of the past three seasons, including a team-leading and career-high 127 tackles in 2015.

Last year, Arizona's defense finished #6 in the NFL, marking the first time since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger the Cardinals had a top-10 defense in three straight seasons. In 2016, the Cardinals finished with the NFL's #2 ranked defense, the second straight season the team had a top-five defense in the league. It was the team's highest defensive raking in franchise history. Arizona also led the NFL with 48 sacks in 2016, the third-highest total in team history. In his first season as an assistant coach in 2015, the Cardinals finished the year with the #5 ranked defense. The unit ranked second in the NFL with 33 total takeaways and tied Kansas City for the league lead with six defensive TDs. Arizona also ranked sixth in run defense (91.3 ypg) and seventh in points allowed per game (19.6) in 2015.

Foote is a two-time Super Bowl winner (XL, XLIII) who played 11 seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers (2002-08, 2010-13) and one season with the Detroit Lions (2009). He began his career with the Steelers as a fourth-round pick (128th overall) in the 2002 NFL Draft out of Michigan and spent his first seven seasons in Pittsburgh where he started all 16 games in five straight seasons (2004-08). He had a career-high 123 tackles in 2005. A Detroit, MI native, Foote played for his hometown Lions in 2009, starting 14 games and recording 99 tackles and two sacks before re-signing with the Steelers in 2010, where he played four seasons prior to joining the Cardinals in 2014.

In his 13 seasons, Foote played in 187 games (134 starts) and recorded 912 tackles (631 solo), 25 sacks, 10 forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries and four interceptions. He also appeared in 17 post-season games (11 starts), starting every playoff contest for the Steelers en route to his two Super Bowl wins.

Foote played in 48 games (28 starts) in four seasons at Michigan and finished his career with 212 tackles (145 solo), 11 sacks and 44 tackles for loss, which ranked fourth in school history. He also had three INTs and 18 passes defended and received the Roger Zatkoff Award as the team's top linebacker in 2001. As a senior, he was a first-team All-America selection by Football News, a second-team selection by The Sporting News and was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and a consensus first-team all-conference selection. Foote was a first-team All-Big Ten choice by the league's coaches as a junior in 2000 and earned second-team honors from the media. He played in every game during his freshman and sophomore seasons. Foote majored in Physical Education in the division of Kinesiology.

He was a PrepStar Magazine High School All-American at Pershing (Detroit, MI) High School and earned All-State honors as a senior. Kevin Garver enters his sixth season with the Cardinals and first as wide receivers coach after previously working as the team's assistant wide receivers coach in 2017. He originally joined the team as an offensive assistant on 2/5/13 and spent four years in that role.

Working with the receivers during his Cardinals career, Garver has coached WR Larry Fitzgerald, who has been selected to four Pro Bowls in that span, including his team-record 11th Pro Bowl last season after leading the NFC and ranking second in the NFL with a franchise-record-tying 109 receptions. Arizona finished the 2016 season with 418 points, the fourth-best total in team history while having the #9 ranked offense in the NFL. It was the second straight season the Cardinals had a top-10 offense in the league.

In 2015, the Cardinals had the top ranked offense in the NFL and established single-season records for points (489), TDs (59), TD passes (35), total net yards (6,533), first downs (373) and first downs passing (237). Fitzgerald had 109 receptions and John Brown had 65 receptions for 1,003 yards and seven TDs in his second season. Combined with Fitzgerald's 1,215 receiving yards in 2015, it marked just the fifth time in team history the Cardinals had multiple players with 1,000+ receiving yards in a season.

During the 2014 season Garver helped oversee the development of the rookie Brown, who went on to establish an NFL rookie record with four game-winning

TD receptions. Michael Floyd finished second among NFL receivers averaging 17.9 yards per reception.

Garver joined the Cardinals in 2013 after spending the previous six years working for the University of Alabama football program under head coach Nick Saban, where he was part of a staff that won three national championships in four years (2009, 2011-12). He began working with the Crimson Tide football team as a student assistant in February of 2007 after the arrival of Saban and spent three seasons in that role. In 2008, the Tide went undefeated during the regular season and played in the SEC Championship Game, and the following season they went 14-0 and won the BCS National Championship Game. Garver then spent the next two seasons as a graduate assistant at Alabama, helping the Tide win their second BCS National Championship Game in 2011.

In 2012, Garver moved into an offensive analyst position and helped Alabama become the first team since Nebraska in 1994-95 to win back-to-back consensus national championships. They ranked second in the SEC and 11th in the country with 38.7 points per game and QB A.J. McCarron led the nation with a 175.3 pass efficiency rating.

He graduated from Alabama with a bachelor's degree in Marketing in 2009 and earned a master's degree in Marketing in 2012. Garver and his wife, Julie, have a son, Jackson and a daughter, Savannah.

YEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 1/1
DOB: October 27, 1959

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS

Veteran assistant coach Charlie Harbison enters his first year with the Cardinals after he was named assistant defensive backs coach on 2/14/18.

Harbison has 26 years of coaching experience at the college level and has been a part of teams that made 20 bowl appearances. He had a 20-year coaching career in the SEC and ACC with stops at Clemson, Alabama, Auburn, Mississippi State and LSU. Harbison came to Arizona after spending the last three seasons (2015-17) as co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Louisiana-Lafayette and was hired in early 2018 at Georgia Southern.

Prior to coaching at Louisiana-Lafayette, Harbison spent two seasons (2013-14) at Auburn as co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach, helping the Tigers win the 2013 SEC Championship and advance to the BCS Championship game. In 2013, Auburn had the second biggest turnaround in college football history with an eight game improvement from 2012.

Harbison went to Auburn after his second coaching stint at Clemson (2009-12), working as co-defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach. He helped the Tigers to back-to-back 10-win seasons and the 2011 ACC Championship (Clemson's first conference title in 20 years) and an Orange Bowl appearance. The Shelby, NC native was named one of the nation's top-25 recruiters by Rivals in 2010 and tutored CB Coty Sensabaugh, who had 14 passes defended in 2011 and was drafted by the Tennessee Titans. Harbison helped Clemson to a top-25 ranking and the ACC Atlantic division title in 2009. Clemson had 21 INTs, the fifth-most in school history and tied for fifth-most in the nation and finished seventh in the nation in pass defense.

Before going to Clemson, he spent two seasons at Mississippi State (2007-08), the second of which he worked as defensive coordinator while also coaching safeties. Harbison had two different tenures as an assistant at Alabama (1998-2000; '03-06). He coached the Crimson Tide's defensive backs in his initial stay and helped Alabama to the 1999 SEC Championship and appearances in the 2001 Orange Bowl and 1998 Music City Bowl. Two of his pupils, Fernando Bryant (1999) and Tony Dixon (2000), were taken in the first and second rounds of the NFL Draft, respectively. In his second stint with the Crimson Tide, Harbison worked with the wide receivers and helped Alabama to three bowl appearances.

Between the Alabama assignments, Harbison coached defensive backs at LSU (2001-02) under head coach Nick Saban and helped the Tigers win the 2001 SEC Championship and play in the 2002 Sugar Bowl and 2003 Cotton Bowl. CB Corey Webster, who played his first season under Harbison, finished second on the school's all-time career INT list.

He served as defensive backs coach in his first stop at Clemson (1995-97) as the Tigers played in three consecutive bowl games. At Clemson, Harbison mentored 2018 Hall of Fame inductee and nine-time Pro Bowl selection Brian Dawkins, helping him earn All-American honors while also leading the ACC in INTs in 1995.

Harbison also coached the secondary at UTEP (1994) and twice worked at his alma mater, Gardner-Webb, coaching wide receivers (1992-93) and defensive backs (1984-85). In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Harbison worked in both the Arena Football League as defensive coordinator with the Charlotte Rage (1993), coaching Cardinals head coach Steve Wilks, and in the World League of American Football with the Raleigh-Durham Skyhawks in 1991 as defensive backs coach.

A standout defensive back at Gardner-Webb (1978-81) who had 11 career INTs, Harbison signed with the Buffalo Bills as a rookie free agent in 1982 before spending two years (1983-84) with the Boston/New Orleans Breakers of the USFL.

He graduated from Gardner-Webb with a degree in Business Administration in 1995. Harbison and his wife, Tammy, have three sons, Charlie, Stedman and Masai, and a daughter, Msiba.

RANDALL McCRAY*COLLEGE: Appalachian StateHOMETOWN: Monroe, NCYEARS NFL/CARDINALS: 1/1DOB: August 19, 1969ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

A college assistant coach for 26 seasons, Randall McCray enters his first season in the NFL as assistant special teams coach with the Cardinals after being hired on 2/14/18.

He came to Arizona after spending the past two years as Texas State's assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. While at Texas State, McCray helped Bryan London II get named All-Sun Belt Conference second-team in 2016 after ranking third nationally by averaging 11.8 tackles and 6.9 solo stops per game. London II led the Sun Belt in solo tackles and was second among league leaders in total tackles while also having two forced fumbles.

McCray went to Texas State after working for three seasons (2013-15) as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Gardner-Webb. During those three seasons, McCray's defense held 13 different opponents to less than 100 yards rushing. DT O.J. Mau earned All-America honors for the third straight season in 2015 and DE Shaq Riddick earned FCS All-American honors and was fifth in the final voting for the Buck Buchanan Award in 2013. Gardner-Webb had 12 All-Big South defensive players during that span.

In 2013, Gardner-Webb's defense was one of the most improved FCS units when it moved up 96 spots from the previous year and finished in the top five in total defense. The Bulldogs set a Big South record by allowing just 296.8 yards per game and led the conference in rush defense (122.5 yards per game), pass defense (174.2 yards per game) and pass efficiency defense. They also led the league in opponent first downs, third down conversion rate, sacks and fourth down conversion rate. In 2015, Gardner-Webb finished in the top-15 in the nation in total defense.

Prior to Gardner-Webb, McCray worked in 2011 as the special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach at Pittsburgh, helping the Panthers play in the BBVA Compass Bowl. In 2010, McCray served as defensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee State as the Blue Raiders led the Sun Belt Conference and ranked 10th nationally in tackles for loss and 17th in sacks to earn a spot in the GoDaddy.com Bowl. The Blue Raiders ranked second in the conference in scoring defense, passing yards allowed and pass efficiency defense and Jamari Lattimore earned Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year honors. DBs Rod Issac and Jeremy Kelleem also earned All-Sun Belt first-team honors and DL Dwight Smith was named honorable mention. Issac was later drafted in the fifth round (147th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft by Jacksonville, the highest pick for a Blue Raider since 2003.

McCray spent four years (2006-09) at Wisconsin, coaching the defensive line his first two seasons (2006-07) before overseeing outside linebackers/recruiting coordinator in 2008 and safeties in 2009. During his four seasons in Madison, McCray helped the Badgers win 38 games. In his first season in 2006, Wisconsin ranked second nationally in scoring defense and finished fifth nationally in total defense while Matt Shaughnessy and Jason Chapman were named All-Big Ten. Shaughnessy and Nick Hayden earned All-Big Ten selections and Kirk DeCreamer was named to the freshman All-American squad in 2007.

As a recruiter, McCray's 2008 signees included 2012 Doak Walker Award winner and two-time All-America RB Montee Ball – who finished as the NCAA's career TD leader (83) – first-team All-Big Ten C Travis Frederick and All-Big Ten LB Chris Borland. Under McCray's guidance, LBs DeAndre Levy and Jonathan Casillas earned All-Big Ten honors in 2008. In 2009, safeties Jay Valai and Chris Maragos captured All-Conference honors and Wisconsin's defense held every Big Ten opponent it faced to fewer than 100 yards rushing. Six of McCray's players went on to play in the NFL: Shaughnessy, Levy, Hayden, Casillas, Maragos and O'Brien Schofield.

McCray coached the defensive line and linebackers at Toledo (2003-05). In 2005, the Rockets were co-champs of the MAC West, finishing 9-3 and beating UTEP in the GMAC Bowl after finishing with one of the nation's top-25 teams in total defense. The Rockets led the conference in scoring defense, total defense, pass efficiency defense and sacks – and were second in the league in rushing defense. DEFENSIVE BACKS

Former NFL linebacker David Merritt, Sr. enters his first season with the team as an assistant coach in charge of the Arizona's defensive backs after playing for the Cardinals for three years (1993-95). He joined the Cardinals staff on 2/14/18 after spending the last 14 years coaching with the New York Giants, including the past 12 seasons as the Giants secondary/safeties coach.

During his tenure with the Giants, Merritt was a part of two Super Bowl winning teams (XLII, XLVI) and helped New York reach the postseason six times. He tutored S Landon Collins the past three seasons and helped Collins get selected to two Pro Bowls (2016-17) and be named first-team All-Pro in 2016. Collins led the Giants in tackles in each of the past three seasons (2015-17) to go along with eight INTs, four sacks, three fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles. In 2016, Collins had a career-high 125 tackles, the most in team history by a safety. He also became the only player in NFL history to have 100 or more solo tackles and at least two sacks, five INTs and 12 passes defended in a season. Collins was a two-time NFC Defensive Player of the Week and the NFC Defensive Player of the Month in November.

In 2015, Collins was the first rookie safety in team history to start all 16 games after leading the team with 108 tackles (80 solo). He also had nine passes defended and an interception in his first year.

Merritt also coached S Antrel Rolle, who led New York in tackles in three seasons and was twice selected to the Pro Bowl (2010, '13) during his Giants career. In 2013, Rolle led the Giants in tackles for the third straight season, finishing with 106 (85 solo). He was named second-team All-Pro and played in his third Pro Bowl. Merritt helped the Giants finish eighth in the NFL in total defense and 10th against the pass.

In 2012, Rolle led the Giants with 104 tackles (85 solo) and S Stevie Brown intercepted eight passes, the most by a Giant since Willie Williams had 10 in 1968. His 307 interception return yards broke the team single-season record of 251, set by Hall of Famer Emlen Tunnell in 1949 and matched by Dick Lynch in 1963. Brown was also twice selected NFC Defensive Player of the Week. In 2011, the safeties were one of the most consistent units on the Super Bowl champion Giants as Rolle and Deon Grant played in all 20 regular season and postseason games -- Rolle started each game -- and Kenny Phillips missed only one. Rolle led the team with 96 tackles and intercepted two passes, Phillips had 72 tackles and four INTs and Grant had 58 tackles, an INT and a sack.

The Giants ranked seventh in the NFL in total defense and ninth in pass defense in 2010 and were 15th in the NFL in pass defense in 2009. In the Giants 2007 Super Bowl season, one of the team's best defensive players was FS Gibril Wilson, who arrived as a fifth-round draft choice. Wilson led the club with 33 postseason tackles and was second with 96 regular season tackles.

Merritt originally joined the Giants in 2004 as a quality control coach before being given the additional title of defensive assistant in 2005. He was elevated to secondary/safeties coach in 2006. Merritt began his coaching career in 1997 as the outside linebackers coach at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga before working at Virginia Military Institute where he coached defensive ends and outside linebackers for one season and the defensive line for two years (1998-2000). His first NFL job was with the New York Jets as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach from 2001-03.

Merritt played in 34 games in three seasons for the Cardinals after entering the league with the Miami Dolphins as a seventh-round selection (191st overall) in the 1993 NFL Draft out of N.C. State. He was an All-ACC linebacker in 1992 after leading the conference in tackles. Merritt finished his playing career with the Rhein Fire in NFL Europe in 1997.

He earned a bachelor's degree in Political Science from N.C. State and in 2012 was a member of the inaugural class of the Millbrook (N.C.) High School Sports Hall of Fame. Merritt and his wife, Yolonda, have three sons, David Jr., Devin and Dawson, and a daughter, Drayah. He also has an older daughter, Nkechi (Kiki), who lives in Atlanta.

TIGHT ENDS

Jason Michael is in his first season as tight ends coach after joining Arizona's staff on 2/14/18. He came to the Cardinals after spending the past four seasons with the Tennessee Titans.

A 12-year coaching veteran, Michael served as the Titans offensive coordinator for two seasons (2014-15) before working the past two years (2016-17) as Tennessee's quarterbacks coach. During his time in Tennessee, Michael helped develop Titans QB Marcus Mariota who accounted for 10,389 total yards (9,476 passing; 913 rushing) and 67 TDs (58 passing, nine rushing) in his first three NFL seasons.

As a rookie in 2015, Mariota became the first player in NFL history to post a perfect passer rating (158.3) in his first-ever start. He ranked third among all NFL quarterbacks in red zone passer rating (116.1) and posted the two highest single-game passing totals by a rookie in franchise history (371 @ NO; 367 vs. Ind.). In 2016, Mariota had a franchise-best eight consecutive games with multiple TD passes and recorded the third-highest passer rating in club history (95.6), while his 26 passing TDs ranked fourth in a single season in team history.

Mariota's 16 multi-TD games in his first two seasons was the third-highest total by an NFL player in their first two seasons, trailing only Dan Marino (22) and Derek Carr (17) and he ranked first in red zone passer rating (114.6) after accounting for 33 red zone TDs and no INTs between 2015-16. Mariota also earned AFC Offensive Player of the Month honors in November of 2016 after posting a 115.0 QB rating.

In his two seasons as offensive coordinator for the Titans, Michael helped TE Delanie Walker to his first Pro Bowl in 2015 after leading all NFL tight ends with 94 receptions (most by a TE in team history) for 1,088 receiving yards and six TDs. Walker broke his own receiving yardage record from the previous season (890 in 2014) and Frank Wycheck's reception record (70 in 1998 and 2000) for franchise tight ends. The Titans set a franchise record in 2015 as 12 different players had at least one receiving TD.

Michael joined the Titans coaching staff following three seasons (2011-2013) as tight ends coach for the San Diego Chargers. In San Diego, he guided Antonio Gates to the fourth most receptions (190) among NFL tight ends over that three-year span, while totaling 2,188 yards and 18 TDs. Gates led the Chargers with 77 receptions in 2013, helping San Diego's offense rank fifth in the NFL. The Chargers offense finished sixth in the league in 2011 as Gates led San Diego with 64 catches that season.

Prior to joining the Chargers, he spent two seasons (2009-10) with the San Francisco 49ers as an offensive assistant and then quarterbacks coach. In 2010, his trio of QBs combined to throw for more than 3,600 yards and 19 TDs.

Michael began his coaching career at the University of Tennessee as a graduate assistant with the secondary and special teams for two seasons (2003-04). His first job in the NFL was with the Oakland Raiders in 2005 as a quality control coach. Michael spent the 2006 season as the quarterbacks/quality control coach for the New York Jets, helping QB Chad Pennington earn Comeback Player of the Year honors. He moved to tight ends coach in 2007 with the Jets before returning to the University of Tennessee as the tight ends coach in Phillip Fulmer's final season in 2008.

A quarterback who began his college playing career at Army, Michael transferred to Western Kentucky and was a two-time captain. As a senior in 2002, he led the Hilltoppers to the NCAA I-AA championship and was named the school's Male Athlete of the Year.

A native of Louisa, KY, Michael earned a bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering Technology from Western Kentucky and was named a I-AA Athletic Directors Academic All-Star and a second-team Verizon Academic All-District IV honoree. Michael and his wife, Jamie, have one son, Wyatt, and a daughter, Charlie.

During that time, only Buffalo (4.75 yards/attempt) had a better team rushing average than the Browns (4.67). Cleveland finished second in the NFL with a 4.89 rushing average in 2016, the seventh-best average in team history and the highest mark since 1966, and had the sixth-best rushing average in the NFL 2017 (4.46 avg.). In Wilson's first season in Pittsburgh (2007), Willie Parker led the NFL with 1,316 rushing yards through Week 16 before missing the final game of the season with a leg injury.

Wilson coached running backs for three seasons in Arizona and two years in Tampa Bay (2002-03). In 2006, Cardinals RB Edgerrin James rushed for 1,159 yards. In his first season with the Buccaneers in 2002, RBs Michael Pittman and Aaron Stecker and FB Mike Alstott collectively gained over 1,400 rushing yards and helped the Buccaneers win the NFC Championship and Super Bowl XXXVII. Alstott was selected to his sixth Pro Bowl that season.

ARIZONA AND DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

Every year people across the country turn their clocks ahead in the spring and back in the fall, except in Arizona.

Although Arizona stays on standard time throughout the year, never changing its clock forward or back, the time change, or lack thereof, does affect the Cardinals local kickoff times during the season.

In 2018, daylight saving time was observed on the second Sunday in March (March 11) and ends on the first Sunday in November (November 4).

When daylight saving time is in effect, Arizona is three hours behind the east coast, making a 4:00 p.m. kickoff in New York a 1:00 p.m. kickoff in Arizona.

However, when daylight saving time ends, Arizona is only two hours behind the east coast, making a 4:00 p.m. kickoff in New York a 2:00 p.m. kickoff in Arizona.

In 1967 the Uniform Time Act was instituted, putting the entire country on daylight saving time. After one year, states could opt out, and Arizona went back to standard time and stayed there. Residents and lawmakers of Arizona knew there was an abundance of sunshine and did not see the need to move their clocks ahead in order to save any. The only other state that does not observe Daylight Saving Time is Hawaii.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Cardinals safety Antoine Bethea has established himself as one of the NFL's leading philanthropists through work with his previous teams (San Francisco 49ers and Indianapolis Colts) and his "Safe Coverage Foundation" which was created in 2011.

The 2013 Indianapolis Colts Water Payton Man of the Year honoree has made it a goal to help youth stay in school and receive a strong education. His foundation is committed to providing access and resources for students to achieve their dreams of a higher education while providing exposure opportunities, enrichment experiences and the tools needed to succeed.

The "Safe Coverage Foundation" offers many different programs for kids including annual youth football camps held in Virginia and Washington D.C., college tours, technology for students enrolled in higher education programs and offering tickets to games throughout the football season.

In his first season with the Cardinals in 2017, Bethea became one of the team's most active players in the Arizona community. He was a regular participant in the Cardinals Milk and Cookies program, visiting elementary schools throughout the Valley to promote literacy by reading to children.

Bethea joined teammates and Cardinals President Michael Bidwill at the team's annual "Help Feed the Hungry" event, serving Thanksgiving dinner to over 500 of those less fortunate at the Phoenix Rescue Mission. He also participated in the Cardinals "Teddy Bear Express" event at Phoenix Children's Hospital. The players delivered white personalized Cardinals teddy bears to children in the pediatric units throughout the hospital.

During the holiday season, Bethea and his "Safe Coverage Foundation" hosted a shopping spree and pizza party for 10 Arizona families in need. Each family received a $1,000 gift card for the event at Walmart. In the 2018 offseason, Bethea took part in a Gatorade Jr. Training Camp for 150 special needs students from the Gilbert, AZ school district.

Prior to coming to Arizona, Bethea stayed active in the Bay area with various events and appearances. In 2016, Bethea and his "Safe Coverage Foundation" took 10 families shopping at a local northern California Target with a $1,000 gift card to spend on presents during the shopping spree.

During the 2016 offseason, Bethea hosted the "Antoine Bethea & Friends Celebrity Softball Game" at San Jose Municipal Stadium. The game and home run derby featured various NFL players with all proceeds benefitting Second Harvest Food Bank of San Jose. During the 2015 holiday season, Bethea visited StreetCode Academy in East Palo Alto to help put together toy donations from the "Live in Peace" organization to help empower minority youths. The donations were distributed to The Ronald McDonald House in Richmond, CA. Earlier that year, Bethea took part in "Community Day" at his alma mater, Denbigh High School in Virginia, where local kids played kickball and took part in various activities.

Bethea also partnered with PETA in the past to help spread the message of their various campaigns including the "Ink, Not Mink" movement about saying no to fur and also the "Don't Chain Dogs" program about not mistreating dogs.

- His 51-yard game-tying FG at Baltimore on 11/18/07 led to the creation of the "Phil Dawson Rule." On the final play of regulation, Dawson's kick bounced off the left upright and then the rear stanchion behind the crossbar. The attempt was originally ruled no good, but the officials reversed the call following discussion even though the play was not technically reviewable. The rule changed the next year to allow kicks that hit the uprights or crossbar to be reviewable and was dubbed the "Phil Dawson Rule."

NOTE CARDS

- Originally selected by the Cardinals in the first round (3rd overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft and has started 216 of the 218 games in which he has appeared. Only players taken ahead of him were QB Eli Manning (No. 1 to San Diego; traded to NY Giants) and T Robert Gallery (No. 2 to Oakland).
- Selected to his franchise-record 11th Pro Bowl in 2017. Fitzgerald (11) joins Hall of Famer Jerry Rice (13) as the only wide receivers in NFL history to be selected to the Pro Bowl at least 11 times. Among active players only Patriots QB Tom Brady (13) has earned more Pro Bowl selections than Fitzgerald. Earned MVP honors in the 2008 Pro Bowl and his eight career TDs are a Pro Bowl record.
- Named a co-winner (along with QB Eli Manning) of the 2016 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award. The award, which Fitzgerald was also one of three finalists for in 2012, is the only league award that recognizes a player's off-the-field community service as well as his playing excellence. He became the second Cardinals player (Kurt Warner-2008) to earn the honor.
- Following the 2014 season, was named the inaugural winner of the Art Rooney NFL Sportsmanship Award, presented to an NFL player who demonstrates on the field qualities of great sportsmanship, including fair play, respect for opponents and integrity in competition. In 2012, was named the recipient of the 14th Annual Arthur S. Arkush Humanitarian Award by Pro Football Weekly, which is given to the NFL player whose contributions to the community and charitable organizations are especially outstanding.
- Franchise career leader in receptions (1,234), receiving yards (15,545), receiving TDs (110), total TDs (110), 100-yard receiving games (46) and consecutive games with a reception (211). His nine 1,000-yard receiving seasons are the most in team history.
- Ranks third in NFL history for both receptions (1,234) and receiving yards (15,545) and ranks eighth in NFL history with 110 career TD receptions.
- One of just five players in NFL history with 15,000+ receiving yards and 100+ TD receptions in their career.
- One of just six players in NFL history to score 100+ receiving TDs with a single team.
- Fitzgerald's streak of 211 consecutive games with a reception tied with Tony Gonzalez for the second-longest in NFL history. He has at least one catch in every game played in each of the last 13 seasons and has at least one catch in 217 of 218 career games played.
- Tied his own franchise record with 109 receptions in 2017, becoming the oldest player in NFL history to record 100+ receptions in a season. The '17 season marked the fifth of his career with 100+ receptions. In NFL history only Brandon Marshall (6) has more such seasons.
- Now owns the top four single-season reception totals in franchise history, with three of them coming in the last three seasons (109 in 2015; 107 in 2016; 109 in 2017).
- Over the last three seasons (2015-17) – playing from the ages of 32 to 34 years old – Fitzgerald recorded 325 receptions. That represents the second-highest total in the NFL during that span behind only Pittsburgh's Antonio Brown (343).
- Led the NFL in receptions with 107 in 2016. It marked the second time in his career (tied Steve Smith for NFL lead with 103 in 2005) Fitzgerald led the league in receptions. He became the first player in NFL history to lead the NFL in catches at least 11 years apart. Prior to Fitzgerald, the longest span between leading the league in receptions was six years by Jerry Rice (1990, 1996).
- Has led the NFL in receptions twice (2005, 2016) and in receiving TDs twice (2008, 2009).

FITZGERALD OFF THE FIELD

Breast Cancer Awareness

One of the causes closest to Larry's heart is breast cancer research and prevention. The Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund was established in honor of Larry's late mother who passed away from breast cancer in 2003. The fund supports causes that Larry's mother held close to her heart, such as the education of urban youth on HIV/AIDS and breast cancer issues.

Larry has been honored as the recipient of the NFL Players Association Georgetown Lombardi Award, which was established to honor a leader in the sports industry whose life and family have been touched by cancer, and who encourages cancer research, prevention and treatment through awareness and philanthropy. The award is given jointly by the NFL Players Association and the Georgetown Lombardi Comprehensive Cancer Center in Washington, DC.

In recent seasons, Larry proved a key figure in the NFL's annual Breast Cancer Awareness Month in October, using his play on the field and his popularity on social media to earn funds to help raise awareness for breast cancer research. In each of the past several years, Fitzgerald donated thousands of dollars based on his reception and touchdown totals during the month of October. Larry has donated hundreds of thousands of dollars to organizations engaged in support of breast cancer survivors and breast cancer research as a result. The following organizations have received significant donations from this initiative: The National Breast Cancer Foundation, the American Cancer Society, African American Breast Cancer Alliance, and Sistas of AZ Pink 365 campaign providing free mammograms.

Humanitarian Travel

During the last few years, Larry has taken part in humanitarian trips during the offseason.

- Larry traveled to Ethiopia and Senegal with Oxfam America, and friends Anquan Boldin and Roddy White, to support economic development projects and raise awareness about needs in those countries. Among the projects they worked on were a community garden that provides food to the community and a means of economic self-sufficiency, irrigation systems, and support of a farm project that teaches methods for growing trees and crops when there is a shortage of water.
- Larry is also a tireless volunteer for the Starkey Hearing Foundation, an international relief group dedicated to provide hearing aids and hearing health awareness to those less fortunate and also supporting research and education. Larry has traveled to several countries with Starkey Hearing Foundation to fit children with hearing aids, including the Congo, the Philippines, Malaysia, Thailand and India. Larry has also joined with Pros for Africa and the Starkey Hearing Foundation on trips to Uganda and Rwanda to bring over 22,000 hearing aids to people with no way to afford them.

Youth Football Initiatives

Larry teamed up with Riddell to donate 1000 state of the art youth football helmets, as well as training, to outfit the entire Minneapolis Parks and Recreation youth football program where Larry first played football as a young child. The First Down Fund refurbished a basketball court at the park in Minneapolis where Larry first played football and basketball. He has previously donated football equipment and holiday gifts to the park. In addition, Larry volunteered his time to serve as the national spokesman for USA Football's Protection Tour, promoting proper technique and protective equipment.

Larry has also hosted a youth football camp in Minnesota and in Arizona for several years. Every year scholarship slots are funded by Larry so that underprivileged youth can attend. The camps provided boys and girls ages 7-14 the opportunity to learn fundamentals from Fitzgerald and other NFL players and coaches.

Supporting the Military

Having had a number of family members serve in the Armed Forces, Larry has long been a big supporter of the United States Armed Forces. In 2014, Fitzgerald was selected as the Cardinals nominee for the fourth annual "Salute to Service" award presented by USAA. Each NFL team nominated one player, coach or front office member who demonstrates an exemplary commitment to honoring and supporting the military community.

- In October of 2014, Fitzgerald held a free, two-day ProCamp for 130 military children at Luke Air Force Base in Arizona. At the camp, Fitzgerald joined local coaches in helping teach the children the fundamentals of football, including route-running and catching passes. The camp supported the Defense Department's Healthy Base Initiative, which helps service members, their families and DOD civilians live healthier lives through nutrition and fitness. It was the second ProCamp Fitzgerald participated in in 2014, having also joined a group of NFL players who helped at a camp at the Schofield Barracks in O'ahu, Hawaii in January.
- Larry joined EAS on a promotion for the Semper Fi Fund. He did numerous interviews to raise awareness for the "Views for Vets" Semper Fi Fund initiative. For every click on the fund's website, donations were made that raised immediate financial support for injured and critically ill members of the United States Armed Forces.
- Twice in his career, Larry has joined other NFL players on week-long NFL/USO tours of Iraq and Afghanistan, spending several days meeting with troops deployed to the Persian Gulf. Larry has visited numerous bases and met with thousands of troops, taking pictures, signing autographs and participating in "football roundtables," where troops were able to ask the players questions. During one trip they also met up with a group of Navy SEALs and were challenged to compete against a number of top SEALs in the obstacle training course.

Below is a look at just a few of the prestigious awards Fitzgerald has accumulated during his NFL career.

WALTER PAYTON NFL MAN OF THE YEAR

Fitzgerald joined Giants QB Eli Manning as co-winners of the 2016 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award, the only league award that recognizes a player's off-the-field community service as well as his playing excellence. ART ROONEY SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

In the lead up to Super Bowl XLIX following the 2014 season, Fitzgerald was named the inaugural winner of the Art Rooney NFL Sportsmanship Award.

The Art Rooney Trophy represents the important role that sportsmanship plays in the game and how NFL players that demonstrate integrity and honor on the field serve as role models for other players at all levels. The award was named in honor of the late founding owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers and Pro Football Hall of Famer Art Rooney, Sr.

GEORGETOWN LOMBARDI AWARD

Fitzgerald was the 2013 recipient of the NFL Players Association Georgetown Lombardi Award, which was established to honor a leader in the sports industry whose life and family have been touched by cancer, and who encourages cancer research, prevention and treatment through awareness and philanthropy.

GOLDEN'S BREAKOUT SEASON

Markus Golden recorded a career-high 2.5 sacks in the season finale against the Rams to cap off a breakout 2016 campaign that ended with a team-high 12.5 sacks.

His 12.5 sacks tied for third in the NFL that season and were the highest single-season total by a LB in team history until teammate Chandler Jones set a new franchise record with 17.0 in 2017.

THE DYNAMIC DUO

The Cardinals offseason trade for Chandler Jones and the emergence of 2015 second round draft pick Markus Golden resulted in a LB duo that wreaked havoc on opposing offenses – and QBs – in 2016.

Golden (12.5) and Jones (11.0) reached double-digit sacks in 2016, marking just the third time in franchise history that Arizona had multiple players record 10.0+ sacks in a season. In 1983, the Cardinals had three players (Curtis Greer, Al Baker, David Galloway) with 10.0 or more sacks. In 1984, two players (Greer and Baker) had 10.0 or more.

Arizona and Seattle (Cliff Avril-11.5; Frank Clark-10.0) were the only teams in the NFL with multiple players with 10.0+ sacks in 2016.

Both LBs earned a spot on the franchise single-season sacks list, and it resulted in the Cardinals leading the NFL in sacks (48) for just the second time in franchise history (59 in 1983).

Golden missed most of the 2017 season with a knee injury, and in his absence, Jones led the NFL with a single-season franchise-record 17.0 sacks, becoming the first player in franchise history to lead the league in sacks.

WORTH MORE THAN SACKS

The production of Golden and Jones goes much deeper than sacks. In 2016, they combined for 120 tackles, 31 tackles for loss, five passes defended, eight forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries, 33 QB pressures and 45 QB hits. According to Stats, INC., they were the NFL's only two players to post 10.0+ sacks, 15+ tackles for loss and four+ forced fumbles.

Arizona led the NFL in tackles for loss with 109 in 2016, according to Stats, INC., who list Jones and Golden as two of just nine players in the NFL who recorded 15+ tackles for loss that season. They are also the only teammates in the top-10.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Mike Iupati came to Arizona in 2015 and his impact was felt on the field immediately as he was selected to his fourth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl in his first season with the Cardinals. He has made a similar impact in the Arizona community since joining the Cardinals through various team charitable programs and appearances.

Iupati has been a regular participant in the team's Milk and Cookies program, visiting elementary schools throughout the Valley to promote literacy by reading to children.

The past three years during the Christmas season, Iupati, along with Cardinals teammates, participated in the team's "Teddy Bear Express" event at Phoenix Children's Hospital. The players delivered white personalized Cardinals teddy bears to children in the pediatric units throughout the hospital. Last year, Iupati and teammates visited the hospital in November to spend time with the kids for their monthly birthday party featuring pizza, games and cake at PCH.

He has also visited Boys Hope Girls Hope for the team's annual Christmas party. Boys Hope Girls Hope helps academically capable and motivated children by providing family like homes, opportunities and education through college.

In 2016, Iupati and his teammates took part in the annual "Light the House" party to help spread holiday cheer at the Phoenix Ronald McDonald House. The group provided the families at the house with dinner, drinks and dessert while also passing out stockings to the children. Iupati also was a part of the team's annual dinner for Breast Cancer survivors and their families at Sapporo where players serve as celebrity chefs.

In the 2016 offseason, Iupati and Cardinals teammates visited the Salvation Army KROC Center for the "Team Smile" event to provide 300 kids free dental care while participating in an Easter Egg hunt.

In 2015, Iupati joined teammates and Cardinals President Michael Bidwill at the team's annual "Help Feed the Hungry" event. The Cardinals group served Thanksgiving dinner to those less fortunate at the Phoenix Rescue Mission.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

On his way to becoming a record-setting running back and one of the league's top offensive weapons, David Johnson has also made a big impact off the field, taking part in a number of the team's charitable programs and continuing his efforts to help combat childhood bullying.

In 2017, Johnson, along with his wife, Meghan, created the "Mission 31" Foundation, which was developed to provide opportunities, support and resources to seriously ill children and their families by offering daily support and life changing experiences. In December, Johnson hosted the inaugural "Mission 31: Possible" fundraiser at Mountain Shadows Resort. Over 200 guests helped raise nearly $200,000 during the event, which features food, wine and auctions. One of the first programs undertaken by the "Mission 31" Foundation was DJ's Lockers. These technology centers provide patients and their family members access to electronics that serve as a source of entertainment, a portal for communication, and a diversion during treatment and recovery. DJ's Lockers will be placed in area children's hospitals and Ronald McDonald House locations.

In June of 2018, Johnson hosted the inaugural David Johnson Youth Football Camp in his hometown of Clinton, IA. Held at Clinton High School, the camp hosted 250 area kids ages six to 16 and focused on football as well as being a positive role model and good leader.

Johnson has long been open about his struggles being bullied as a child, and in 2016 wrote a piece for The Players' Tribune website titled Let's Talk About Bullying in which he shared his experiences with bullying while growing up in Clinton, IA. He also detailed his work with STOMP Out Bullying to help other kids going through the same experiences. In the NFL's inaugural My Cause, My Cleats campaign in 2016, Johnson wore custom STOMP cleats in support of efforts to eliminate bullying. In 2017 Johnson teamed up with Cox Communications for the "Run Thru Bullying" campaign, in which nearly 500 children from four schools districts around the Valley participated in an anti-bullying program and wrote essays about their experiences. Two winning essayists were named co-winners after detailing how bullying has affected them and how they implemented the "Run Thru Bullying" program at Sunnyslope Elementary.

Johnson has also been a regular volunteer at various team and player community events during his time in Arizona. During the 2016 Christmas season, along with a number of his Cardinals teammates, Johnson participated in the Cardinals "Teddy Bear Express" event at Phoenix Children's Hospital. The players delivered white personalized Cardinals teddy bears to children in the pediatric units throughout the hospital. He also visited Boys Hope Girls Hope for the team's annual Christmas party. Boys Hope Girls Hope helps academically capable and motivated children by providing family-like homes, opportunities and education through college.

During the 2017 offseason, Johnson served as the honorary starter at Pat's Run. Honoring former Cardinals safety Pat Tillman, the annual Pat's Run event is one of the main events of the Tillman Foundation. Last season Johnson also participated in the seventh annual "Pro Vs. G.I. Joe" program, a video game competition with military personnel from bases all over Arizona that has Cardinals players joining troops, both home and abroad, competing in an assortment of games on Xbox.

In July of 2017, Johnson hosted the Hyundai NFL Youth Camp at the Arizona Sports Complex in Glendale, AZ. The skills camp played host to 400 kids ages seven to 13 from the Valley. At the event, Hyundai's non-profit organization, Hyundai Hope on Wheels, announced it would donate $15 million to children's hospitals across the country.

In 2016, Johnson was part of a Cardinals contingent that took part in the "Feed the Families" event at the Phoenix Ronald McDonald House, providing the children and their families at the house with dinner, drinks and dessert. Johnson was back at the Ronald McDonald House in 2017 as part of the "Light the House" party in December, in which all of the houses were lit with holiday lights and children received dinner, drinks and stockings for the holidays. The Ronald McDonald House Charities of Phoenix provides a welcoming "home away from home" for children and their families who travel to Phoenix to receive treatment for serious, often life-threatening illnesses and injuries.

Johnson also joined teammates and Cardinals President Michael Bidwill at the team's annual "Help Feed the Hungry" event in 2016, serving Thanksgiving dinner to over 500 of those less fortunate at the Phoenix Rescue Mission.

Joining a number of teammates and groups from the Cardinals Women's Club, Johnson has also visited Phoenix Children's Hospital for birthday parties in the Kids Zone. Each month, the Kids Zone at PCH holds a party for all patients who have a birthday in that month. The Arizona Cardinals Women's Club sponsors the event, which featured games with the patients as well as pizza and cake.

AN ALL-AROUND PERFORMANCE IN FIRST TWO WEEKS

Johnson had nine total touches in his first two career NFL games and accumulated 251 yards and three TDs on those nine touches (had two TDs on his first three NFL touches). Johnson had a 108-yard kickoff-return TD and a 13-yard TD run in the Cardinals win at Chicago in Week 2. Johnson, who had a 55-yard TD reception the week before vs. New Orleans in his NFL debut, was the first player in NFL history with a rushing TD, receiving TD and kickoff-return TD in his first two games to begin a career.

His 108-yard TD against the Bears tied for the second-longest play in NFL history. It's also the longest TD in franchise history.

Johnson also added a rushing TD against the Bears. In doing so, he became the first Cards player to have a kickoff return TD and a rushing TD in the same game since HOFer Ollie Matson on 12/13/58.

SHORT ROUTE TO THE HALL OF FAME

In June of 2015, Johnson visited the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, OH during the annual NFL Rookie Symposium. Three months later he was being honored at the Hall of Fame for the record-breaking start to his NFL career. The Hall of Fame recognized Johnson's achievements by displaying his jersey and cleats he wore in the victory over Chicago when he scored on a kickoff return and rushing attempt.

Despite seeing a limited role in the offense in the early part of the season, Johnson registered six TDs (3 rushing, 2 receiving, 1 KOR) in the first five games in 2015. That tied the franchise record for TDs in a players first five career games. The only other player in Cardinals history with at six TDs in their first five career games was Ollie Matson (6, 1952).

- A two-time Pro Bowl selection (2015, '17), has played in 87 games (84 starts) and recorded 342 tackles, 64.0 sacks, 16 forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries, one INT and 13 passes defended. Has also appeared in nine postseason games (eight starts), including the Patriots victory in Super Bowl XLIX at University of Phoenix Stadium, and totaled 18 tackles, two sacks and a forced fumble.

- In the two seasons (2016-17) since the Cardinals acquired Jones, he leads the NFL in both sacks (28.0) and tackles for loss (43) during that span. Has four more sacks than any other player in the NFL over the last two seasons.
- Dating back to his final season with New England in 2015, leads the NFL in sacks (40.5) and is the only player in the NFL that has 11.0+ sacks in each of the last three seasons (12.5 sacks in 2015, 11.0 in 2016 and 17.0 in 2017).
- Dating back to 2013, no player has more games with multiple sacks (1.5 or more) than Jones (16).
- Has been named NFC Defensive Player of the Month (December, 2017), AFC Defensive Player of the Month (November, 2013), NFL Rookie of the Month (September, 2012) and also earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 2, 2014). Jones, who became the first Cardinals player to ever lead the league in sacks, also led the NFL in tackles for loss (28) and QB hits (38) last season. Named the winner of the Deacon Jones Award for leading the NFL in sacks.
- Since STATS, Inc. began tracking tackles for loss in 2008, became just the third different player to lead the NFL in both sacks and tackles for loss in a season: Demarcus Ware (2008 and 2010) and J.J. Watt (2012 and 2015).
- Had at least one sack in 13 of 16 games in 2017, becoming the first player in franchise history to have a sack in at least 13 games in a single season. CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Ever since defensive tackle Corey Peters signed with the Cardinals as a free agent in 2015, he has displayed his commitment to the Arizona community through his various charitable appearances.

Last November, Peters joined a number of teammates and a group from the Cardinals Women's Club to visit Phoenix Children's Hospital for a birthday party in the Kids Zone. Each month, the Kids Zone at PCH holds a party for all patients who have a birthday in that month. HARD TO ESCAPE A SHADOW

Despite the fact that he was yet again tasked with covering the opponents top WR every game, Cardinals All-Pro CB Patrick Peterson was among the league's least-tested CBs in 2017 according to ProFootballFocus.com. He was not targeted all at in the Week 16 shutout victory against the NY Giants. Peterson saw the fewest amount of targets (60) and allowed the fewest amount of receptions (28) among all CBs with at least 500+ snaps last season. He allowed just one reception per 21.2 coverage snaps in 2017.

Below is a look at the performance of the WRs that Peterson "shadowed" in 2017, according to PFF.com.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Pro Bowler Patrick Peterson's play on the field has made him one of the NFL's brightest stars. The Cardinals two-time (2015 and '17) "Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year" has used his status to give back to the community through the development of his own foundation, the Patrick Peterson Foundation for Success.

Being selected as the Cardinals "Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year" helps recognize a player's off-the-field community service as well as his playing excellence. As part of last season's award, Peterson received a $50,000 donation to the Patrick Peterson Foundation for Success and an additional $50,000 donation in his name to expand Arizona's United Way Character Playbook program. He also received two Super Bowl LII tickets to give to a community hero. In 2015, the NFL provided $5,000 to Peterson's foundation and Nationwide offered an additional $10,000 for receiving the honor.

Peterson was also selected as the Cardinals 2017 nominee for the Art Rooney Sportsmanship Award. Established in 2014 in honor of the late founding owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers and Pro Football Hall of Famer Art Rooney, Sr., the annual award recognizes players who demonstrate qualities of on-field sportsmanship, including fair play, respect for the game and opponents and integrity in competition.

Established in 2013, the Patrick Peterson Foundation for Success aims to provide low-income and inner city youth with opportunities and resources to reach their full potential. The foundation hopes to implement an excellent balance for community development through a variety of programs, events and charitable initiatives held throughout the year. The foundation's signature program is "Patrick's Corner" – a literacy program that places libraries in schools and inner-city community center. All 12 Patrick's Corners are furnished with bookshelves, beanbag chairs, a reading module, audio library, and a stereo listening center– providing at-risk students with access to 1,200 age-appropriate books. Each corner serves as a dedicated area where students and their families can read, learn and explore together.

In collaboration with "Patrick's Corner," Peterson launched the "Pick Up a Book" initiative within the Phoenix community which is designed to bring families, schools and communities together to support children's literacy development.

The program works to:

- Help families foster the skills, attitudes and behaviors that support children's literacy development
- Help schools engage families through fun, literacy-based events
- Better prepare children for reading and learning
- Support schools with their family engagement goals

In September of 2017, Peterson expanded upon the foundation's signature program through a community partnership with Arizona non-profit, Furnishing Dignity. Through the partnership, mini Patrick's Corners have been implemented into the homes of families who need furnishings and other essential household items.

In May of 2017, Peterson and his wife, Antonique, visited Haiti as guests of Mission of Hope. They visited schools, helped children read and write, and played soccer and kickball. Antonique, who is a doctor, assisted at medical centers. The pair also collected fresh water from local spring wells for villages without clean water.

Last December, Peterson hosted his fifth annual "Shop with a Jock" event at Walmart. Peterson, with the help of Santa and his teammates, hosts the holiday event each year for 50 low-income and at-risk inner-city families and provides the children with a unique holiday shopping experience. He has also hosted an annual "Show and Tell" car show in April the last five years in Mesa to benefit his foundation.

He hosted his third annual Patrick Peterson "Celebrity Golf Tournament" in May of 2018. The two-day event included a red-carpet VIP welcome party at Octane Raceway in Scottsdale and a golf tournament at Superstition Mountain Golf and Country Club in Gold Canyon. Peterson has also hosted "Celebrity Golf Challenge" events at Topgolf in Arizona to benefit his foundation and his "Celebs and Steaks" fundraising dinner featuring celebrities as waiters.

His commitment to helping people isn't exclusion to Arizona. When devastating floods ravaged Baton Rouge, LA in 2016, Peterson and his former LSU and Cardinals teammate Tyrann Mathieu stepped up to help. They joined forces and purchased school supplies and clothing for 700 children, including 100 kids from the Boys & Girls Club of Baton Rouge. In addition, Peterson helped raise more than $40,000 for the Baton Rouge Area Foundation through a fantasy football-based charity tournament with the winners getting the opportunity to attend the LSU-Alabama game as Peterson's guests. Peterson plans to expand the Patrick's Corner initiative to his home state of Florida in 2019.

In addition to his foundation work, Peterson is also very active at Cardinals team community events. For the third consecutive year, he visited Boys Hope Girls Hope for the team's annual Christmas party last December. Boys Hope Girls Hope helps academically capable and motivated children-in-need to meet their full potential by providing value-centered, family-like homes, opportunities and education through college. That same month, he made a special trip to Dignity Health Chandler Regional Medical Center to visit families in the birth center, congratulate new parents and deliver Cardinals teddy bears.

In 2016, he joined Cardinals teammates for the annual "Light the House" party to help spread holiday cheer at the Phoenix Ronald McDonald House last year. The group provided the families at the house with dinner, drinks and dessert while also passing out stockings to the children.

Peterson also participated in the team's annual "Teddy Bear Express" event at Phoenix Children's Hospital last December. The players delivered personalized Cardinals teddy bears to children in the pediatric units throughout the hospital. As part of Breast Cancer Awareness Month in 2014, Peterson visited Red Mountain High School in Mesa for a special pregame presentation for 10 breast cancer survivors prior to a high school football game against Desert Mountain. He joined Nicole Bidwill and presented each survivor with a commemorative football while the Cardinals provided both teams with pink gloves, wrist bands, socks and shoelaces.

This past Thanksgiving, Peterson hosted his first "Thanksgiving Giveaway" where he partnered with the United Food Bank of Arizona to provide Thanksgiving meals to 221 Arizona families at Fees Prep Elementary School in Tempe. He also previously took part at the team's "Feed the Hungry" program at the Phoenix Rescue Mission during Thanksgiving. Peterson joined team President Michael Bidwill and Cardinals teammates and served Thanksgiving dinner for the less fortunate.

In January of 2015, Peterson joined Bidwill and Cardinals teammates at the NFL's Super Bowl Legacy Grant event leading up to Super Bowl XLIX in Arizona by participating at a press conference that was followed up by a Heads Up Football Clinic at ASU Preparatory Academy. In the spring of 2013, Peterson joined Cardinals teammates, Bidwill, former Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians and General Manager Steve Keim and took part in a tweetup hosted by NBC's Peter King at Tom's Tavern the night before Pat's Run to benefit the Tillman Foundation.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Since entering the league with the Giants in the first round of the 2013 NFL Draft, offensive lineman Justin Pugh has used the platform provided to him to become a positive influence in the community.

A cause close to Pugh's heart is supporting the military and first responders. As part of the NFL's "My Cause, My Cleats" campaign the past two years he has partnered with Merging Vets and Players, a program that was designed to address the challenge of transitioning from the battlefield to home by creating an environment where veterans and athletes can share their strength and experience.

During the 2017 NFL Draft, Pugh visited Joint Base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst in New Jersey to thank members of the military for their service, host a youth football event for their kids and announce the Giants fifth-round pick on television with his brother Michael, who was stationed at the base.

Pugh has also participated in the Pro vs. GI Joe program where players competed in video games against military veterans through the Wounded Warrior Project which works to provide services and programs for wounded service members. On the 15th anniversary of 9/11, Pugh honored first responders by joining firefighters from Engine 34 Ladder 21 for a BBQ dinner at their firehouse in Hell's Kitchen.

Beyond the causes, campaigns and charitable organizations with which Pugh is associated, the Cardinals free agent actuation does not miss the opportunity to impact lives through simple kindness.

While living in Jersey City, he befriended his neighbor, Bill, who had lost his wife, suffered a back injury and fallen behind on his rent. The two developed a special bond, and Pugh's financial assistance prevented Bill from being evicted from his home of more than 30 years.

In 2015, Pugh returned to his high school (Council Rock South) in Holland, PA to host a skills camp for area youth. In conjunction with Conair Man, TD Bank, The Green Parrot, the NFL Foundation and USA Football, he hosted the fourth annual "Pugh Crew Summer Kickoff" in June for 250 children. In 2015, patients from Shriners Hospitals were among the camp attendees.

Pugh has served as a national spokesperson for Shriners' Game Day for LOVE campaign which supports fundraising events to provide life-saving and life-changing care to kids in need of specialized medical care. As part of the campaign, he hosted a viewing party, featuring a raffle and silent auction, in New York City when his alma mater, Syracuse, took on Clemson in 2014. In Week 17 the 2014 season, Pugh hosted three Shriners patients at the Giants home game against the Eagles. The guests were treated to a VIP tour of the stadium and received pregame field passes and a locker room tour after the game.

Since entering the league in 2013, Pugh has hosted and supported many other charitable causes and events including the following:

- Play 60 clinic at the NFL Experience during Super Bowl LI
- Co-host for the 2017 NBC4 and Telemundo Health and Fitness Expo Presented by Quest Diagnostics at MetLife Stadium
- Attended the Tom Coughlin Jay Fund's Champions for Children Gala which raises money to support the families of children with cancer

as a sophomore in 2011, started all 12 games for the Orange at LT and earned All-Big East first-team honors ... started all 13 games at LT as a redshirt freshman in 2010 and was second-team All-Big East.

Head Coach Bruce Arians

- Earned his 50th win with Arizona in the Cardinals season finale at Seattle. In doing so, he finished his five-year tenure in Arizona as the winningest head coach in franchise history. Arians announced his retirement from coaching following the 2017 season.

WR Larry Fitzgerald

- Named to his 11th career Pro Bowl after leading the NFC and ranking second in the NFL with 109 receptions in 2017. He became the oldest player in NFL history with 100+ receptions in a season and also moved into third place on the NFL's all-time receiving yardage list.

QB Carson Palmer

- Announced his retirement following the 2017 season after five seasons with Arizona in which he posted a 38-21-1 record (.642) as the Cardinals starter. Palmer helped lead the Cardinals to their most successful five-year run in franchise history.

LB Chandler Jones

- In his second season in Arizona, Jones earned a Pro Bowl selection and was named first-team All-Pro after leading the NFL with a franchise single-season record 17.0 sacks in 2017. He led the NFL in sacks (17.0), tackles for loss (28) and QB hits (38) in '17.

CB Patrick Peterson

- Selected to his seventh consecutive Pro Bowl (6th as a CB), joining Hall of Famers Jim Brown and Barry Sanders as the only players in NFL history to be chosen to seven Pro Bowls before their 28th birthday.

S Budda Baker

- The Cardinals second round selection (36th overall) in the 2017 NFL Draft, Baker was named first-team All-Pro and was selected to the Pro Bowl as a special teamer as a rookie. He tied for third in the NFL with 16 special teams tackles in '17 - while also finishing the season as a starter on defense.

S Antoine Bethea

- During his 12th NFL season, and first with Arizona, Bethea recorded a team-leading and career-high five INTs in 2017. He also established a single-game career-high with two INTs in Week 16 vs. the Giants.

LB Karlos Dansby

- During his third stint with the Cardinals, Dansby led the team with 106 tackles in 2017. He also recorded his 20th career INT, becoming just the fifth player in NFL history with 40+ sacks and 20+ INTs in their career.

K Phil Dawson

- His 32 FGs in 2017 represent the second-highest single-season total in franchise history (Neil Rackers, 40 in 2015). Finished the season having moved into 10th place on the NFL's all-time scoring list with 1,817 career points.

P Andy Lee

- Established a franchise single-season record with a 47.3-yard punting average in 2017 during his first season with the Cardinals. Lee's 47.3-yard punting average ranked seventh in the NFL in 2017, and he has now finished in the top-10 in punting average in 11 of his 14 NFL seasons.

2017 GAME SUMMARIES

LIONS 35, CARDINALS 23

SEPTEMBER 10, 2017
FORD FIELD - (60,957)

The Cards opened the regular season at Detroit where they took advantage of early Lions mistakes to take an initial 10-0 lead. However, the hosts responded with 26 straight points in the 2nd half to earn the 35-23 victory. Detroit enjoyed a 4-1 edge in takeaways and converted 3 of them into TDs.

Detroit safety Tavon Wilson's INT off Carson Palmer on the game's opening drive set his offense up at the AZ26. However, 2 plays later Lions signal-caller Matthew Stafford returned the favor with a pass that Cards CB Justin Bethel picked off and returned 82 yards for a TD. Midway thru the 1st quarter, the Lions were backed up deep in their own territory when punter Kasey Redfern mishandled a snap in the end zone, allowing the Cards to take over at the DET13. The Cards could only convert it into a 24-yard Phil Dawson FG that made it 10-0 after one. Early in the 2nd quarter, the Cards were threatening before Lions safety Glover Quin INT'd Palmer and returned it to the AZ42. Detroit capitalized 11 plays later when Marvin Jones hauled in a 6-yard TD pass from Stafford that made it 10-6 after the PAT try failed. It remained that way until late in the half when the Cards advanced deep into Lions territory but Dawson's 32-yard FG try bounced off the left upright with :39 remaining before intermission. That was enough time for the Lions to move into position for a 58-yard Matt Prater FG that made it 10-9 as the half expired.

On its opening drive of the 2nd half, AZ's offense moved 94 yards in 12 plays thanks largely to Palmer completing 6 of 8 passes for 69 yards, the biggest of which was a 24-yarder to David Johnson to the DET3. On the next play, RB Kerwyn Williams ran it in to give AZ a 17-9 lead. After a Lions 3-n-out, the Cards took over at their own 21 but on the 1st play Johnson fumbled and DET took over at the A210; the play would also be Johnson's last of the season as he exited the game with a wrist injury that ultimately landed him on IR. The Lions again cashed in on a turnover when RB Theo Riddick caught a 7-yard TD pass from Stafford that trimmed the AZ lead to 2 at 17-15 late in the 3rd. On their next series, DET took its 1st lead of the game with 9:27 left thanks to a 10-yard Stafford TD pass to rookie WR Kenny Golladay. The two struck again on the next series with a 45-yard TD hook-up that made it 28-17. The misfortune continued on the next play from scrimmage when Palmer's pass to RB Andre Ellington bounced right off the RB and into the hands of LB Miles Killebrew who took it 35 yards for a TD. A late TD pass from Palmer to WR JJ Nelson provided the game's final points.

CARDINALS 16, COLTS 13 (OT)

SEPTEMBER 17, 2017
LUCAS OIL STADIUM - (63,137)

The Cards made their first-ever appearance at Lucas Oil Stadium where they allowed Indy to jump out to an early 10-point lead. They trailed by that same margin approaching the midway point of the 4th quarter. Staring down the barrel of an 0-2 start to the season, AZ rallied to score 3 times the rest of the way and emerged with a 16-13 OT victory.

Both squads entered the contest undermanned. AZ was without 5 injured starters while Indy's list of missing players was headlined by QB Andrew Luck. Starting in his place was recently-acquired Jacoby Brissett who led Indy to scores on its first 2 offensive drives. The initial one appeared to end with an Adam Vinatieri FG but Cards DL Rodney Gunter was flagged for "leverage" on the try; 2 plays later Indy added a TD instead thanks to a 5-yard Frank Gore run. The Colts went up 10-0 on their next drive via Vinatieri's 46-yard FG. AZ responded on the next play from scrimmage with a 46-yard Carson Palmer pass to TE Ifeanyi Momah that took it to the Indy 29. AZ would reach the 1 and went for it on 4th-n-goal from there but Palmer's fade pass to Larry Fitzgerald fell incomplete. After the Cards D forced a 3-n-out, AZ again threatened. A 9-yard Palmer pass to WR JJ Nelson was initially ruled a TD but reversed after replay and a 27-yard Phil Dawson FG made it 10-3. With under 2 minutes to play in the half, the Cards reached the Indy 26 but Palmer's 1st down throw was picked off by 5 Malik Hooker.

Neither team scored or generated much offense in the 3rd but with 11:42 remaining, Vinatieri's 29-yard FG made it a 2-score game at 13-3. The next series saw Palmer pick-up a key 1st down on 3rd-n-1 when he fumbled the snap but recovered and ran up the middle for 4. Two plays later AZ faced a 3rd-n-20 from its own 18 when Palmer picked up 22 on a pass to WR Aaron Brown and an additional 15 thanks to a roughing the passer call that moved it to the Indy 45. On the next snap, Palmer hit Nelson between 2 defenders down the deep middle for a 45-yard TD that made it 13-10. The AZ offense got the ball back after a Colts 3-n-out and on the 2nd play thereafter, Palmer and Nelson again connected, this time on a 31-yarder to the Indy 28. The catch would lead to a 40-yard Dawson FG that tied the game at 13 with 3:28 to play. On the final play of regulation Dawson had a chance to end it with a 42-yard FG. His initial attempt was good but negated by a Colts timeout and the following try was wide right sending the game to OT.

The Colts won the toss to open the extra period and elected to receive but on their 1st play, 5 Tyrann Mathieu picked off Brissett and returned the INT 15 yards to the Indy 21. Four plays later, Dawson hit it right down the middle from 30 yards to claim the victory.

COWBOYS 28, CARDINALS 17

 SEPTEMBER 25, 2017
 UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (65,102)

After opening the regular season with back-to-back road games, the Cards made their University of Phoenix Stadium debut with a nationally-televised Monday night tilt against the Cowboys. Arizona came out of the gates fast as Carson Palmer completed his first 11 passes and was 15-18 passing for 145 yards and a TD in a 1st half that the Cards dominated statistically. On the scoreboard, however, the teams were tied at 7 at intermission. Dallas would outscore AZ 21-10 in the 2nd half behind the playmaking of QB Dak Prescott and emerged with the victory that improved the Cowboys to 2-1 while dropping the Cards to 1-2. Overshadowed by the outcome was a magnificent outing from WR Larry Fitzgerald who had 13 catches for 149 yards and a TD.

The Cardinals took the game's opening possession 82 yards in 8 plays and Palmer capped the drive with a 25-yard scoring strike to WR Jaron Brown. Their next drive also went deep into Dallas territory but an apparent 10-yard TD pass to Brown was negated by penalty and the subsequent FG try of 36 yards by Phil Dawson was wide right. The AZ defense meanwhile forced 3 n-outs on the first 2 Cowboy drives but the field position would gradually shift in Dallas' favor. After taking over at the AZ22 with 2:21 left in the 1st half, Prescott ran it in from 10 yards out and flipped into the end zone to tie the game.

On its 2nd drive of the 3rd quarter, Dallas took over at the AZ46 and 4 plays later Prescott found Dez Bryant with a 15-yard TD pass. Later in that quarter a 37-yard Fitzgerald pass from Palmer took it to the DAL17 and 2 plays later the two connected on a 15-yard TD pass in the back right corner of the end zone to again tie the game. With just under 12 minutes remaining, Prescott kept a 2nd down play alive by scrambling to his right before lofting a pass to the end zone that WR Brice Butler hauled in for a 37-yard TD. Down 21-14, Palmer drove the Cards to the DAL19 thanks in large part to a 24-yard gain on an acrobatic Fitzgerald sideline grab. That ultimately led to a 37-yard Dawson FG that trimmed the deficit to 21-17 with 6:40 remaining. On the next play from scrimmage, Prescott hit Butler with a 53-yard completion to the AZ22 and 3 plays later RB Ezekiel Elliott ran it in from 8 yards out to make it 28-17.

The MNF contest ended a weekend of NFL action in which every game featured some sort of response to critical comments of the league by President Donald Trump. During the anthem, Cardinals players, coaches and ownership locked arms while standing shoulder to shoulder in the end zone in a show of unity while the Cowboys opted to take a collective knee before the anthem was played.

CARDINALS 18, 49ERS 15 (OT)

 OCTOBER 1, 2017
 UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (64,121)

This week 4 showdown between the Niners & Cards was a classic NFC West battle. Neither team allowed a TD in regulation but there were plenty of field goals, an NFL-record tying 9 in all. The last of them was a 23-yarder by San Fran's Robbie Gould that capped the 49ers' OT-opening drive of 17 plays and 73 yards. In addition to putting the visitors up 15-12, it also consumed 7:36 of the 10-minute extra period leaving AZ with just over 2 minutes to answer.

But answer they did. After taking over at his own 25 with 2:24 remaining, Carson Palmer completed 4 straight passes for 50 yards to move it to the SF25. The last 2 went to WR Jaron Brown who finished with 8 catches for 105 yards, both career-highs. On the next play WR John Brown came down with a pass in the back right corner of the end zone but he was ruled out of bounds and after a replay review, referee Tony Corrente announced that the original call would stand. A holding penalty backed up the AZ offense but a defensive pass interference was followed by an 8-yard completion to RB Andre Ellington, taking the Cards to the SF19 with :38 left. On the next snap, Palmer tossed it to the right side of the end zone where Larry Fitzgerald leapt high, snatched the ball with both hands and landed in the end zone to the game-winning TD. It was Arizona's first lead of the day and secured the Cards' 5th straight win over San Fran.

While the OT-game-winner was the game's only TD, the Cards looked like they'd get one on the day's opening series. They reached the SF4 but LB Ray Armstrong caught a tipped ball in the end zone for an INT. After a 49-yard Gould FG late in the 1st gave the 49ers a 3-0 lead, Ellington caught a 12-yard pass at the corner of the end zone that was ruled a TD; however, after replay review Corrente surprisingly announced that the call was reversed. AZ instead had to settle for a game-tying FG from Phil Dawson, the first of 4 FGs he would have on the day. After another Gould FG put SF up 6-3, an INT by S Antoine Bethea set the Cards offense up at the SF30; that led to a Dawson 43-yarder that knotted it at 6 going into halftime.

The first three drives of the 3rd quarter resulted in FGs - two for Gould, and a 50-yarder for Dawson - and SF led 12-9 heading into the 4th. Midway through that final quarter, Dawson tied it with his 4th FG in as many tries. While each team would get two more possessions in regulation, neither could generate a scoring opportunity and the game went to OT where SF won the coin flip but the Cards ultimately won the game. It was Arizona's 2nd OT victory in 3 weeks and the franchise's 26th all-time, 2nd most in NFL history behind only Denver's 28.

EAGLES 34, CARDINALS 7

OCTOBER 8, 2017
LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD – (69,596)

On a humid October afternoon in Philadelphia, the Eagles jumped out to a 21-0 lead after QB Carson Wentz threw TD passes on the team's first 3 offensive possessions. The Cardinals would get to within 14 points after a TD early in the 2nd quarter but never closer as Philly scored the game's final 13 points en route to a 34-7 victory. It dropped AZ to 2-3 on the season while the Eagles improved to 4-1.

Philly finished the game 9-14 on 3rd down and that efficiency was on display on the game's opening possession when they Eagles converted 3 times including a pair of 3rd-11's. Those conversions extended a drive that ultimately ended on Wentz's 15-yard TD pass to TE Trey Burton. Their next series started at the AZ15 thanks to a 76-yard Kerion Barnes punt return. Three plays later Wentz found another TE – this time Zach Ertz – with an 11-yard scoring strike. Late in the 1st, Philly faced a 3rd-n-6 from its own 41 when Wentz hit Torrey Smith crossing the deep middle and the WR took it the distance for a 59-yard TD. Arizona answered with its best drive of the day, a 10-play, 75-yard series that concluded with a 13-yard TD pass from Carson Palmer to John Brown. AZ stopped the Eagles on their next 3 drives forcing a pair of punts and ending the 3rd with an Antoine Bethea interception in the end zone with :40 left in the half. It was Bethea's 2nd INT in as many games for Arizona. After the takeaway, the Cards moved into position for a 51-yard Phil Dawson FG attempt that would've made it 21-10 but the try was blocked due in part by the fact that long-snapper Aaron Brewer was lost earlier in the game with a broken wrist.

The Eagles added a 36-yard Jake Elliott FG on the opening drive of the 2nd half that made it 24-7. On the 3rd play of their next series they faced a 3rd-n-19 at their own 28. AZ brought the house but Wentz beat the blitz with a deep pass that Nelson Agholor hauled in for a 72-yard TD that effectively provided the game's knockout blow. Elliott would add a 28-yard FG late to make it 34-7. Cards WR JJ Nelson was awarded a diving TD in the game's final minute but replay reversed it saying that he lost possession before crossing the goal line.

WR Larry Fitzgerald extended his streak of games with at least one reception to 200 and finished with 6 catches in all. The Cards again had to shuffle their offensive line due to injuries and started back-ups at both LT and LG against Philly's formidable front.

CARDINALS 38, BUCCANEERS 33

OCTOBER 15, 2017
UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (63,999)

The Cardinals evened their record at 3-3 with a home victory over the Buccaneers, who entered the game at 2-2. Arizona scored TDs on each of its first 3 offensive possessions and took a 24-0 halftime lead that grew to 31-0 early in the 3rd. The offensive explosion coincided with the arrival of RB Adrian Peterson, who AZ picked up in a trade with the Saints on Tuesday. In his Cards debut, the 32-year old All-Pro was sensational finishing with 134 rushing yards on 26 carries with 2 TDs. The ground success opened things up for the passing game where Carson Palmer completed his first 14 passes that included 3 TDs. His primary target was Larry Fitzgerald who had a game-high 10 catches for 138 yards a TD. As it turned out, the Cards would need every bit of that offensive production as the Bucs clawed back to make it a game with 33 second half points, including 27 in the 4th. They did so with back-up QB Ryan Fitzpatrick who took over in the 2nd quarter after starter Jameis Winston injured his shoulder on a hit from Chandler Jones. In the end, the Cards cushion was enough to weather the late barrage and emerge with an important 5-point victory.

Peterson's impact was evident from the start. AZ took the opening kickoff and moved 75 yards in 7 plays; 4 of them were Peterson runs that gained 54 yards including a 27-yard TD jaunt. The next Cards series also ended with 7, this time when Palmer finished the 7-play, 86-yard drive with a 14-yard scoring pass to TE Troy Niklas. After a TB 3-n-out, the lead grew to 21-0 when Palmer's 11-yard TD to Fitzgerald capped a 75-yard scoring drive. With 5:31 to go in the 2nd, Phil Dawson's 28-yard FG made it 24-0 and Winston had been knocked from the game. In his 1st series of action, Fitzpatrick led the Bucs to the AZ5 but the Cards turned them away on both 3rd and 4th downs to secure the 1st half shut out.

On the 2nd play of the 3rd quarter, 5 Antoine Bethea notched his 3rd INT in as many games and returned the pick 21 yards to the TB 33. Four plays later, Palmer hit WR John Brown with a 17-yard TD pass that made it 31-0. Midway thru the 3rd, Fitzpatrick and DeSean Jackson connected on a 4-yard TD to begin a string of 20 unanswered points for the Bucs. A 10-yard TD catch by TE Cameron Brate was followed 36 later by a defensive score. LB Lavonte David scooped up a Fitzgerald fumble and his 21-yard return made it 31-21 with about 13 minutes left. AZ's next possession ended on an Andy Lee punt that rookie Budda Baker downed at the 1. On the next play, Cards CB Tramont Williams came up with a huge INT when he wrestled a pass from WR Mike Evans, giving the ball back to the offense at the TB1. On the next snap, Peterson punched it in from there and the Cards led 38-20 with 7:17 left. But the Bucs would get 2 more TDs in that span – a 1-yard Doug Martin run and a 37-yard Evans TD catch – to make it a 5-point game with :202 remaining. However, when Fitzgerald recovered the on-side kick attempt, the Cards were able to salt the time away with 3 kneeldowns.

RAMS 33, CARDINALS 0

OCTOBER 22, 2017
TWICKENHAM STADIUM (LONDON) - (73,736)

The 3-3 Cardinals traveled to London to take on the 4-2 Rams in a key divisional showdown at Twickenham Stadium. After a promising game-opening drive, Arizona would be outplayed by LA in all three phases of the game the rest of the way. In addition to suffering a 33-0 defeat, the Cards lost QB Carson Palmer late in the 1st half with a fractured left forearm that would require surgery and land him on IR. The most damage was done in the 2nd quarter when the Rams scored 20 points in all and 17 in the final 5:25. LA enjoyed a near two-to-one advantage in time of possession and outgained AZ 425-193 in total offensive yards. The Cards were hampered by 10 penalties, including 5 neutral zone infractions on defense and allowed the Rams to convert 13 of their 19 third down attempts (68%).

On the game's opening drive, Palmer completed 4 of 5 passes for 62 yards and moved AZ to the LA14 but Phil Dawson's 32-yard try from there was wide left. The Rams then moved 73 yards to the AZ5 where Greg Zuerlein's 23-yard FG made it 3-0. Zuerlein doubled the LA lead early in the 2nd with a 33-yarder that capped an 8-play, 51-yard drive. With 5:48 remaining before halftime and trailing 6-0, the Cards took over at their own 18 when disaster struck. On the drive's first play, LB Alec Ogletree hit Palmer while he was returning; it caused the ball to flutter and led to a Lamarquez Joyner INT that he returned 29 yards to the AZ18. The play would be Palmer's last as he exited with a fractured left forearm suffered on the play and Drew Stanton came on at QB the rest of the way. On the next snap after the turnover, Todd Gurley ran for an 18-yard TD that made it 13-0. With 1:22 to go before halftime, the Rams were again threatening at the AZ32 when Goff's pass was nearly INT'd by S Antoine Bethea but he could not hold on. Instead, the LA drive continued and ultimately ended when Goff ran it in himself from 9 yards out to put the Rams up 20-0 with :41 remaining before intermission. On the next play from scrimmage, Stanton was picked off by LB Mark Barron and that led to a 53-yard Zuerlein FG as the half expired.

Zuerlein would add a 34-yarder on the opening drive of the 3rd quarter to make it 26-0. The next Rams drive reached the AZ21 but Cards SLB Deone Bucannon ended it with an INT off Goff that he returned 39 yards to the LA47. The Cards could not capitalize on their last best chance for points and only a late Goff pass to WR Cooper Kupp remained to provide the game's final margin.

Larry Fitzgerald extended his streak of games with at least one reception to 202 and Twickenham Stadium became the 40th different NFL venue at which he recorded a regular season catch. RB Adrian Peterson made his 2nd appearance as a Cardinal and his 2nd appearance of the month in the UK; prior to being traded to AZ, he played at Wembley Stadium with the Saints on October 1 and became the 1st in NFL history to play 2 London games in the same season.

CARDINALS 20, 49ERS 10

NOVEMBER 5, 2017
LEVI'S STADIUM - (70,133)

The Cardinals evened their record at 4-4 and posted their 6th straight win over the Niners thanks to a 10-point road victory. RB Adrian Peterson shouldered much of the load in his 3rd game with the team, gaining 159 yards on a career-high 37 rushing attempts. The carry total was a franchise record and most ever by an NFL player in his 30s. Starting for the 1st time in over a year in place of Carson Palmer, who fractured his arm in the previous game against the Rams in London, QB Drew Stanton turned in a solid and efficient performance. He threw a pair of 1st half TDs and was not sacked once. His San Fran counterpart C.J. Beathard was not as fortunate as the Arizona D recorded 5 sacks and another 16 QB hits.

On the game's 1st play from scrimmage Stanton connected with WR John Brown on a 52-yard pass play down the right sideline that took it to the SF28. However, the Cards came away pointless after Phil Dawson's 38-yard FG try hit the right upright. The 49ers offense then advanced to midfield but a completion to FB Kyle Juszczyk was ripped away by S Tyrann Mathieu. CB Patrick Peterson scooped up the loose ball - Arizona's 1st fumble recovery of the season - and returned it 47 yards to the SF 6. Three plays later, Stanton kept a 3rd down play alive by scrambling to his right and then found WR Jaron Brown in the end zone to give AZ a 7-0 lead. It remained that way until late in the 1st quarter when San Fran WR Marquise Goodwin hauled in a 55-yard deep ball from Beathard to put the Niners at the AZ27. That gain set-up a 42-yard Robbie Gould FG on the 1st play of the 2nd quarter that made it 7-3. On the ensuing series, AZ moved 75 yards in 7 plays and went up 14-3 when Stanton hit TE Jermaine Gresham on an 11-yard TD pass. On that drive, Peterson ran 4 times for 37 yards and Stanton was 3-3 for 38 yards including the TD. Later in the 2nd quarter, the Cards were in position to add to their lead after marching to the SF14 but Stanton's pass to Gresham in the end zone was intercepted by 49ers S Eric Reid to halt the threat.

San Fran opened the 2nd half by moving 75 yards in 13 plays and cutting the lead to 14-10 when Beathard scored on a 1-yard TD run. The 49ers would not score again. The AZ defense sent them 3-n-out on their next 2 possessions while adding a pair of Dawson FGs (25 & 32 yards) via lengthy drives that combined to chew 13:26 off the 2nd half clock. San Fran threatened late when they reached the AZ9 with 2:35 remaining. However, LB Karlos Dansby gathered in a deflected Beathard pass for his 20th career INT. In doing so, Dansby became just the 5th player in NFL history with 20+ INTs and 40+ sacks. Other Cardinals eclipsed milestones as well. Larry Fitzgerald's 70 receiving yards on 5 catches allowed him to pass Tim Brown and move into 6th on the NFL's all-time receiving yardage list. Peterson moved ahead of both Thurman Thomas and Franco Harris into 14th place on the league's all-time rushing yardage list; he also eclipsed 12,000 career rushing yards, reaching that plateau in the 4th fewest number of games (130) in NFL history. Stanton won his 4th straight start and improved his record to 7-3 as a starter with the Cards. Chandler Jones recorded his 9th sack of the year, matching the most-ever by a Cardinal thru 8 games (Simeon Rice, 1999).

SEAHAWKS 22, CARDINALS 16
NOVEMBER 9, 2017
UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM • (64,639)

On a Thursday night in AZ, the Cards fell to 4-5 after suffering a 6-point divisional defeat at the hands of the Seahawks. Said head coach Bruce Ariens afterwards, "We knew this would come down to a game of big plays and we didn't make enough. Obviously Russell (Wilson) made a great one...and that was probably the deciding factor in the game." The Cards had chances throughout the contest but were hurt by dropped passes and other missed opportunities. And the big play from the Seattle signal-caller that Ariens alluded to came early in the 4th with Seattle leading 15-10. On 2nd-21 from his own 44, Wilson couldn't find an open receiver but brought time by scrambling and circling in the backfield to elude the AZ defenders. He ultimately tossed it toward the left sideline where WR Doug Baldwin came down with it and took it 54 yards to the A22. On the next snap, Jimmy Graham caught his 2nd TD pass of the night that made in 22-10 with 12:49 left and seriously wounded Arizona's chances. The Cards would score in the final minute to close the gap but their fate was sealed when Seattle recovered the ensuing on-side kick.

The game started promisingly for AZ when a Seahawks 3-n-out and punt set the Cards offense up at the SEA48 for their first offensive snap. On it, however, RB Adrian Peterson fumbled and Seattle took over. It was the start of a stifling evening of run defense that saw the Seahawks hold Peterson to 29 yards on 21 carries. Late in the 1st, Seattle went up 7-0 when Wilson and Graham capped a 51-yard drive with a 6-yard TD connection. QB Drew Stanton, who made his 2nd straight start in place of injured Carson Palmer, then led AZ on a 9-play, 75-yard game-tying TD drive aided by 4 Seattle penalties that resulted in 1st downs. The score came on a 14-yard TD pass to TE Jermaine Gresham. The next Cards offensive series started at their own 2 following a punt and penalty; on the 1st play, Peterson was tackled in the end zone for a safety that made it 9-7. After Seattle made it 12-7 on a Blair Walsh FG with 1:52 to go in the 1st half, AZ advanced into Seahawks territory. It ended however when the Cards went for it on 4th-n-9 from the SEA38 but didn't pick it up. On the next play, WR Paul Richardson hauled in a 43-yard pass at the AZ19 and that led to another Walsh FG, this one a 43-yarder that made it 15-7 at intermission.

The only points of the 3rd quarter came on its 1st drive. Phil Dawson's 43-yard FG capped an 11-play, 51-yard drive that pulled AZ to within 5. But the aforementioned Seattle TD early in the 4th pushed it back up to 12 with 12:49 remaining. With 4:20 to go, the Cards were at the SEA15 and faced a 4th-n-8 but couldn't pick it up. They'd get the ball back and added a TD with 2:20 remaining on a 1-yard Andre Ellington TD but would get no closer. Individually, Larry Fitzgerald led all receivers with 10 catches for 113 yards and eclipsed 15,000 career receiving yards. LB Chandler Jones recorded his 10th sack of the year, giving him double-digits for the 2nd straight year. But the game was costly for both sides. AZ lost a pair of starters - LT DJ Humphries and S Tyron Branch - to knee injuries and back-up TE Ifeanyi Momah to a broken ankle. Seattle also saw a number of players injured, most notably CB Richard Sherman (Achilles). F

TEXANS 31, CARDINALS 21
NOVEMBER 19, 2017
NRG STADIUM • (71,680)

In week 11 at Houston, the Cards led 21-17 after three quarters but surrendered a pair of 4th quarter TD runs to fall 31-21. A key sequence came on consecutive plays in the fourth quarter. Trailing by 3 with 6:30 to play, the Cardinals went for it on 4th-n-1 from their own 35 but were stopped short and on the next snap, Houston ran for a TD that made it a 10-point game. The outcome left each team with a 4-6 record with 6 games to play. Arizona started its 3rd different QB of the season as Blaine Gabbert saw his 1st action in a Cardinals uniform. He was a solid 22-34 for 257 yards and a career-high 3 TDs. Two of those scores came on TD passes to rookie TE Ricky Seals-Jones, an undrafted free agent who entered the game with zero career catches. Gabbert's other TD was to WR Larry Fitzgerald who led all receivers with 9 catches for 91 yards. He also moved past Tony Gonzalez into 5th place on the NFL's all-time receiving yardage list. Rookie safety Budda Baker made his 1st career start in place of Tyron Branch who was lost for the season the week before. The 2nd round draft pick was outstanding, collecting 12 tackles, a sack, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

The game began with a scoreless opening quarter but the teams combined for 24 in the 2nd. Houston struck first when Tom Savage's 7-yard TD pass to RB Lamar Miller made it 7-0. Midway through the quarter, Baker delivered one of his several big plays on the afternoon. Coming on a blitz, he knocked the ball from Savage and recovered it himself at the HOU17. Two plays later, Fitzgerald hauled in a 20-yard pass from Gabbert to tie the game at 7. Five minutes later, the AZ defense set up another score. CB Patrick Peterson snatched a tipped pass along the sideline for his 21st career INT and returned it 22 yards to the HOU16. Two plays later, Gabbert threw an 11-yard dart to Seals-Jones that made it 14-7 with 4:41 left in the 1st half. That was enough time for the Houston offense to move into position for a 34-yard Ka'imi Fairbairn FG just before intermission that trimmed the AZ lead to 14-10 going into the halftime locker room.

The Texans got the ball first to open the 2nd half and moved 74 yards in 7 plays, taking the lead on a 28-yard Savage pass to WR DeAndre Hopkins. With 4:41 remaining in the 3rd, Seals-Jones put the Cards back on top when he caught a pass between two defenders and continued on for a 28-yard TD. The Texans answered with another long drive, this one a 12-play, 75-yard effort that ended on a 3-yard scoring run from rookie RB D'Onta Foreman. That TD put Houston up 24-21 with 13:13 left. It remained that way until the Cards faced that pivotal 4th-n-1 decision from their own 35. Adrian Peterson was stopped on a run short of the first down marker. On the next play from scrimmage, Foreman raced 34 yards for a back-breaking TD that put Houston up 10 with 6:19 to play. The next two AZ drives ended on interceptions to end any Arizona comeback hopes.

CARDINALS 27, JAGUARS 24

 NOVEMBER 26, 2017
 UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (63,891)

Phil Dawson made the longest FG of his 19-year career - a 57-yarder with :01 remaining - and QB Blaine Gabbert threw two TD passes against the team that drafted him 10th overall in 2011, lifting Arizona to a 3-point victory over AFC South-leading Jacksonville. Riding a 4-game win streak, the Jags came to AZ with a 7-3 record and a defense that ranked #1 in the NFL in many key categories, including fewest points (14.1), total yards (275.6) and passing yards (162.0) per game. The Gabbert-led Cardinals offense would score 27 while gaining 344 total net yards & 236 passing, led by Chandler Jones' 2.0 sacks and 5 tackles for losses, the Arizona defense held the Jags #1 ranked run game almost 70 yards beneath its season average of 160.6. The home victory improved the Cards' season record to 5-6.

Arizona jumped out to a 13-0 first-half lead thanks to a pair of Dawson FGs and a 29-yard Gabbert TD pass to Ricky Seals-Jones, the 3rd in 2 games for the undrafted rookie TE. Twice in the 1st half, the Cards needed replay reversals to correct key calls from Clete Blakeman's crew. A down-by-contact ruling on a Chris Ivory fumble was reversed to a fumble following an AZ challenge and a Kerynn Williams turnover was changed to a non-fumble after another replay review. Just before halftime, the Jags got on the board with a 43-yard Josh Lambo FG that made it 13-3.

Dawson's 3rd FG of the game, a 48-yarder on the opening drive of the 3rd made it 16-3. Jags QB Blake Bortles then led a 7-play, 75-yard drive that he ended with a 1-yard TD run on 4th-n-goal to make it 16-10 Arizona. That score remained until early in the 4th. On 3rd-n-10 from the AZ15, Bortles was sacked from behind by DE Yannick Ngakoue forcing a fumble that former Cardinal Calais Campbell returned 10 yards for a go-ahead score. The Cards responded with a 52-yard TD pass to WR Jarro Brown, on which Gabbert stepped up in the pocket to avoid Campbell before throwing the ball some 45 yards in the air. That play along with a Larry Fitzgerald completion on the 2-point try put AZ up 24-17. But Corey Grant returned the ensuing kickoff 68 yards to the AZ38 and 4 plays later Bortles scored on a 17-yard run to tie the game midway thru the 4th. With 3:38 to play, S Barry Church intercepted Gabbert setting the Jags up at their own 42. A minute later, Jacksonville was at the AZ38 facing a 3rd-n-8 when S Tyrann Mathieu picked off a Bortles pass attempt to give AZ possession at its own 41 with 2:42 remaining. Facing a 4th-n-1 at midfield, the Cards punted and Andy Lee pinned the Jags at their own 10 with 1:14 to go. A 2nd down pass break-up by Mathieu was key to a Jax 3-yn-out after which the Cards took over at their own 39 with 1:16 left and no timeouts. A 10-yard completion to RB Kerynn Williams was followed by a brilliant, toe-tapping sideline catch by RB D.J. Foster. The crucial 12-yard gain moved it to the Jax39 to set-up Dawson's 57-yarder that had plenty of room to spare.

RAMS 32, CARDINALS 16

 DECEMBER 3, 2017
 UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (63,986)

Arizona endured a rough start that saw the visiting Rams jump out to a 16-0 opening quarter lead but came back to narrow it to 19-13 by halftime. However, LA outscored the Cards 13-3 in the 2nd half and emerged with a 32-16 victory that improved the Rams to 9-3 and dropped AZ to 5-7. Offensively, RB Todd Gurley led the way for LA with 168 yards from scrimmage (74 rushing and 84 receiving) while the defense recorded 6 sacks and 2 INTs, both of which led to TDs. Arizona's offense was most notably injured RB Adrian Peterson (neck) but in his place Kerynn Williams ran 16 times for 97 yards despite entering the game with cracked ribs. Larry Fitzgerald again led the way with 10 catches for 98 yards and a TD while also eclipsing a number of career milestones; most notably he moved past Isaac Bruce into 4th place in career receiving yards and recorded his 12,000th career catch, doing so in the fewest games in NFL history (214).

The Rams struck first with a 56-yard Greg Zuerlein FG on the game's opening drive. On the next play from scrimmage, Blaine Gabbert's deep throw to JJ Nelson was picked off by S Lamarus Joyner who returned it 46 yards to the AZ23. The Rams advanced to the 1 in 6 plays and on 4th-n-goal from there, Jared Goff hit TE Gerald Everett on a slant for a 9-0 lead after the PAT failed. Cards LB Kareem Martin gave AZ a spark when he halted the next LA drive with an INT to set the offense up at its own 40. Three plays later though, LB Alec Ogletree stepped in front of the Cardinals' 3rd-n-9 pass and returned the INT 41 yards for a score that made it 16-0 late in the 1st. Early in the 2nd Kerynn Williams brought the AZ offense to life; his 5 runs for 47 yards moved the Cards downfield and set up a 1-yard TD run by fellow RB Elijah Penny. After a 3-n-out from LA, the Cards took over at their own 30 with 5:33 remaining in the 1st half. A 25-yard Williams run took it to the LA45 and 26-yard completion to Nelson moved it to the 16. One play later, Gabbert hit Fitzgerald with a 15-yard TD. After the PAT was blocked, the Rams lead was just 16-13 with 3:35 left. However a combination of Gurley runs and catches gained 75 to tie up a FG as the half expired.

The only points of the 3rd quarter came when LA's special teams units gave the Rams possession at the AZ30 and 6 plays later, Sammy Watkins scored on an 11-yard pass from Goff to make it 26-13 thru 3. Early in the 4th, Phil Dawson's 54-yard FG made it a 10-point game. With 11 minutes to go, AZ had a chance to cut it to 7 on its next possession but Dawson's 45-yard FG try was blocked up the middle by DT Michael Brockers. LA would cash in with a 24-yard Zuerlein FG and a later one from 41 yards out made the final score 32-13.

CARDINALS 12, TITANS 7
 DECEMBER 10, 2017
 UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (64,153)

The Titans became the last NFL team to make its first visit to University of Phoenix Stadium. They came to town with an 8-4 record and leading the AFC South after winning 6 of their previous 7 and 2 straight. However, on the strength of an exceptional defensive effort and 4 Phil Dawson FGs, the Cards emerged with a 5-point win that improved their record to 6-7. After rushing for 193 yards 7 days earlier against Houston, Tennessee was held to just 65 by an Arizona defense that allowed 204 overall, 120.5 yards beneath the Titans season average. The Cards also played a turnover-free game while coming up with two key takeaways on 2nd half interceptions. Of Tennessee's 12 offensive possessions, 6 were 4 plays or fewer and the only one that led to points started at midfield. Cardinals WR Larry Fitzgerald eclipsed another significant milestone when his 23-yard 3rd quarter reception moved him past Randy Moss and into 3rd on the NFL's all-time receiving yardage list. Chandler Jones recorded his NFL-leading 14th sack of the year, the most ever by a Cardinal thru 13 games. Starting for the 12th straight week in place of Adrian Peterson, RB Kerwyn Williams led all backs with 73 yards on 20 carries. Blaine Gabbert earned his 2nd victory as Cards starting QB and turned in a gritty effort, withstanding 8 sacks to complete 10 of 12 passes in the 2nd half. His TEN counterpart Marcus Mariota was held to a career-low 39.6 passer rating.

Tennessee led 7-0 after a 1st half that featured 9 combined punts. The only points came midway through the 2nd quarter when the Titans took over at midfield and cashed in 9 plays later on RB Derrick Henry's 6-yard TD run. They had a chance to add to the lead on the final play of the half but Ryan Succop's 58-yard FG try hit the cross bar and fell short.

Arizona got the ball to open the 3rd quarter and cut the lead to 7-3 when Dawson's 47-yard FG capped a 9-play, 48-yard drive. Four plays later, the Titans faced a 4th-n-1 from their own 35 and lined up to punt. However, they tried a fake by snapping directly to WR Eric Weems who was stopped near the line of scrimmage. Officials initially spotted it for a 1st down but after an AZ challenge, it was reversed and the Cards took over at the TEN35. That led to another Dawson FG, this one a 23-yarder that made it 7-6. On their next series, the Titans moved to the A28 but on 1st-n-10 from there, CB Tramon Williams intercepted a Mariota pass to halt the threat. The Cards had a chance to take the lead on their ensuing drive but Dawson missed from 40 yards away to keep it 7-6 early in the 4th. After forcing a 3-n-out from the Titans, AZ took over at its own 15. A 33-yard gain on a reverse by rookie WR Chad Williams took the ball near midfield and Dawson's 32-yard FG gave Arizona its first lead of the day with 5:59 to play. On the very next play from scrimmage LB Josh Byrnes intercepted Mariota, giving the ball back to the offense at the TEN7. Dawson's 35-yard FG put AZ up 12-7 with 3:45 left in the game. That lead would be more than enough as the defense would not allow a first down the rest of the way.

REDSKINS 20, CARDINALS 15
 DECEMBER 17, 2017
 FEDEX FIELD - (71,026)

In a week 15 visit to the nation's capital, the Cardinals were eliminated from playoff contention after a 5-point defeat. Arizona's offense moved the ball well for much of the afternoon and penetrated the Washington 20-yard line on 6 of its first 12 drives. However, for the 2nd straight game, the Cards were unable to reach the end zone. Kicker Phil Dawson was a perfect 5-5 on FGs but those 15 points were not enough to secure victory. Defensively, AZ surrendered just 218 total yards and only 31 rushing while holding the Redskins to 1-9 on 3rd down. Both teams moved to 6-9 with the outcome. The season-long injury woes continued for AZ who earlier in the week placed its 13th player on IR and saw 7 players exit the game with injuries. The Cards started its 7th different 0-line combination and were down to 3rd string starters at several positions.

On the 3rd snap of the game, the Cards faced a 3rd-n-7 at their own 28 when DL Anthony Lanier came up the middle to not only sack Blaine Gabbert but also force a fumble that LB Preston Smith recovered and returned to the A26. Two plays later QB Kirk Cousins hit WR Jamison Crowder in the end zone with a 5-yard TD pass. The AZ offense bounced right back on its next drive and marched to the Washington 12 in 14 plays. However, sacks on consecutive plays pushed them back and Phil Dawson's 40-yard FG made it 7-3. Early in the 2nd quarter, the Redskins went up 14-3 when RB Kapri Bibbs caught a short screen pass and took it 36 yards down the right sideline for a score. The Cards responded by again advancing deep into Washington territory on the ensuing drive but had to settle for another Dawson FG, this one a 35-yarder that made it 14-6. Arizona's next series reached the Washington 9 but on 1st-n-goal from there, Gabbert's pass to TE Ricky Seals-Jones was knocked in the air and INT'd by Preston Smith. However, the Redskins returned the favor on the next play from scrimmage when S Antoine Bethea forced a fumble after a catch by TE Vernon Davis and CB Tramon Williams returned it to the Washington 33. The Cards would get to the 1 and have 2 shots at the end zone from there but were unsuccessful and Dawson's 19-yard FG as the half expired made it 14-9. The Cards trailed by 5 at intermission despite holding sizable advantages in total yards (202 to 77), offensive plays (47 to 15) and time of possession (23:26 to 6:34).

The Cards opened the 2nd half with a pooch kickoff from Dawson that Budda Baker recovered at Washington's 25 but they could not convert with a TD. Dawson's 34-yarder did cut it to a 2-point game early in the 3rd. Later in the quarter, Washington moved 88 yards in 11 plays but could get no further than the A25 and came away with a 24-yard Dustin Hopkins FG. The score remained 17-12 into the 4th when the Cards again threatened, this time advancing to the Redskins 19. Dawson's 5th FG of the day made it 17-15 with 11:13 to play but Hopkins pushed it back up to a 5-point lead on a 32-yard FG with 4:30 left. The AZ offense would get the ball back twice more with a chance to score the go-ahead TD. The 1st drive reached the WASH35 but got no further while the 2nd moved to the WSH21 in the final minute but the Cards turned it over on downs there.

CARDINALS 23, GIANTS 0

UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM • (63,850)

In their final home game of the regular season, the Cardinals recorded their first shutout in 25 years and came away with a 23-0 win over the Giants. While the defense kept the visitors off the scoreboard, WR Larry Fitzgerald again led the way offensively. Days after being selected to his 11th career Pro Bowl, he finished with 9 catches for 119 yards with a TD and also completed his first career pass on a 21-yarder to Aaron Brown in the 2nd quarter. His receiving totals pushed him past 100 catches and 1,000 yards on the season, becoming the first player in NFL history to do so in a season he began at age 34 or older. Throwing to him was QB Drew Stanton, who returned to the starting lineup after backing up for the previous five games. Defensively, AZ limited the Giants to just 43 rushing yards on 20 attempts, held them to 1-14 on 3rd down and benefitted from a pair of interceptions from S Antoine Bethea, his 4th and 5th of the season. The victory was Bruce Arians' 49th as Cardinals head coach, matching Ken Whisenhunt for most in franchise history. It moved AZ to 7-8 on the season while the Giants dropped to 2-13.

Arizona opened the scoring with a FG on its 2nd drive of the game. The offense reached the NY3 thanks largely to 3 Fitzgerald catches for 42 yards and Phil Dawson's 21-yarder made it 3-0. Late in the 1st, Bethea halted a Giants drive with his INT off Eli Manning at the A25. Two possessions later, they advanced to the A215 and had a chance to tie the game but Aldrick Rosas' 33-yard try missed wide left. In the closing minutes of the 1st half, the Cards moved 79 yards in 9 plays and Stanton found Fitzgerald for a 13-yard TD pass across the middle that was Arizona's 1st TD in 12 quarters. The TD was Fitzgerald's 100th reception of the year and made him the oldest player in NFL history with a 100-catch season. It also put AZ up 10-0 with 1:01 to go before halftime but the Giants quickly moved to the A36 with 24 ticks on the clock. However, Bethea again ended the threat when he picked off his 2nd Manning pass of the day.

On the opening drive of the 3rd quarter, Stanton again led a lengthy drive, this one covering 75 yards in 11 plays that ended on his 15-yard TD pass to John Brown. The Cards led 16-0 after the PAT was unsuccessful. The Cardinals were on the move again late in the 3rd and reached the NY25 but Stanton's pass into the end zone was intercepted by Giants CB Ross Cockrell. But three plays later on 3rd-n-2 from the NY28, Deone Bucannon sacked Manning forcing a fumble that DL Robert Nkemdiche recovered and returned 21 yards for a touchdown. That score put AZ up 23-0 with 14:50 remaining and they were able to hold off the Giants the rest of the way.

CARDINALS 26, SEAHAWKS 24

DECEMBER 31, 2017

CENTURYLINK FIELD • (69,078)

The Cardinals closed the 2017 campaign on New Year's Eve in Seattle with a chance to even their record at 8-8 and also play the role of spoiler. The Seahawks needed a win and Falcons loss to clinch a Wild Card spot but neither happened. Visiting Arizona earned its 4th victory in 5 years - and 3rd straight - at Century Link Field thanks to a late Phil Dawson FG followed 2 minutes later by a Seattle miss in the closing seconds. It was win #50 as Cards head coach for Bruce Arians, giving him sole possession of the franchise's top spot. It was also the last as he told the team in the post-game locker room that he was retiring. LB Chandler Jones recorded a pair of sacks allowing him to finish the year #1 in the NFL with 17.0 sacks, a total that also established the franchise's single-season record. WR Larry Fitzgerald's 8 catches gave him 109 on the season and tied his own franchise record.

The Cards dominated early and took a 20-7 halftime lead. They began the game on offense and went 73 yards in 10 plays as Drew Stanton was 6-6 passing for 46 yards; 4 of the completions went to Fitzgerald and the last one was a 25-yard TD to Aaron Brown. Arizona's 7-0 lead lasted 12 seconds as Tyler Lockett returned the ensuing kickoff 99 yards for the tying TD. On the next play, Arizona's DJ Foster took the kickoff 55 yards to the Seattle 43 and that set up Dawson's 49-yard FG that made it 10-7. An Elihaa Penny 4-yard TD run and 46-yard Dawson FG added the only points of the 2nd quarter because the Cardinals defense was stifling. Seattle did not run a single 1st half play from AZ territory while gaining just 1 first down and 24 total yards of offense.

That changed in the 2nd half when Seattle's 1st possession went 80 yards and ended with an 18-yard Russell Wilson pass to WR Doug Baldwin. Later in the 3rd quarter, Dawson's 53-yard FG put AZ up 23-14. Early in the 4th, Wilson had Luke Wilson wide open down the left sideline on 3rd & 1 from the AZ 31 but the TE couldn't haul it and Blair Walsh's 49-yard FG pulled the Seahawks to within 6 at 23-17. Their next drive started at their own 39 but on the first snap Wilson ran around the right end for 31. On the next play he again found Baldwin in the end zone, this time with a 29-yarder with 10:24 to play that gave Seattle its 1st lead of the day at 24-23. With 7:11 left, AZ took over at its own 14 and trailing by 1. A roughing the passer call on 3rd down initially extended the drive and then on 3rd-n-2 from midfield, Stanton looped a pass to Foster out of the backfield that picked up 27. That led to a 42-yarder from Dawson that put AZ back in the lead at 26-24 with 2:21 remaining. The Seahawks were able to move to the A30 with :32 left but Walsh's game-winning FG try sailed wide right.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

NFC WILD CARD GAME
CARDINALS 30, COWBOYS 7
JANUARY 2, 1999 TEXAS STADIUM - (62,969)

Arizona's finest defensive performance of the season rewarded the Cardinals with their first postseason victory in 51 years (28-21 vs. Philadelphia in 1947 NFL Championship game) in their first postseason appearance in 23 years (1975) that came in a non-strike season. The Cardinals defeat the Dallas Cowboys 20-7 at Dallas Stadium, ended not only their playoff drought but their nine-game losing streak on the Cowboys home turf. It was just the second victory over Dallas in the last 17 meetings between the two teams. It was the first home-field loss for the Cowboys since 1983.

The Cardinals defense produced three interceptions, 15 passes defended (six by rookie cornerback Corey Chavous), four sacks, four tackles for a loss, and allowed QB Troy Aikman to complete just 22-of-49 passes for 191 yards. Arizona's defense held the Cowboys offense to just 260 total yards on the day. Outside linebacker Jamir Miller led the defense with 15 total tackles and two sacks while defensive end Andre Wadsworth also collected a pair of sacks. Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams grabbed two INTs and safety Tommy Bennett recorded one.

It was the defense that turned the tide of the game early. After Arizona jumped up to a 7-0 lead, the Cowboys were poised to tie the game, facing a fourth-and-one situation at Arizona's seven-yard line midway through the second quarter. Cardinals LB Mark Maddox dropped Dallas RB Emmitt Smith for a one-yard loss on the play and Arizona added a 37-yard Chris Jacke FG later in the quarter to give the Cards a 10-0 lead heading into halftime.

RB Adrian Murrell raced 74 yards to the Cowboys three-yard line on the second play of the third quarter, followed by a 3-yard TD pass from Jake Plummer to Larry Centers that gave the Cardinals a 17-0 lead that was never threatened. Another Jacke field goal from 46 yards out capped the scoring for the Cardinals in the fourth quarter. The Arizona defense's shutout bid ended with 3:33 remaining on a six-yard TD pass from Aikman to WR Billy Davis.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF
VIKINGS 41, CARDINALS 21
JANUARY 10, 1999 METRODOME - (63,760)

Arizona's playoff run ended in Minnesota with a 41-21 loss to the high-scoring Vikings who turned three Cardinals turnovers into 17 points.

After the Vikings drove 80 yards in 13 plays in their opening possession to take a 7-0 lead on RB LeRoy Hoard's first rushing TD, interceptions of QB Jake Plummer on the first two possessions of the second quarter quickly turned into 10 points for a 17-0 Vikings advantage by the time the Cardinals had run five offensive plays. Minnesota, fielding the highest scoring offense in NFL history up to that point, registered 416 total net yards (228 passing, 188 rushing), cracking the 400-yard plateau for the ninth time and the 40-point mark for the fifth time. The Vikings also converted eight-of-11 third-down plays.

RBs Hoard and Robert Smith caused the most damage, with the former tallying three TD while the latter accounted for 124 rushing yards. Record setting rookie WR Randy Moss posted the other Minnesota TD. Vikings safety Robert Griffith recorded both INTs for the Vikings. Cardinals Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams gave the Cardinals, trailing 7-0, early life with an end zone INT and 47-yard return on the first play of the second quarter to thwart a Minnesota drive that reached Arizona's seven-yard line.

Short yardage back Mario Bates scored all three Arizona TDs on one-yard runs to set the team postseason single-game rushing TDs record. Arizona held Minnesota sackless for the second consecutive postseason game and for the third time in four weeks. The Cards were flagged for a season-high 13 penalties. RB Adrian Murrell contributed 15 rushes for 62 yards and three receptions for 52 yards. The Cardinals finished the season with 10 wins for the first time since 1976 (10-4).

NFC WILD CARD GAME
CARDINALS 30, FALCONS 24
 JANUARY 3, 2009
 UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (62,848)

Playing their first postseason contest in a decade and first home playoff game since 1947, the Cardinals took on 11-5 Atlanta. The high-powered Falcons entered the game with the league's #2 rusher (RB Michael Turner) and the Offensive Rookie of the Year (QB Matt Ryan). But the Cards defense was sensational, bottling up Turner (42 rushing yards and 2.3 yards/carry were both season lows), harassing Ryan (2 INTs, 1 fumble and 3 sacks), and scoring points on its own with a TD and safety. The offense was also strong as Edgerrin James led a revitalized ground game while Kurt Warner and Larry Fitzgerald made big plays in the passing game. It all added up to a 6-point Arizona win before a raucous sellout crowd.

On the Cards first scoring drive, it was 3 James runs that perfectly set-up a flea-flicker. James took the hand-off, then flipped it back to Warner who fired 42 yards downfield to Fitzgerald who leapt between two defenders to come down with the ball in the end zone. Early in the 2nd, Atlanta got on the board with a 30-yard Jason Elam FG but the Cards answered quickly. On 3rd-n-9, Warner tossed a short pass to Anquan Boldin who turned upfield and raced 71 yards down the left sideline for the TD. The Falcons would come back. Turner's 7-yard TD run with 2:55 left in the 1st half capped a 14-play, 77-yard drive. On the 3rd play of the next drive, Warner's pass went off the hands of Jerheme Urban and was INT'd by Chevis Jackson at the A223, setting up a Ryan TD pass to TE Justin Peelle that made it 17-14 Atlanta at the half.

On the 2nd snap after intermission, DT Darnell Dockett made the game's pivotal play when he blew up a hand-off between Ryan and Turner. FS Antrel Rolle picked the ball out of the air and returned it 27 yards for the go-ahead TD. After the next two Atlanta drives went 3-n-out, the Cards took over at their own 24 with 10:31 to go in the 3rd. Through a mix of run & pass, including a 6-yard Warner scramble on 3rd-n-5, the Cards chewed 7:43 off the clock on a long drive that ended with Tim Hightower's 4-yard TD run. Rookie CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie ended the next series with a pick off Ryan. That drive ended with a Ben Graham punt that was downed at the ATL3 and on the next play, Antonio Smith sacked Ryan in the end zone for a safety. The Falcons scored on a 5-yard Roddy White TD pass from Ryan with 4:19 to go to trim it to 6 and AZ then took over at its own 20 with 4:19 to go. Two first downs forced Atlanta to burn all 3 timeouts. Then facing a 3rd-n-16 at the ATL46 with 2:17 left, Warner hit TE Stephen Spach with a 23-yard pass that effectively ended the game.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF
CARDINALS 33, PANTHERS 13
 JANUARY 10, 2009
 BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM - (73,695)

In a Divisional Playoff match-up at Carolina, all the numbers were stacked against the Cards. They were 0-5 on the east coast in '08 and were facing the only NFL team that went 8-0 at home. Even before it was known that Pro Bowl WR Anquan Boldin would miss the game with a hamstring injury, few if any gave the Cards a chance against #2 seed Carolina. But when Saturday evening came and the game was played, it was all Arizona. The Panthers produced TDs on their first drive of the game and their last but in between the Cards scored 33 unanswered points. The defense forced 6 Jake Delhomme turnovers (5 INTs and a fumble) and the Cards got 23 of their 33 points off them. WR Larry Fitzgerald was again spectacular, finishing with a team playoff record 166 yards on 8 catches with a TD while the Cards held his Panther all-pro counterpart Steve Smith without a catch until the final minute of the third.

The Panthers took the opening kickoff to midfield and a 31-yard DeAngelo Williams run took it to the 9 before Jonathan Stewart punched it in. Later in the quarter, Fitzgerald's catch-n-run gained 41 on 3rd-n-2 and that led to a 3-yard Tim Hightower TD catch from Kurt Warner that tied it at 7. On the next play from scrimmage, DE Antonio Smith stripped Delhomme on a sack and recovered the fumble himself at the CAR13. That led to a 4-yard Edgerrin James run and a 14-7 score. The Panthers moved to the A215 on the next drive thanks to a 45-yard pass interference call but CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie picked off Delhomme at the goal line. Neil Rackers then extended the lead to 20-7 with FGs on the next two AZ drives. A Gerald Hayes INT halted Carolina's following drive on the first play. It was followed by Fitzgerald's 29-yard catch and pylon dive that made it 27-7 at intermission.

The only points of the 3rd quarter came when Antrel Rolle gathered in a Delhomme pass tipped by Rodgers-Cromartie and WR Steve Smith and returned the INT to the CAR26. That set up Rackers' 33-yard FG that made it 30-7. Arizona then ended the first two Panther drives of the 4th quarter with INT's by Ralph Brown and Rod Hood, respectively. Rackers fourth FG of the game made it 33-7 with 3:10 to go and only an 8-yard TD catch by Smith in the final minute made it 33-13.

In a match-up no one foresaw, the Cardinals hosted the Eagles in the NFC Championship Game with the chance to advance to Super Bowl XLIII. Before an electric sell-out crowd, the Cards jumped out to a 24-6 halftime lead thanks to three Kurt Warner TD passes to Larry Fitzgerald against an Eagles defense that had not allowed a passing TD in 5 games. Philly then scored 19 unanswered points in the late 3rd and early 4th to take a 25-24 lead. The Cards, however, responded with a drive no one will soon forget. It was a 14-play, 72-yard masterpiece that chewed 7:52 off the clock and ended with Warner's game-winning TD pass to RB Tim Hightower. The TD stamped the Cardinals ticket to the Super Bowl that was made possible by another stellar outing from Fitzgerald. The all-pro WR topped 100 yards for the 5th straight game and tied the NFL record with 3 straight in the postseason with a 9-catch, 152-yard, 3-TD performance.

On the game's opening drive, the Cards moved 80 yards in 9 plays and opened the scoring with a 9-yard Warner-Fitzgerald TD connection. Philly came right back with a 45-yard David Akers FG but he missed a 47-yarder on the following drive. That gave Arizona the ball at its own 38 and on the first play the lead grew to 14-3. Warner handed off to J.J. Arrington who ran right, threw it back to Warner who then tossed it deep to Fitzgerald who hauled it in for a 62-yard TD. After another Akers FG, Warner then capped a 72-yard drive with a 1-yard pass to Fitzgerald that made it 21-6 with 3:06 in the 2nd. AZ successfully executed a surprise pump kick and recovery but the officials inadvertently misrouted the ball dead. After a Philly punt, the Cards got the ball back at their own 16 with 1:31 to go and moved into position for a 49-yard Neil Rackers FG.

The Eagles cut the lead to 24-19 in the 3rd when consecutive drives ended with Donovan McNabb TD passes to TE Brent Celek (6 and 31 yards). With 10:45 to go, McNabb's deep pass deflected off the hands of CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie and into the hands of WR DeSean Jackson for a 62-yard TD that put Philly up 1 when the 2-point try failed. After the score, the Cards took over at their own 28 with 10:39 to go. Six plays into the drive they faced a pivotal 4th-inches decision near midfield. Hightower ran right for 6 yards to pick it up and later put it across the goal-line 8 plays later on a TD catch-n-run on a 3rd-n-goal from the 8. Warner on the drive was 5-5 for 56 yards including the game-winning TD pass. He then tossed a 2-point conversion to Ben Patrick to make it 32-25. Philly's ensuing drive reached the A247 but on 4th-n-10 from there McNabb's pass fell incomplete and the game was over.

SUPER BOWL XLIII

STEELERS 27, CARDINALS 23
 FEBRUARY 1, 2009
 RAMOND JAMES STADIUM - (70,774)

Making their first-ever Super Bowl appearance, the Cardinals battled back from a 20-7 4th quarter deficit against the Steelers and took a 23-20 lead with 2:37 remaining. However, Pittsburgh responded with a game-winning drive and earned their 6th title thanks to a TD with 0:35 on the clock. After catching just one pass thru 3 quarters, WR Larry Fitzgerald finished with 7 grabs for 127 yards and 2 TDs. It allowed him to shatter the NFL postseason records and establish new marks with 30 catches, 456 yards, and 7 receiving TDs.

After Arizona won the opening toss and chose to defer, Pittsburgh marched downfield and Ben Roethlisberger appeared to score a 1-yard TD on a 3rd down scramble. However, when the Cards successfully challenged the spot, the Steelers came away with just a FG. After a holding penalty killed the ensuing AZ drive, the Steelers went 79 yards in 11 plays and took a 10-0 lead on a 1-yard Gary Russell run. On the next series a 45-yard catch-and-run by WR Anquan Boldin took it to the 1 and Warner hit TE Ben Patrick with a TD pass from there. The teams then traded punts but just before the 2:00 warning, Roethlisberger's pass was tipped at the line by DT Bryan Robinson and INT'd at the Steelers 34 by LB Karlos Dansby. With 0:18 left the Cards had advanced to the 1 and used their final timeout. What followed was the game's pivotal play. Warner's quick slant to Boldin was picked at the goal-line by LB James Harrison, who rumpled 100 yards down the right sideline as the half expired. After replay confirmation, the dramatic turn of events had put Pittsburgh up 17-7.

Arizona's opening drive of the 2nd half appeared to end on a Warner fumble but another AZ challenge again reversed the initial call and the drive instead ended on a punt. Pittsburgh then consumed most of the 3rd quarter with a long drive that was aided by several flags from referee Terry McAulay's crew. The 16-play drive ultimately ended in a FG that made it 20-7. With 11:30 to go, the Cards took over at their own 13 and went to the no huddle. The drive consisted entirely of 8 Warner completions for 87 yards and ended on a 1-yard Fitzgerald TD grab. After again trading punts, the Steelers took over at their own 1 and on the 2nd play, a holding call in the end zone resulted in a safety that trimmed the Pittsburgh lead to 20-16. Following the free kick, the Cards took over at their own 36 with 2:53 to go. After an incompletion, Warner hit Fitzgerald at midfield and the WR raced down the middle of the field with the go-ahead TD that covered 64 yards in all. The lead would be short-lived. Pittsburgh took over at its own 22 with 2:30 left and a holding penalty on 1st down backed them up to the 12. Two first downs moved them near midfield and a 40-yard completion to game MVP Antonio Holmes took it to the 6. Two plays later, Holmes came down among 3 defenders and tip-toed the sideline with the winning TD on a play that was upheld by replay. A last-chance Cardinal drive reached the Steelers 44 with 0:15 left but then Warner was made to huddle before passing and the Steelers recovered. The game ended without McAulay looking at the play.

NFC WILD CARD GAME

CARDINALS 51, PACKERS 45 (OT)

JANUARY 10, 2010
UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM – (61,926)

It was the highest-scoring playoff game in NFL history and certainly among the greatest ever. The Cards and Packers combined for 96 points, 13 touchdowns and over 1,000 total yards. While the offenses were explosive, it was the AZ defense that came up with the game-winning score on the first series of OT when CB Michael Adams sacked Aaron Rodgers; LB Carlos Dansby snatched the ball midair and returned it for a TD. It was one of three huge defensive plays by Dansby. Against the NFL's #2 defense, The Cards jumped out to a 17-0 early lead and led 31-17 early in the 3rd quarter. Green Bay then stormed back behind an inspired effort from Rodgers, tying the game at 38 and again at 45. But while the Packers QB was incredibly good, Arizona's Kurt Warner was even better and cemented his place among the league's greatest postseason passers. He threw for 379 yards and amazingly had more TD passes (5) than incompletions (4). Starting in place of Anquan Boldin (ankle), Steve Breaston had 7 catches for 125 yards and a TD while #3 WR Early Doucet was 6-77-20s.

Green Bay entered the game with an NFL-best +24 turnover ratio but the Cards converted two early Packers miscues. On the game's first snap, Dansby deflected a Rodgers pass that Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie INT'd. After Tim Hightower turned it into a TD, Dansby ended the next GB drive with a forced fumble of Donald Driver that Alan Branch recovered. Doucet cashed in on that takeaway with the first of his 2 TD passes that helped the Cards build a 24-10 lead. A Warner-to-Fitzgerald TD on the opening drive of the 2nd half made it 31-10 but the Pack scored quickly with two Rodgers TD passes and a successful on-side kick in between. A 42-yard Beanie Wells run led to another Fitzgerald TD catch but the Pack answered with a Rodgers scoring pass to James Jones that capped 5 straight TD drives to open the 2nd half. After Arizona's only punt of the day, GB tied it at 38 on a 1-yard run by FB John Kuhn early in the 4th. Warner responded with an 80-yard drive and put the Cards back ahead with a TD pass to Breaston. With 1:52 left though the Pack tied it again on Rodgers' 11-yard TD to Spencer Havner. At the end of regulation, Warner marched the Cards into position to win but Neil Rackers was wide left on a 34-yard FG attempt in the closing seconds. GB won the toss and got the ball first in OT. On the first snap, Rodgers had Greg Jennings open down the middle but overthrew him. Shortly thereafter, they had a 3rd-in-6 play at their own 24 when Adams and Dansby combined on the game-winning play.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

SAINTS 45, CARDINALS 14

JANUARY 16, 2010
LOUISIANA SUPERDOME – (70,149)

Six days after out-dueling the Packers in an explosive Wild Card game, the Cardinals saw their season end in New Orleans against the #1 seeded Saints. RB Tim Hightower raced 70 yards for a TD on the game's first play from scrimmage but after that the Cards faced an uphill battle most of the day. The Saints scored TDs on 5 of their first 6 offensive drives, twice capitalizing on AZ turnovers that gave them short fields. They also took advantage of a depleted Arizona defense that began the game without starting MLB Gerald Hayes (ankle) and in the first quarter lost two more starters – CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie (knee) and FS Antrel Rolle (head).

After Hightower's TD run gave the Cards the early lead, the Saints responded with a 10-play, 70-yard drive that ended with Lydell Hamilton's 1-yard run. On the next snap, Kurt Warner hit Jerheme Urban on a 28-yard pass down the middle but Urban fumbled it over to the Saints at the A37. Drew Brees made the Cards pay 4 plays later when he connected with Jeremy Shockey on a 17-yard scoring pass. The next N.O. drive saw the Cards lose Rolle & Rodgers-Cromartie and it ended when Reggie Bush reversed field on a 46-yard TD run that made it 21-7. Arizona then made it a one-score game when Warner led a 9-play, 80-yard drive and Beanie Wells scored from 4 yards out. However, the Saints kept their foot on the accelerator. One play after a 26-yard completion to Marques Colston, Brees connected on a 44-yard flea-flicker to Devery Henderson that made it 28-14. On the 2nd play of the ensuing AZ drive, Warner was INT'd by DE Will Smith at the line of scrimmage and then leveled on the return by a clean block from DE Bobby McCray. When Warner headed to the locker room to have his chest examined, Matt Leinart led the Cards into position for a FG but Neil Rackers missed from 51 yards out as the first half expired.

Warner returned to start the 2nd half but the Cards were never able to cut into the Saints lead. A 43-yard Garrett Hartley FG made it 38-14 and later in the 3rd, Bush's 83-yard punt return TD provided the final dagger.

NFC WILD CARD GAME
PANTHERS 27, CARDINALS 16
JANUARY 3, 2015
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM - (71,849)

The Cardinals finished the regular season 11-5, earning a Wild Card spot and trip to Carolina to take on the Panthers who captured the NFC South title by winning their last 4 games and finishing 7-8-1. Arizona had dealt with tremendous adversity all season, losing more than 20 players for more than 100 combined games due to injury and coming from behind in 9 of its 11 victories. But while they clawed back from a 10-point deficit to lead at halftime, this time they could not hold on. Arizona started its 3rd straight game with #3 QB Ryan Lindley (after injuries to both Carson Palmer & Drew Stanton) but had his hands full in both the run and pass games where they finished with just 27 and 51 net yards, respectively.

The Panthers jumped out to a 10-0 lead after they took advantage of outstanding field position on their first two series that resulted from a pair of AZ three-and-outs and short punts. The first drive started at the Carolina 48 and led to a 47-yard Graham Gano FG. The Panthers started their second drive at their own 43 and 8 plays later Jonathan Stewart scored on a 13-yard spinning run off the right side. Trailing by 10, the Cards were forced to punt on the next series but caught a break when returner Brenton Bersin mishandled it and Justin Bethel recovered at the Carolina 30. A 14-yard Larry Fitzgerald completion on 3rd-and-10 moved it to the 1 and led to Lindley's 1-yard TD pass to TE Darren Fells. It remained 10-7 after Gano missed a 43-yard FG try on the next series. Two drives later, the Panthers advanced to the A237 where they faced a 3rd-and-13. CB Antonio Cromartie picked off Cam Newton and returned the INT 50 yards to the A217 with 5 minutes left in the 1st half. Four plays later, RB Marion Grice scored from a yard out to put Arizona up 14-10 with 2:50 remaining in the 1st half. It was enough time for Carolina to move 59 yards in 9 plays and Gano's 39-yard FG made it a 1-point game at intermission.

On Arizona's first drive of the 2nd half, WR Michael Floyd appeared to have been interfered with on a 3rd down pass down the left sideline but it went unflagged and the Cards went 3-n-out. A short punt gave Carolina possession at the A237 to start their 2nd drive of the 3rd quarter. On the next snap, RB Fozzy Whittaker caught a short screen from Newton and took it 39 yards for a TD. It went from bad to worse on the ensuing kick when TE Ginn fumbled inside the 10 and the Panthers recovered at the A23. The defense appeared to hold Carolina to a FG when Newton's 3rd-and-go pass to TE Greg Olsen fell incomplete but SJ Boris Cheek questionably flagged Tony Jefferson for pass interference. On the next play Newton hit RB Mike Tolbert in the flat for a score; the 2 TDs in a 92 second span made it 27-14 Panthers. With 12 minutes to play LB Sam Acho hit Newton as he was passing and Rashad Johnson returned the empty-handed fumble to the A28. On the next play Lindley's pass intended for Fitzgerald was INT'd by LB Luke Kuechley at the 5. The game's only other points came in the closing seconds when punter Brad Nortman took an intentional safety by running out of the end zone.

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF
CARDINALS 26, PACKERS 20 (OT)
JANUARY 16, 2016
UNIV. OF PHOENIX STADIUM - (65,089)

Meeting in the Divisional Playoff round, the Cards and Pack turned in one for the ages. The wild game featured 23 total points in the first 56:15 and then 23 more in the final 4:49. It saw the Cards come back from a 4th quarter deficit to lead late before the Packers completed a 41-yard Hail Mary as time expired to force overtime. But in the end, as it so often does, the game was decided by all-pro WR Larry Fitzgerald who cemented his place among the game's greatest postseason players. He caught 8 passes for a club playoff record 176 yards and a TD. His biggest plays came when AZ needed it most, including a 75-yard catch-n-run on the 1st play of OT after Aaron Rodgers had delivered a gut punch at the end of regulation.

The Cardinals struck first when Michael Floyd's toe-tapping catch of a Carson Palmer pass in the back of the end zone gave them a 7-0 lead. A 100-yard INT return TD by CB Patrick Peterson would have given the Cards a 14-0 lead but it was negated by penalty. Green Bay would then dominate possession thanks to backward-back 17-play drives that consumed more than 15 minutes in total. However, each ended in FGs rather than TDs and AZ led 7-6 at intermission.

The teams then opened the 3rd quarter by trading interceptions. First S Rashad Johnson picked off Rodgers but 3 plays later Ha Ha Clinton-Dix returned the favor with one off Palmer. RB Eddie Lacy then reeled off consecutive runs of 14 & 61 yards that set-up an 8-yard TD pass to WR Jeff Janis. With the Pack leading 13-7, AZ marched to the GB10 but had to settle for a 28-yard Chandler Catanzaro FG that cut it to 3. The next Cards drive also reached the 10 but Palmer's pass to John Brown in the end zone was picked by CB Damarious Randall. After another Pack play, the Cards took over at their own 20 down 3 to 10:53 to go. In 13 plays they reached the GB9 when Palmer's pass into the end zone was deflected by Randall but ricocheted to Floyd for a TD. After the Packers turned it over on downs on 4 passes, AZ took over at the GB24 with 2:38 to go. Catanzaro's subsequent 36-yard FG made it 20-13 with 1:55 to play. Needing a TD to tie it, GB faced a 4th-and-20 from its own 4 when Rodgers completed a 60-yard deep ball to Janis that took it to the AZ36 with :21 left. Three plays later they faced a 2nd-and-15 from the AZ41 and time for one hero into the end zone. GB's prayers were answered when Janis came down with Rodgers' pass in the end zone with no time on the clock and the stadium stunned. The crazy ending got crazier when referee Clete Blakeman had to re-do the OT coin toss because it didn't flip on his first try. AZ ultimately won it and started the extra period at its own 20. On the first snap, Palmer spun away from pressure before firing across the field to a wide open Fitzgerald. The veteran WR proceeded to weave his way all the way to the GB 5 on a 75-yard gain. Two plays later, a shovel pass fitz ended it.

NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
PANTHERS 49, CARDINALS 15
JANUARY 24, 2016
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM - (74,294)

The NFC Championship Game featured the conference's top 2 seeds and league's top 2 offenses as the Cards (13-3) & Panthers (15-1) met in Charlotte with the dream of playing in Super Bowl 50. The dream quickly turned into a nightmare for Arizona. The Panthers scored on their first 3 offensive drives of each half and led 17-0 after one quarter, 24-7 at the half and ultimately won 49-15. They forced 7 Cardinal turnovers (4 INTs/3 fumbles) including 3 very costly ones late in the 2nd quarter when the Cards had a chance to re-claim momentum. It marked the 2nd straight year the Cards' season ended in Carolina and the loss denied Arizona the chance to advance to its 2nd Super Bowl in franchise history.

After a 45-yard Graham Gano FG put Carolina up 3-0, the next Panther drive started at the AZ49 thanks to a 32-yard Ted Ginn punt return. Five plays later, Ginn scored from 22 yards out on a reverse to make it 10-0. Arizona's 3rd straight drive ended in a punt but the defense had a chance to send the Panthers 3-n-out with a stop on 3rd-n-8 from the CAR14. However, Newton hit Corey Brown with a 26-yard pass to the 40 and the WR broke one tackle to take it the rest of the way for an 86-yard score. Down 17-0 the Cards advanced to the CAR37. On 3rd-n-10, Carson Palmer was sacked by DT Kawann Short forcing a fumble that the Panthers recovered. After the AZ defense forced a 3-n-out, the Cards took over at their own 21 with 11:47 to play in the half. They would move 79 yards in 10 plays and David Johnson's 1-yard TD run made it 17-7. AZ then held Carolina without a 1st down and the ensuing punt was short. But as Patrick Peterson raced to catch the errant kick, he couldn't hold onto it and the Panthers recovered at the AZ46. Consecutive runs of 17 and 23 by RB Jonathan Stewart took it to the one and on 3rd-n-goal from there Newton was able to break the plane for a TD. On the next snap, Palmer's arm was hit by DE Charles Johnson forcing a fumble the Panthers recovered at the AZ31. Two plays later, though, Peterson INT'd Newton and returned it 72 yards to the 22 with :56 left. But on the very next play, Palmer's pass into the end zone was picked off by S Kurt Coleman allowing the Panthers to take a 24-7 lead into halftime.

Things got no better in the 2nd half for the Cards as another Gano FG and an 11-yard Newton run upped the lead to 34-7. Early in the 4th, Palmer's 21-yard TD pass to TE Darren Fells and a successful 2-point conversion made it 34-15 with 14:16 remaining. However, the next 3 AZ drives would end in INTs, one of which was returned 22 yards for a TD by LB Luke Kuechly that provided the game's final points.

HISTORY

FRANCHISE HISTORY

The Cardinals were founded in 1898 and in 1920 became a charter member of the National Football League, then known as the American Professional Football Association. The club holds the distinction of being the United States' oldest professional football franchise still in existence.

THE EARLY DAYS

The team boasts a colorful history. Fans have known the club as the Arizona Cardinals, Phoenix Cardinals, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cardinals, Racine Cardinals, the Normals, and the Morgan Athletic Club.

The franchise began as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's South Side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien bought used jerseys from the nearby University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" The club's permanent nickname had been born.

Early owner Chris O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time following World War I.

The jersey color and the location of the field (61st and Racine) led to a new and obvious name, the Racine Cardinals.

In Chicago at the time, football competition was exclusively amateur, but opposition became increasingly hard to find, so in 1906, the team disbanded.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marshall Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations again in 1918. Following Armistice Day that officially ended World War I in November of 1918, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football landscape in America.

The Cardinals and Chicago Bears are the only two of the 11 charter members of the NFL still in existence. The Bears were originally based in Decatur, IL and known as the Decatur Staleys (after their sponsor, the Staley Starch Company). The team moved to Chicago in 1921 and was known as the Chicago Staleys for a year before becoming the Chicago Bears in 1922.

The colorful history of the Cardinals, a charter member of the National Football League and the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation, began humbly in 1898 as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football as the Morgan Athletic Club in Chicago's South Side.

POST WORLD WAR I

Shortly after the Cardinals joined the American Professional Football League in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee, O'Brien lured great halfback John "Paddy" Driscoll to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football. He would coach the team from 1921–22.

One of Driscoll's young running backs was Ralph Horween, a former star at Harvard, who played under the assumed name of B. McMahon. A Cardinal from 1921–22, Horween scored two rushing touchdowns during his three-year career in the days of leather helmets without face masks, numberless sweater jerseys, and $40 paychecks.

In 1922, a team from Racine, WI joined the NFL, prompting the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The same year, the Cardinals also moved into their new home in Comiskey Park, which they would share with baseball's White Sox for 37 years.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925 by virtue of the league's best record (the NFL did not begin postseason play until 1933).

A Chicago physician, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed legendary running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored an NFL-record 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in an historic 40–6 victory over the cross-town Chicago Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16–14–3 combined record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings, and in 1932, the franchise began a period of family ownership that continues to this day.

The team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field and the Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals lost their top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Billy Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—to military service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh, failing to win an outing in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946.

THE 1947 CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

The 1947 Cardinals captured the Western Division title and took the NFL championship in a season that was bittersweet for the organization. Owner Charles Bidwill had been the club's leader since taking over as owner in 1933 and helped shepherd the NFL through "The Great Depression." However, his death in April of '47, deprived him of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years.

Still, Bidwill earned credit for fitting the final crucial piece into place to complete the Cardinals' famed "Million-Dollar Backfield." It was his unprecedented signing of University of Georgia All-America running back Charley Trippi for a then-unheard of $100,000 that finally put the Cardinals over the top.

Several key Cardinals were already in place for the championship run. In 1945, the organization drafted Paul Christman, a talented passer from Missouri, before adding Wisconsin fullback Pat Harder, Elmer Angsman of Notre Dame, and end/defensive back Mal Kutner from Texas in '46.

Another great end, Bill Dewell, had returned from military service for the '45 season. The staple of Jimmy Conzelman's ensemble was a relic from the late '30s, versatile Marshall "Biggie" Goldberg, an intuitive defensive back who was the first real free safety in pro football. Also a running back, Goldberg had enjoyed many productive days offensively, too, but they were mostly behind him when Conzelman began his second reign as the Cards' head man in '46.

Chicago started quickly in 1947 by winning its first three outings, including a 31-7 trouncing of the hated crosstown rival Bears. In week four, the Cardinals headed to Los Angeles and incurred their first loss of the season. Afterward, they tragically lost rookie punter Jeff Burkett who missed the game and the flight back to Chicago because of an emergency appendectomy. After several days recuperating, the United Airlines DC-6 taking him home crashed in Bryce Canyon, UT, killing the young star, who was the NFL's leading punter at the time.

Under that pall, the Cardinals climbed to 7-3 but were in the throes of a two-game losing streak heading to Philadelphia on December 7 for a critical game against the Eagles. Trailing 7-3 at the half, Chicago exploded for six second-half touchdowns, including two by Trippi, and held the powerful Steve Van Buren to just 44 yards rushing to grab a crucial 45-21 road win.

The victory deadlocked the Cards with the Bears and set-up a showdown in the regular season finale the following Sunday at hostile Wrigley Field.

The biggest play of the game came on the first snap. Conzelman designed a pass play that would isolate Bears' linebacker Mike Holovak one-on-one with speedster Boris "Babe"

Dimancheff. Because his wife was expecting, Dimancheff missed the entire week of practice. Despite never running it in advance, the play worked to perfection as Dimancheff raced down the center of the field and caught Christman's perfect pass in stride for a touchdown. The Cardinals also intercepted four passes off legendary Bears quarterback Sid Luckman, converting two into touchdowns en route to a 30-21 win. The Western Division crown now in hand, the Cardinals prepared to play host to the league championship game a fortnight later (12/28/47) against Eastern Division powerhouse Philadelphia.

At a bitterly cold Comiskey Park, pre-kickoff controversy raged when it was discovered the Eagles attempted to get better footing on the concrete-like playing surface by sharpening and filing their cleats. A succession of penalties opened the game, infuriating Philadelphia Head Coach Earle "Greasy" Neale. Meanwhile, the Cardinals quietly had slipped into tennis shoes for the frigid affair.

The game was defined by Chicago's quick-openers, producing three long scoring runs from scrimmage—two 70-yarders by Angsman and a 44-yarder by Trippi. In the third quarter, Trippi returned a punt 75 yards for a touchdown. Angsman's thrilling fourth-quarter duplication of his second-period 70-yard touchdown strike enabled him to break the NFL championship game record for rushing yards with 159. But Philadelphia fought evenly throughout with quarterback Tommy Thompson setting two playoff records on 27-of-44 passing for 297 yards. The Cardinals' 28-21 victory, however, wasn't secured until Goldberg's late-game interception.

The 1947 Cardinals won the NFL Championship with a 10-3 overall record. They defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 28-21 at Chicago's Comiskey Park in the NFL's 15th title contest.

Marshall Goldberg sealed the 1947 championship game victory with a fourth quarter interception.

ON TO ST. LOUIS

Following her husband's passing in April of 1947, Violet Bidwill assumed control of the franchise for the next 15 years, a span that included a second consecutive Western Division championship, an appearance in the 1948 NFL championship game, a 7-0 loss at Philadelphia, and the transfer of the team from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death in January of 1962, team control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill. In 1972, the latter and his family gained sole ownership with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1976, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first division title to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC Eastern Division flag under Head Coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10-4 regular season record. The Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30-14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948. Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis a division crown, but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35-23, ended the Cards' postseason dream in their first outing.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982 when Head Coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41-16. In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs—and the NFC Eastern Division title—with a 9-7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5-11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of long-time Dallas Cowboy assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

ARIZONA

After 28 years in St. Louis, the Cardinals relocated to Arizona in the spring of 1988 and made Sun Devil Stadium on the campus of Arizona State University their new home.

Their first season in the Valley of the Sun began optimistically when the team raced to a 7-4 record and a share of the NFC Eastern Division lead. But untimely injuries struck, and a five-game losing streak ensued to finish the year, dashing hopes of the club's first postseason berth since 1982.

The Cardinals' new home provided club single-game (67,139 vs. Dallas in the Arizona inaugural game) and single-season (472,937) attendance records (since broken) in the team's first autumn in Arizona. All the Cardinals' franchise attendance records have been established since moving to the desert. The record-setting inaugural season attendance total was eclipsed in 1994 when 497,330 fans, or 62,166 per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles. All of those attendance marks, however, have been eclipsed since the team moved into University of Phoenix Stadium.

On March 17, 1994, Bidwill announced his intention to change the name of the team to the Arizona Cardinals, and it was adopted unanimously by vote of NFL owners the following week.

The 1995 season marked another milestone when the Cardinals served as host team for Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996.

The 1998 Arizona squad ended the franchise's 15-year playoff drought. Under head coach Vince Tobin and led by former ASU quarterback Jake Plummer, the '98 Cardinals earned a Wild Card berth by winning their last three games in dramatic fashion and each by a field goal or less – a 20-17 overtime win at Philadelphia, a 19-17 home win vs. New Orleans, and a playoff-clinching 16-13 home win over San Diego. The final game ended when Chris Jacke nailed a 52-yard field goal as time expired to win the game before a sold-out crowd at Sun Devil Stadium. The next week saw the team notch its first postseason victory since 1947 with a 20-7 win over the Cowboys at Texas Stadium. The thrilling ride ended with a 41-21 loss at Minnesota in the divisional playoffs the next week.

The 2000 season proved pivotal to the Cardinals' franchise. On Election Day, November 7, 2000, voters in Maricopa County passed Proposition 302, the Tourism and Sports Initiative, to help fund a new stadium for the Cardinals, Fiesta Bowl, and future Super Bowls, in addition to providing revenue for Cactus League spring training baseball, tourism, and youth recreation. The 454,785 “yes” votes spelled a plurality of 33,123 votes (51.89 percent).

The attention of the sports world and beyond turned to Arizona safety Pat Tillman in 2002 when he quietly and nobly walked away from a lucrative career in pro football to enlist in the Army. Moved to action by the events of 9/11, Tillman joined the elite Army Rangers and, in April of 2004, was killed while serving in Afghanistan. His jersey number 40 became the fifth in team history to be retired.

In 2005, the Cardinals made NFL history by participating in the NFL’s first-ever regular season game played outside the United States. On October 2, the Cards defeated the 49ers 31-14 before a record crowd of 103,467 in Mexico City’s Estadio Azteca, the largest crowd ever to see an NFL regular season game.

The 2006 season marked the team’s first at University of Phoenix Stadium, recognized by BusinessWeek as one of the 10 most impressive sports facilities in the world. Since then, the world-class venue has attracted record crowds for the franchise and has allowed the team to sell-out every game played in the venue. On February 3, 2008, the stadium hosted Super Bowl XLII between the New York Giants and the New England Patriots.

The 2008 Cardinals turned in perhaps the most memorable season in franchise history, one that ended with the team’s first-ever Super Bowl appearance. Arizona qualified for the postseason by clinching its first division title since 1975 and first-ever NFC West crown with a perfect 6-0 divisional record. As the division champs, the Cardinals hosted their first playoff game since 1947 and defeated Atlanta 30-24 in the Wild Card round. Arizona then traveled to Carolina where they faced the heavily favored Panthers but came away with a stunning 33-13 victory. The Cards returned home the following week to host the Philadelphia Eagles in the NFC Championship game and won their first-ever NFC title by defeating the Eagles 32-25. The victory also secured a date with Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XLIII from Tampa. Before what was then the largest audience in US television history, the Cardinals fell to the Steelers, 27-23. Down 20-7 entering the fourth quarter, Arizona made the biggest comeback in Super Bowl history, with a 64-yard touchdown pass from Kurt Warner to Larry Fitzgerald, giving the Cards a 23-20 lead with under 3:00 remaining. Pittsburgh responded with a 78-yard drive that ended with Santonio Holmes’ tip-toe touchdown reception and the game’s deciding score in one of the most exciting Super Bowls ever played.

An exciting chapter in franchise history began in January of 2013 when team President Michael Bidwill hired GM Steve Keim and Head Coach Bruce Arians nine days apart. Under the leadership of Bidwill, Keim and Arians, Arizona posted a 50-32-1 record, including postseason, which represents the most wins during any five-year span in franchise history. On January 1, 2018, Arians retired as the winningest head coach in club history. The 2015 season was a banner year for the organization as the team won the NFC West, set a franchise record for wins in the regular season (13) and earned the first postseason bye in team history.

The Cardinals success at home since opening University of Phoenix Stadium in 2006 has established the venue as one of the most hostile for opposing teams in the NFL. Arizona has a 61-34-1 regular season record in their current home stadium, and visiting teams have accumulated a league-high 158 false start penalties during those games.

The Cardinals made their first-ever Super Bowl appearance when they met the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLIII.

Cards sign decade-long CFL passing leader Sam Etcheverry and trade quarterback John Roach for running back Prentice Gautt and wide receiver Taz Anderson ... Gautt and Anderson enjoy productive Cardinal careers ... Etcheverry, who passed for 30,381 yards and 183 touchdowns in nine seasons for the Montreal Alouettes, hurts his arm in training camp ... coupled with running back John David Crow's broken ankle, Cards finish 7-7 ... Head Coach Frank "Pop" Ivy resigns with two games remaining ... Cards win both remaining contests as assistants Chuck Druis, Ray Prochaska, and Ray Wilsey assume coaching reins ... during the season, Druis and his prize pupil, second-year safety Larry Wilson, perfected the safety blitz.

NOTES

Injuries decimate the team as 11 players undergo surgery ... Cards limp to 4-9-1 mark as offense manages just 193 points, fewest since 1954 (183) ... defense is particularly hobbled by injuries, allowing team-record 389 points that will stand for 15 seasons ... safety Larry Wilson sets team mark with 88-yard fumble return for a touchdown at Green Bay Dec. 21 that stands until 2000 ... Cards and Saints combine for NFL-record 12 touchdown passes in 51-42 New Orleans victory in Busch Stadium Nov. 2 ... the combined 93 points is just 10 shy of the all-time NFL combined single-game scoring mark as quarterbacks Charley Johnson (Cardinals) and Billy Kilmer (Saints) each toss six touchdown passes to set Cards individual and opponent marks.

NOTES

Despite 10-4 record (6-1 at home), Cards lose tie-breaker with Washington and fail to qualify for playoffs ... Cards defeat N.Y. Giants to stay alive in playoff race, needing the division-leading Cowboys to defeat Washington at Dallas later that day ... but the Redskins win 27-14 and Cards became first team in seven-year history of the NFL to go 10-4 and not gain a post-season berth ... eight Card victories by seven points or less earn "Cardiac Cards" moniker ... Cardinals and Chargers play preseason game in Tokyo, Japan, the first NFL game played outside North America ... Cards set NFL record with eight lost fumbles at Washington Oct. 25.

NOTES

The 1981 draft class includes Alabama LB E.J. Junior (first round), Portland State QB Neil Lomax (second round), and Citadel RB Stump Mitchell (ninth round), a trio that would combine for 26 seasons with the Cards ... all three earn consensus NFL all-rookie team notice ... Lomax named starter for final six games as Cards win four consecutive times to finish 7-9 ... return specialist Mitchell breaks or ties eight club marks and equals two NFL records ... Roy Green doubles as defensive back and wide receiver as the league's first authentic two-way player in more than two decades.

*Top NFC playoff seed

As the result of a 57-day players' strike, the 1982 NFL regular-season schedule was reduced from 16 weeks to nine. At the conclusion of the regular season, the NFL conducted a 16-team postseason Super Bowl Tournament. Eight teams from each conference were seeded 1-8 based upon their records during the season.

NOTES

The Cards, with the NFC Eastern Division title on line to the winner, travel to R.F.K. Stadium and battle back from a 23-7 half-time deficit to take a 27-26 lead midway through fourth quarter, but a 50-yard field-goal try sails wide as time expires and Redskins escape with a 29-27 win and the division crown ... in the torrid comeback at Washington, QB Neil Lomax connects on 25 of 28 passes for 314 yards in the second half ... Cards finish 9-7 with seven losses by an average of just over six points ... Lomax sets club single-season marks with 345 pass completions in 560 attempts for 4,614 yards (fifth highest in NFL history), 28 touchdowns, and 92.5 quarterback rating ... WR Roy Greer's 1,555 receiving yards is most by NFL player in 19 seasons as he averages 45.3 yards per touchdown reception.

NOTES

Though a 3-1 start looks promising, the Cards win only two of their final 12 contests to finish 5-11, spelling the end of Jim Hanifan's six-year (1980-85) tenure as head coach ... with former all-pro RB Ottis Anderson injured, RB Stump Mitchell averages 96.9 yards rushing in final nine games en route to 1,006 yards and a 5.5-yard average per carry despite starting just eight contests ... QB Neil Lomax is sacked NFC-high 61 times ... Yugoslavian K Novo Bojovic, signed by the Cards during mid-season, kicks a 40-yard field goal to give the Cards a 3-0 first-quarter lead Nov. 24 vs. N.Y. Giants, chases down the football, spikes it in the end zone, then watches with teammates as Giants score 34 unanswered points in 34-3 defeat at the Meadowlands.

NOTES

Encouragement from 4-0 preseason record and 2-0 start to regular season quickly dissipates as Cards drop 12 of next 14 games to finish 4-12, the most losses in franchise history ... QB Timm Rosenbach suffers ruptured anterior cruciate ligament in right knee in non-contact drill during evening practice Aug. 21 and misses season after reconstructive surgery ... Cards gamble in first round of NFL Draft by selecting DT Eric Swann despite no college playing experience ... little-known Southern University walk-on CB Aeneas Williams, picked in third round, starts 15 of 16 games and his six interceptions share NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve the feat since the Cowboys' Everson Walls (11) in 1991 ... LB Eric Hill returns a fumble 85 yards for a touchdown in season-opener at L.A. Rams Sept. 1, one of a team-record five Card fumble recoveries.

NOTES

Despite considerable improvement on both offense and defense, Cards lose six games by six points or less to post a second consecutive 4-12 season ... defense allows fewest rushing yards (1,635) in 24 seasons (1,558, 1968) and fewest points (332) since 1978 (296) ... CB Robert Massey becomes 17th player in NFL history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in one game (31 and 41 yards in fourth quarter Oct. 4 vs. Washington) ... Pro Bowl P Rich Camarillo narrowly misses becoming the first player in NFL history to achieve a 40-yard net punting average with a 39.6-yard net mark.

NOTES

A 5-3 record and three consecutive victories to finish season 7-9 are not enough to save Head Coach Joe Bugel's job ... rushing offense improves from 26th (1992) to sixth overall and scoring jumps from 24th to fourth ... defensively, six opponents held to 10 points or less, a Cardinal first since 1936 ... first-round draft pick RB Garrison Hearst suffers season-ending knee injury in sixth game ... Pittsburgh (Kan.) State rookie RB Ronald Moore rushes for 1,018 yards and leads all NFL rookies with nine touchdowns ... Moore becomes only fifth rookie in NFL history to tally four rushing touchdowns in one game (vs. L.A. Rams, Dec. 5) ... franchise-record crowd of 73,025 sees Cards lose 17-10 to Dallas on Sept. 19 ... Cards snap 14-game losing streak at R.F.K. Stadium with a 17-10 victory Sept. 12, their first success at Washington since 1978.

NOTES

Cards lose seven of final eight games to drop to 4-12, costing Head Coach Buddy Ryan his job ... defense ranks last against the run and in scoring defense despite league highs of 42 takeaways and 23 fumble recoveries ... Arizona's offense leads NFL with 43 turnovers (24 interceptions, 19 lost fumbles) ... low light of season at expansion Carolina Nov. 19 as Cards gain just 96 total yards, their lowest output in 40 years ... FB Larry Centers earns first Pro Bowl honor as first running back in league history to eclipse 100-pass reception plateau with 101 catches, a franchise record ... Garrison Hearst owns dubious distinction of becoming first running back in NFL history to score only one rushing touchdown during a 1,000-yard (1,070) season.

NOTES

Improvement from 4-12 to 7-9 record, underscored by an offense that jumps from 24th to 12th and a defense from 26th to 21st, highlight Vince Tobin's first season as head coach ... RB LeShon Johnson bursts for runs of 56 and 70 yards Sept. 22 at New Orleans—believed to be the longest touchdown runs on consecutive carries in NFL history—en route to franchise single-game rushing mark of 214 yards ... NOTES

Team's first season under head coach Dennis Green was one of transition but also promise and opportunity...team entered week 16 of the regular season with a playoff berth and division title in reach before a three-point road loss at Seattle ended postseason hopes...Cardinals won two games by 24 points (something that they'd not done in over a decade) and also finished 5-3 at home for the first time since last playoff season of 1998...strategic but aggressive approach to free agency yielded several new starters, most notably DE Bertrand Berry who would prove to become the best free agent pick-up in team history by leading the NFC in sacks (14.5) and earning his first career Pro Bowl berth...an outstanding '04 draft class produced four full-time starters in WR Larry Fitzgerald, LB Karlus Dansby, DT Darnell Dockett and C Alex Stepanovich...defense improved its overall rank from 26th at the end of '03 to 12th and didn't allow a touchdown in three games while allowing just one TD in three others...the offense was bitten early by injuries as RB Marcel Shipp suffered a broken leg in training camp that ended his season and all-pro WR Anquan Boldin suffered a training camp knee injury that caused him to miss the regular season's first six games...in his second season in Arizona, Emmitt Smith led the team with 937 rushing yards and 9 rushing TDs...the offense struggled to find consistency and that led to numerous lineup changes throughout the year including three different starting QBs...S Pat Tillman, who left the Cardinals to join U.S. Army and enter Army Ranger training prior to 2002 season, is killed April 22 in Afghanistan.

* - Sunday night games in Weeks 5-15 subject to change;
Week 17 game TBD

SUNDAY FLEXIBLE SCHEDULING FOR THE 2018 REGULAR SEASON

"Flexible scheduling" will be used in Weeks 11-17. Additionally, in Weeks 5-10, flexible scheduling may be used in no more than two weeks. In Weeks 5-16, the schedule lists the games tentatively set for Sunday Night Football on NBC. Only Sunday afternoon games are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, in which case the tentatively scheduled Sunday night game would be moved to an afternoon start time. A flexible scheduling move would be announced at least 12 days before the game. Flexible scheduling will not be applied to games airing on Thursday or Monday nights. For Week 17, the Sunday night game will be announced no later than six days prior to December 30. The schedule does not list a

Sunday night game in Week 17, but an afternoon game with playoff implications will be moved to that time slot. Flexible scheduling ensures quality matchups in all Sunday time slots in those weeks and gives "surprise" teams a chance to play their way into primetime.

For the Cardinals, this means home games vs. the 49ers, Raiders, Lions and Rams are subject to flexible scheduling.

The Arizona Cardinals will post all information regarding game times at www.azcardinals.com. We also recommend you check the team's official Instagram, Twitter and Facebook accounts, and other media outlets for additional information regarding scheduled game times.

"CARDINALS FLIGHT PLAN" ECLIPSES 13.8 MILLION VIEWS

In February, the Arizona Cardinals launched Cardinals Flight Plan, a first-of-its-kind documentary series available on Facebook Watch that takes fans behind the scenes for an inside look at the team's offseason.

Viewers logged on to watch the 10-episode series, which began February 14 and produced a new episode every other week until the finale on June 20. Episode 4 released on March 28 was the most viewed as of mid-July with 7.6 million video views.

Not surprisingly, nearly 32 percent of the show's audience is in Arizona. However, the international appeal of Flight Plan is reflected in the fact that England was a top-five region in terms of minutes watched for eight of the 10 episodes.

"We are always looking for new and innovative ways to connect with fans and provide them with unique content where they are consuming it," said Cardinals President Michael Bidwill. "The job that (VP, Broadcasting/Digital Content) Tim DeLaney and his staff have done on Flight Plan has been phenomenal and the overwhelming response reflects the incredibly high quality of their work."

ABOUT FLIGHT PLAN: From the final moments of the 2017 season and leading up to training camp in 2018, Flight Plan has allowed fans to follow the team's search for a new head coach and quarterback, free agency evaluation process, success in the 2018 NFL Draft and on-field preparations during organized team activities and minicamp.

Episode 10: Ready For Takeoff – New coach. New QBs. No shortage of headlines this offseason.

Episode 9: Full Deck – Josh Rosen and the rookies join Sam Bradford and the veterans during organized team activities. While offseason workouts continue, Arizona is awarded Super Bowl LVII during the NFL owners meetings.

Episode 8: Cardinal DNA – As the team takes shape, it's built with the "Cardinal DNA" at its core.

Episode 7: Own the Room – The drama of the 2018 NFL Draft unfolds from Dallas and inside the war room at team's headquarters in Tempe.

Episode 6: D-Day – Steve Wilks is wired for sound during his first minicamp as Head Coach, and General Manager Steve Keim is encamped in the war room preparing for the Draft. The Cardinals have their sights set for success as they receive the 2018 schedule.

Episode 5: Groundwork – The first offseason program under head coach Steve Wilks is underway. David Johnson and Markus Golden are hard at work to come back from season-ending injuries.

Episode 4: Veteran Moves – NFL free agency is underway, and the Arizona Cardinals make the offensive line a top priority.

Episode 3: Combining Together – Steve Wilks, his staff and the front office use the week at the NFL Combine to get on the same page about the Draft class and everything else it takes to build a team.

Episode 2: Mobilizing – The General Manager entrusts his scouts to evaluate the talent at the Senior Bowl and new Head Coach Steve Wilks settles into a routine at Cardinals headquarters. Finding the next franchise quarterback is a primary focus.

Episode 1: Reshuffling the Deck – The search for Arizona's new head coach is underway, and the Cardinals provide fans an in-depth look into the process.

ABOUT FACEBOOK WATCH: Launched in 2017, Facebook Watch is a video on-demand service that provides original content on the world's largest social media platform with over one billion users worldwide. Facebook Watch is available in the U.S. on mobile, desktop and through Facebook TV apps.

HOW TO WATCH: Regardless of whether they have a Facebook account, fans within the U.S. can watch the series by going to facebook.com/cardinalsflightplan. Viewers outside the U.S. are able to access the show via the Cardinals' main Facebook page.

UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM GENERATED $1.3 BILLION FOR VALLEY ECONOMY

According to a study completed by the Seidman Research Institute, W.P. Carey School of Business at Arizona State University, a three-year run of major sporting events hosted at University of Phoenix Stadium poured $1.3 billion into the Valley's economy.

This unprecedented stretch began with 2015 Pro Bowl and Super Bowl XLIX ($720 million), continued with the 2016 CFP National Championship Game ($274 million) and concluded with the 2017 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four ($325 million).

"From day one, the vision for this stadium was to build a world-class, multi-purpose facility capable of hosting the most prestigious events in sports so that our community could reap the immense benefits," said Cardinals President Michael Bidwill. "[This] news is a testament not only to all those who believed in that vision but the countless individuals who tirelessly worked to both attract and successfully stage these events."

A separate Nielsen Sports survey shows that the benefits of mega sporting events go beyond the massive financial windfall. According to the study, 90 percent of Valley residents say the three-year run had a positive impact on the community, and 78 percent say hosting these events is important.

"Mega sporting events are a huge benefit to Arizona's economy, generating millions in revenue and tax dollars and providing incredible national and international media exposure for our state," Gov. Doug Ducey said. "And they foster community pride as residents come together to celebrate the spirit of elite athletic competition."

Below is a glance at some of the major moments that have taken place at the Cardinals home stadium.

2017 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four – North Carolina 71, Gonzaga 65

Other major events held at University of Phoenix Stadium include the 2015 Pro Bowl, Wrestlemania XXVI in 2010, three games of the Copa America Centenario in 2016, and the Fiesta Bowl annually since 2007. The Fiesta Bowl hosted a CFP semifinal game for the 2016 season, in which Clemson defeated Ohio State 31-0 and went on to win the national championship. It is slated to host semifinals again for the 2019/20, 2022/23 and 2025/26 college football seasons.

NFL POLICY FOR RETRACTABLE ROOFS

The National Football League's Policy for Retractable Domed Stadiums was developed by the NFL Competition Committee.

Below is the excerpt from the 2018 Policy Manual for Member Clubs, detailing the league's policy for retractable roofs. At present, University of Phoenix Stadium, Reliant Stadium in Houston, Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis, AT&T Stadium in Dallas and Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta are the only five venues in the NFL with retractable roofs.

GENERAL POLICY

Until 90 minutes prior to kickoff, the home club will have the authority to determine if the retractable roof should be open or closed for each preseason and regular season game. The home club may choose to open the roof for some games and not for others.

In the event a game is started with the roof in the open position and it is closed pursuant to the procedures set forth below, the roof must thereafter remain in the closed position for the duration of the game.

If the roof is in the closed position for the first half of the game, the home club may elect to open the roof for the second half of the game, provided that such election takes place no later than 90 minutes before kickoff, the "NFL Retractable Roof Halftime Election Form" is properly submitted at that 90 minute meeting to the opposing club and the NFL Football Operations department, and the weather parameters set forth in the Election Form are satisfied when five minutes remain in the second quarter.

PRE-GAME PROCEDURES

- 1) In the week prior to a game and on game day, to preserve and protect the field, the League's tarp rule will be in effect, if the roof is open.
- 2) Forty-eight hours prior to kickoff, the home club must submit to the Football Operations department its defined weather parameters for opening the retractable roof at halftime, assuming an election to do so has been made at the 90-minute meeting on game day. For the purposes of this policy, "weather parameters" include maximum and minimum temperatures, maximum and minimum wind speeds, and likelihood of any precipitation or hazardous condition for the remainder of the game.
- 3) No later than one and one-half hours prior to kickoff, the home club is required to notify the Referee or the highest-ranking League official working at the game whether the roof shall be open or closed. The opening or closing of the roof as designated by the home club should be completed no later than 60 minutes prior to kickoff. All overhead lighting must be on prior to team warm-ups and must remain on for the duration of the game.
- 4) If, subsequent to the home club's decision to have the roof in the open position for the game, a hazardous condition (lightning, severe winds, etc.) develops or is anticipated that threatens the welfare of participants and/or spectators, as determined by the Referee after receiving input from the Stadium Manager and the highest-ranking League official working at the game, the roof shall be closed immediately. If it begins to rain at any time after the club's decision to have the roof in the open position for the game, the roof shall be closed immediately, by signal of the Referee to the Stadium Manager.

HALFTIME PROCEDURES

- 1) If at the 90-minute meeting the home club elected to open the roof at halftime, the roof must remain opened if the defined weather parameters are in place when five minutes remain in the second quarter. The weather parameters will be verified by the Football Operations department utilizing its designated weather service provider. Final determination as to whether the weather parameters have been satisfied will be made by the Football Operations department with two minutes remaining in the second quarter.
- 2) The visiting and home Head Coach must be notified by a member of the officiating crew that the roof will be opened for the second half immediately after the conclusion of the first half.
- 3) The opening of the roof at halftime must commence as soon as the first half ends to ensure that the roof is fully opened prior to the start of the second half.
- 4) In the event the home club fails to open the retractable roof after: (a) an election has been made; (b) the defined weather parameters have been satisfied; and (c) receiving approval from the Football Operations department to open the roof, the club will be subject to discipline by the Commissioner for conduct detrimental, absent any exigent circumstances such as mechanical failure of the retractable roof.

IN-GAME PROCEDURES

- 1) If a game starts with the roof open, it shall be closed at any time due to the development or anticipation of a hazardous condition that threatens the welfare of participants and/or spectators. The game Referee, in consultation with the highest-ranking League official working at the game, after receiving input from the Stadium Manager, will decide if the roof should be closed. If the roof is closed pursuant to the above, it must remain closed for the duration of the game. Play may continue while the roof is being closed, subject to the Referee suspending play pursuant to the procedures for emergency situations.
- 2) If a game starts with the roof open, it shall be closed at any time up to the last five minutes of the fourth period if it begins to rain. The decision to close the roof will be made by the Referee, who will signal to the Stadium Manager or otherwise communicate to him or her to begin closing the roof. Play will continue while the roof is closing.
- 3) If the fourth period ends with the roof in the open position, no change will be made prior to or during an overtime period, unless the roof is closed pursuant to the procedures for hazardous conditions as set forth in No. 1 above.

ABOUT UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

University of Phoenix Stadium is a prime example of sophisticated engineering, technology, and design. Regarded as one of the best venues in sports and entertainment, the stadium features both a retractable roof and retractable natural grass playing field. This combination has set an industry standard for design excellence providing the ultimate in fan comfort and allowing the flexibility to transform from a football-ready field to an unrestricted stadium floor in less than one hour.

Opened in 2006 and owned by the Arizona Sports and Tourism Authority, University of Phoenix Stadium is designed to host Super Bowls, blockbuster concerts, NCAA tournaments, and a variety of other world-class. Attracting record crowds is the core of University of Phoenix Stadium. The Arizona Cardinals have sold-out every game played at the stadium to date. In 2017, the stadium experienced its largest crowd to date when 77,612 fans attended the NCAA Final Four. The stadium also hosted two of the most-watched Super Bowls in history - Super Bowl XLII between the New York Giants and the New England Patriots and Super Bowl XLIX between the Patriots and Seattle Seahawks. University of Phoenix Stadium also plays host to the annual Fiesta Bowl and has hosted the BCS National Championship game twice.

In May of 2018, the league announced that the biggest event in American sports is returning to University of Phoenix Stadium for the third time, as Arizona was selected to host Super Bowl LVII that will cap the 2022 NFL season.

In July, the NCAA announced that the 2024 Men's Final Four will be held at University of Phoenix Stadium

ARCHITECTURE: World-renowned architect Peter Eisenman, in partnership with HOK Sport and Hunt Construction Group, created a state-of-the-art design that has already become an iconic Arizona landmark. The stadium's exterior skin takes its design cue from the barrel cactus and features alternating sections of shimmering metal panels intended to reflect the shifting desert light alongside magnificent vertical glass slots allowing fans a spectacular view of the horizon from any level of the interior.

RETRACTABLE FIELD: University of Phoenix Stadium also features a unique rollout natural grass playing field, contained in a single tray weighing 18.9 million-pounds (234 feet wide, 403 feet long). The first completely retractable field in the United States, it is positioned inside the stadium on game days to offer the preferred natural-grass playing surface for football and outside the stadium for the remaining 350+ days of the year to receive sunlight and watering. The field tray is powered by electric motors mounted on steel wheels riding on tracks embedded in the concrete floor and will takes approximately 60 minutes to move completely. The flexibility of this unique design allows University of Phoenix Stadium to serve as a true multipurpose venue featuring a 160,000 square-foot event floor for other events.

RETRACTABLE ROOF: Atop the stadium roof are two large retractable panels that open and close on an arc. The panels and much of the roof are made of a translucent fabric called Birdair that enables light to penetrate and gives the venue an open, airy feel. When closed it also allows for an air conditioned environment but when opened, takes advantage of Arizona's patented sunshine. The roof takes about 10 minutes to open or close.

SCOREBOARDS: As part of a collaboration between the Cardinals & the Arizona Sports & Tourism Authority (AZSTA), videoboards at the north & south ends were upgraded prior to the 2014 season. Both are more than triple the size of the previous ones. At the south end is a high-definition LED video display that measures 54 feet high by 164 feet wide and provides an additional 8,856 square feet of live video and replays. Featuring a 13HD pixel layout for crisp, clear imagery and 75% higher resolution, the display is capable of showing one large image to highlight live video and instant replays. It can also be divided into separate sections to show additional stats and information that fans want. The videoboard at the north end is also triple the size of the previous one, measuring 27 feet high by 97 feet wide. Both displays feature high contrast technology for the best in image quality.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY: University of Phoenix Stadium has an IP infrastructure that supports telecommunications throughout the Stadium. The voice and data communication network infrastructure is built entirely on Cisco equipment. All telecommunications services for voice, data, and video broadcast distribution are provided by COX Business Services and are provided via redundant services to the Stadium.

The stadium supports 2500 unique telephone DID numbers on a DS-1/PRI backbone. The Stadium provides 3Gb of Internet bandwidth, which can be adjusted as needed to support any technology requests that come to the stadium, and additional bandwidth can be requested in advance to increase the capacity as needed.

In 2013 the Stadium DAS system upgrade began using Crown Castle and a neutral host system. In 2014, the system was completely finished and hosts all major carriers, Verizon, AT&T, T-Mobile, and Sprint, and has multiple 4G-LTE sectors for each carrier, according to the needs of each.

In 2014 the Stadium Computing Network and Wi-Fi Systems were completely upgraded. An HD Wi-Fi System was installed throughout the stadium, which includes approximately 800 Cisco AP's and antennas, and is supported by a Cisco Prime Network infrastructure running over a 10Gb fiber optic backbone. The stadium also upgraded the Cisco Unified Communications System, replaced all Core and Edge switches and servers, as well as upgraded all security systems.

FITZGERALD NAMED NFL'S WALTER PAYTON CO-MAN OF THE YEAR

Wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald was named the co-winner of the 2016 "Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year" along with Giants QB Eli Manning at the NFL Honors prior to Super Bowl LI in February.

The "Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year" is the only league award that recognizes a player's off-the-field community service as well as his playing excellence. Fitzgerald, Manning and Carolina Panthers tight end Greg Olsen were the three finalists for the award.

"Our communities are better because of what Larry Fitzgerald, Eli Manning, Greg Olsen and the thousands of other outstanding NFL players bring to them," said Cardinals President Michael Bidwill. "They are all truly worthy of our recognition and appreciation. But at the Cardinals, we all know how special Larry is and why he is particularly deserving of this prestigious honor. What he has accomplished as a receiver in his 13 years in the NFL will be nearly impossible to match. Even more so is the level of class and integrity he has consistently brought to our league and our organization."

Fitzgerald joined Kurt Warner (2008) as the only players in Cardinals history to be named the "Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year."

Fitzgerald was named the "Arizona Cardinals/Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year" presented by Nationwide for the second time in his career (2012). He was recognized by Bidwill and representatives from Nationwide for his accomplishment following a practice last December.

CARDINALS SPECIALTY LICENSE PLATE RAISES MORE THAN $1 MILLION FOR CARDINALS CHARITIES IN 2017

The Cardinals Charities received more than $1 million from the sale of the team's specialty license plates in 2017, according to the Arizona Department of Transportation (ADOT).

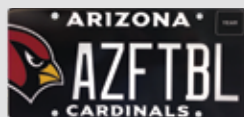

The Cardinals plate generated the most charitable proceeds of any professional or amateur sports team in the state with $1,286,987, and in all, 75,127 Arizona Cardinals plates were issued in 2017, according to ADOT.

"Seeing so many vehicles on the road displaying their Cardinals plates is fantastic, and the display of support is incredibly gratifying," said Cardinals President Michael Bidwill. "But even more meaningful is knowing the type of impact that the project is having on Cardinals Charities and, in turn, so many worthy causes throughout the state. We appreciate the opportunity that ADOT has provided and are especially grateful to all of those fans who have stepped up to participate."

Founded in 1990, Cardinals Charities' mission is to support programs designed to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children, women and minorities in Arizona.

Drivers who opt for the specialty plates pay $25 a year with $17 going to a designated charity or non-profit group. There were more than 540,000 specialty plates on Arizona vehicles in 2017, and the program raised more than $9.8 million for charitable and non-profit entities throughout the state. A black plate featuring a Cardinals birdhead logo, the Cardinals specialty plate was introduced in January of 2010.

Specialty license plates can be purchased online at www.ServiceArizona.com.

SPORTSMAN'S PARK

On-site parking accommodates 14,000 cars as part of an innovative site plan designed to create a truly unique tailgating experience for fans. This 160-acre region, known as Sportsman's Park, features over 20 acres of turf including the eight-acre public area known as the Great Lawn.

A tree-lined expanse of grass, the Great Lawn extends west from 95th Avenue to the Loop 101. The lawn stretches over 1,000 feet and is designed for use by fans while tailgating at games or to use during other activities outside the stadium. Surrounding the Great Lawn is a 50-foot wide promenade. In addition to the uninterrupted expanse of grass, the Great Lawn includes areas for vendors and musicians.

PAT TILLMAN MEMORIAL

The plaza surrounding University of Phoenix Stadium is known as the Pat Tillman Freedom Plaza, in honor of the former Cardinals safety who was killed in action on April 22, 2004, while serving his country as a member of the elite Army Ranger unit.

Fans attending home games can visit the Pat Tillman Memorial located at the northwest side of the plaza. The memorial includes a large white bronze sculpture of Tillman on the eastern side and a circular reflection pond on its western side.

The sculpture is approximately eight-feet tall, weighs over 500 pounds, and took nearly nine months to complete. After an extensive search, the Cardinals selected artists Omri Amrany and Gary Tillery to create the sculpture. The sculptors consulted with the team and Pat's wife, Marie, who worked to select the image of Tillman that would best convey his character and spirit. Serving as a backdrop to the sculpture is a nine-foot tall curved wall made of black concrete that measures 40 feet across, symbolic of Tillman's jersey number at Arizona State.

The brimming pool of water on the western side consists of a large 60-foot circular pond made of black concrete and stainless steel. Intended to create a pool of tranquility, it has a surface area of 2,300 square feet.

To the west of the memorial is a grove of 40 Oak trees that symbolizes the jersey number Tillman wore as an Arizona Cardinal and the entire area is surrounded by a grove of Ash and Oak trees.

CARDINALS PRESERVE PAT TILLMAN'S LOCKER AT TEMPE FACILITY

On September 11, 2015, the 14th anniversary of the 9/11 terrorist attacks, the Cardinals unveiled the locker of former safety Pat Tillman at the team's Tempe Training Facility.

A new locker room was built as part of a two-year, $15 million renovation of the facility, but Tillman's locker was preserved to display in a glass enclosure between the weight room and cafeteria. Included in the locker are Tillman's jersey, helmet, shoulder pads and draft card, along with a description of his life and career.

"We've decided to preserve Pat Tillman's locker, and tell his story," team president Michael Bidwill said at the unveiling ceremony. "Many of our future players, and even current players, may not know the stories of the Cardinals. But we wanted to tell the stories and talk about the history, the history of our organization and the history of Pat Tillman."

After a decorated career at Arizona State University, Tillman was selected in the seventh round (226th overall) of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Cardinals and he played for Arizona from 1998-2001 before enlisting in the U.S. Army in 2002. He was killed in action in Afghanistan on April 22, 2004.

Tillman's No. 40 is retired by the Cardinals and he is a member of the team's Ring of Honor.

UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX SECURES STADIUM NAMING RIGHTS

On September 26, 2006 the Cardinals and University of Phoenix announced an exclusive, multi-year agreement with University of Phoenix to become the team's naming rights partner. It marked the first time and only time a National Football League venue has been named after an educational institution.

John Sperling, PhD, a Cambridge-educated economist, professor and entrepreneur, founded University of Phoenix in 1976 in response to the changing needs of the work-place. It was part of his commitment to provide adults with the higher education they would need to fill those needs. University of Phoenix provides students access to quality education, ongoing support and a range of resources to help them succeed.

S.I. NAMES UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM BEST FIELD IN NFL

Sports Illustrated named the Arizona Cardinals playing surface at University of Phoenix Stadium the best in the NFL in October 2015.

In formulating its list, the publication said it relied on "past player rankings, insight from current players and details from groundskeepers."

In ranking University of Phoenix Stadium #1, Sports Illustrated wrote: "You'll hear very little argument about who holds the top spot for the best field in the NFL. Sure, Arizona has plenty of sunshine and can grow a healthy amount of Tifway 419 Bermuda grass, but more importantly, the Cardinals have the pleasure of rolling the field outside the stadium. The entire playing surface is retractable, in one giant tray, allowing the turf to grow and get maintained outside the stadium, coming inside only for NFL football games. And with a groundskeeping staff doing a stellar job with the turf, Arizona earns the top spot."

In addition to SI, the National Football League Players Association (NFLPA) has also asked players to rank the league's top playing surfaces in the past. The field at University of Phoenix Stadium has finished No. 1 in every NFLPA survey released since the venue opened in 2006.

CARDINALS CONTINUE MAJOR UPGRADES TO UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM

During the 2017 offseason, the Cardinals completed the first part of a two-phase, $28 million expansion and renovation of the club areas on the east and west sides of University of Phoenix Stadium.

In addition to enhancing and expanding the pre-existing areas, the project included the creation of the high-end “Bubble Lounge” adjacent the west side club area.

The Cardinals have also committed additional resources to upgrade the infrastructure surrounding the stadium.

“We’ve already done about $28 million to renovate the club area,” team President Michael Bidwill said. “About an equal amount on parking lots and infrastructure related to the pedestrian ways are coming to the stadium from those new parking lots.”

Fan experience enhancements will also be made to University of Phoenix Stadium prior to the Super Bowl LVII being played at the venue in 2023.

“In addition, we are going to upgrade video boards, Wi-Fi and all the stuff you don’t really see changes to, but they improve the fan experience,” Bidwill said.

Prior to the 2016 campaign, the Cardinals brought fans an unparalleled level of audio quality through the installation of a state-of-the-art sound system at University of Phoenix Stadium.

Before University of Phoenix Stadium hosted Super Bowl XLIX in 2015, the Cardinals covered the cost of an $8 million upgrade to the stadium’s wireless system, and the team fronted the purchase of two high-definition LED video boards for $10.8 million.

STEVE SCHOENFELD MEMORIAL PRESS BOX

The press box at University of Phoenix Stadium is named in honor of Steve Schoenfeld, who covered the team and the NFL for The Arizona Republic from 1988 until 2000 when he was killed by a hit-and-run driver.

Schoenfeld worked in Tulsa and Dallas before coming to Arizona and spent the last few months of his life covering the NFL for CBS SportsLine. A tough, but fair, reporter and an eloquent writer, he was president of the Pro Football Writers Association from 1997-99, and his untimely death stunned the league.

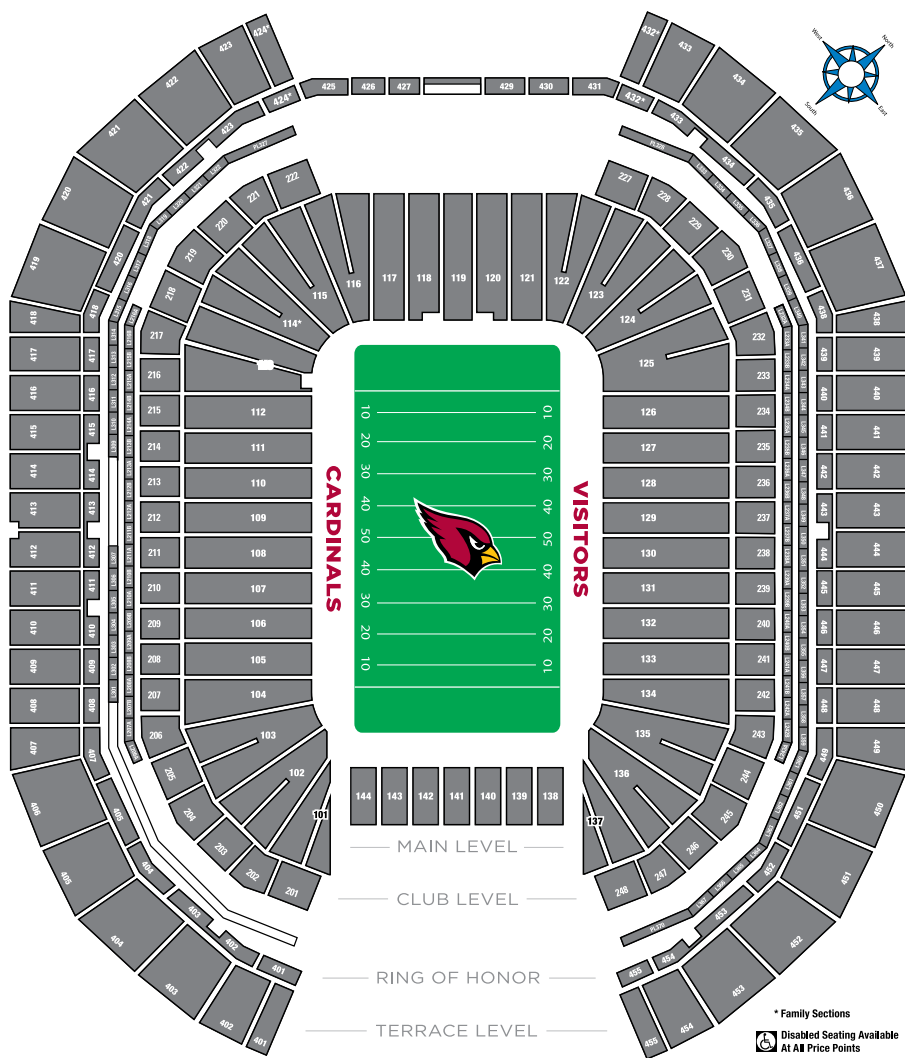

Steve was a loving family man as well. He was devoted to his wife, Robin, and was a loving son, brother and uncle. He cared deeply about his friends, and he seemed to have thousands of them.

Said Republic colleague and writer Kent Somers, “Steve never met a stranger. He not only knew everyone, he had phone numbers for them, too – and didn’t hesitate to call them. It’s fitting the press box is named in honor of Steve, because to him there was no better place to be on a Sunday afternoon.”

CARDINALS OWNER BILL BIDWILL INDUCTED INTO ARIZONA SPORTS HALL OF FAME

Arizona Cardinals owner Bill Bidwill was inducted into the Arizona Sports Hall of Fame during an induction ceremony last November. The five-member 2017 class consisted of Bidwill, former Arizona Coyotes captain Shane Doan, sports journalist Paola Boivin, former Arizona State wrestler and NCAA champion Anthony Robles and Grand Canyon University basketball coach and former Phoenix Suns star Dan Majerle.

The Arizona Sports Hall of Fame honors athletes, coaches, administrators and others who have made significant contributions to Arizona Sports.

Bidwill's association with the team began as a youngster when he served as a Chicago Cardinals ball boy on the city's South Side. A graduate of Georgetown University and a U.S. Navy veteran, the Cardinals owner is now in his eighth different decade presiding over the oldest continuously-operated professional football franchise. The most-recent 10-year stretch has seen the organization reach unprecedented heights including three division titles as well as a conference championship and the team's first Super Bowl appearance. Over the last five seasons, the Cardinals have won more games (49) than in any other five-year stretch in team history and have sold out all 124 games played at University of Phoenix Stadium since it opened in 2006.

Long noted for his philanthropy, "Mr. B" has quietly but consistently impacted Arizona by supporting numerous local charities since the team's arrival in the desert in 1988. He also directed the formation of Cardinals Charities, the team's philanthropic arm dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes. He was credited with bringing Super Bowl XXX to Arizona in 1996. The Valley also hosted Super Bowl XLVII in February of 2008 and in early 2015 hosted both the Pro Bowl and Super Bowl XLIX, which combined to deliver a record economic impact of $720 million.

In May 2017, Bidwill was selected to the Georgetown Prep Athletic Hall of Fame. A 1949 graduate of the school, Bidwill was a two-sport athlete for the Little Hoyas football and baseball teams. He was previously honored with the Paul "Tank" Younger Award from the Fritz Pollard Alliance, whose purpose is to promote diversity and equality of job opportunity in the NFL. Bidwill has long been at the forefront in providing opportunities to individuals regardless of race or gender.

Bidwill was inducted into the Sports Faith Hall of Fame in 2010 and later that year was awarded an honorary doctor of humane letters degree from Northern Arizona University for his contributions to the community and his profession.

- WR Larry Fitzgerald – Carol Fitzgerald Memorial Fund
- CB Patrick Peterson – Foundation for Success
- SLB Deone Bucannon – Deone Bucannon Foundation
- WR J.J. Nelson – Children's Village
- RB David Johnson – Mission 31 Foundation
- DE Markus Golden – Sickle Cell Disease Association
- OL Evan Boehm – American Heart Association

ARIZONA AWARDED SUPER BOWL LVII

VALLEY WILL HOST GAME FOR FOURTH TIME WHEN SUPER BOWL RETURNS IN 2023

The biggest event in American sports is returning to Arizona as University of Phoenix Stadium has been selected to host Super Bowl LVII that will cap the 2022 NFL season. The announcement was made following a vote of team owners at the NFL's Spring Meetings in Atlanta in May.

"We are very grateful that the NFL and its owners have once again selected Arizona to host the pre-eminent event in sports," said Arizona Super Bowl Host Committee Chairman David Rousseau. "It is a testament to the stellar reputation that our community has earned for staging world-class events and there are none bigger than the Super Bowl. We clearly have the facilities, the infrastructure and most importantly the people to execute an event that has proven to have such a profoundly positive impact on our region."

Super Bowl LVII will be the fourth Super Bowl played in Arizona and the third in 15 years at University of Phoenix Stadium. The Valley last hosted Super Bowl XLIX following the 2014 season. With Super Bowl LVII being held at University of Phoenix Stadium, Arizona will join South Florida, New Orleans, Los Angeles and Tampa Bay as the only sites selected to host the Super Bowl at least four times.

Past Super Bowls in Arizona

Super Bowl	Site	Date	Result
XLIX (49)	University of Phoenix Stadium	2/1/15	New England 28, Seattle 24
XLII (42)	University of Phoenix Stadium	2/3/08	NY Giants 17, New England 14
XXX (30)	Sun Devil Stadium	1/28/96	Dallas 27, Pittsburgh 17

The nation's most popular sporting event and most widely-viewed television program, the Super Bowl provides an immense boost to the local economy. The last time the game was staged in Arizona it produced a record economic impact for the state. A 2015 study by the W.P. Carey School of Business at Arizona State University determined that Super Bowl XLIX, the 2015 Pro Bowl and related events produced a gross economic impact of $719.4 million for the region. That was the largest economic impact of any special event ever held in Arizona. More than 1 million people visited Verizon Super Bowl Central in downtown Phoenix and more than 500,000 people enjoyed events in downtown Scottsdale.

Since opening in 2006, University of Phoenix Stadium has continuously proven to be a world-class venue capable of hosting the country's biggest sporting events. In a span of just over 26 months in 2015-17, the stadium hosted a Pro Bowl, Super Bowl, College Football National Championship Game and the NCAA Men's Final Four. It was an unprecedented stretch for a stadium that generated $1.3 billion for the state during that span.

By the time it plays host to Super Bowl LVII, University of Phoenix Stadium will have undergone $100 million in improvements including parking infrastructure, state-of-the-art wifi, video boards, sound system upgrades and club-area enhancements since it last hosted a Super Bowl following the 2014 season.

FUTURE SITES: Atlanta will host Super Bowl LIII following the upcoming 2018 season and will be followed by previously-announced games in South Florida (LIV following the 2019 season), Tampa (LV following the 2020 season) and Los Angeles (LVI following the 2021 season). In addition to announcing today that Arizona has been awarded Super Bowl LVII, the NFL also revealed New Orleans as the host of Super Bowl LVIII the following year.
